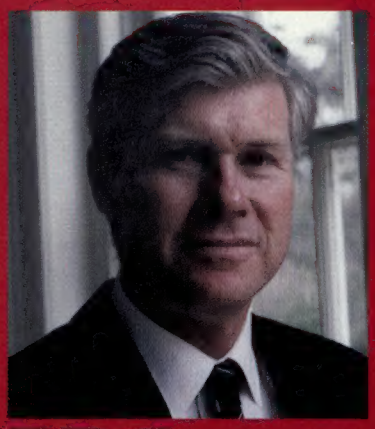
Prize Day 238

Farewell 252

Directory 254

Published in Canada Printed in USA



With great anticipation, in early September 2002, we opened St. Andrew's College's 104th school year in the Ketchum Auditorium with a packed student assembly of 548 boys. The year was to be uniquely challenging for several reasons; the double graduating Class of 2003; the largest student enrollment in the school's history; the Campus Master Plan construction projects, portable classrooms, and the launch of the wireless laptop program. (faculty only in 2002/03)

Appropriately, the Prefects chose the theme of "Spirit" for the school year, a trait that is in abundance at S.A.C. Often defined as " the vital essence or animating force in man ", and associated with vivacity or energy, the term describes a state of mind or mood. It is often connected with loyalty or devotion – in this case to the school. School "Spirit" was particularly evident at this year's Homecoming, Terry Fox Run, MacPherson Hockey Tournament, "Oklahoma", special Tuesday Chapel services, spirit days, sports events, and Focus. The school colours of red & white were proudly displayed at school and community events. In spite of operating in cramped and noisy quarters, through a brutally cold and long winter, SAC Spirit prevailed. The pictures and stories that follow are testimonials to a great year!

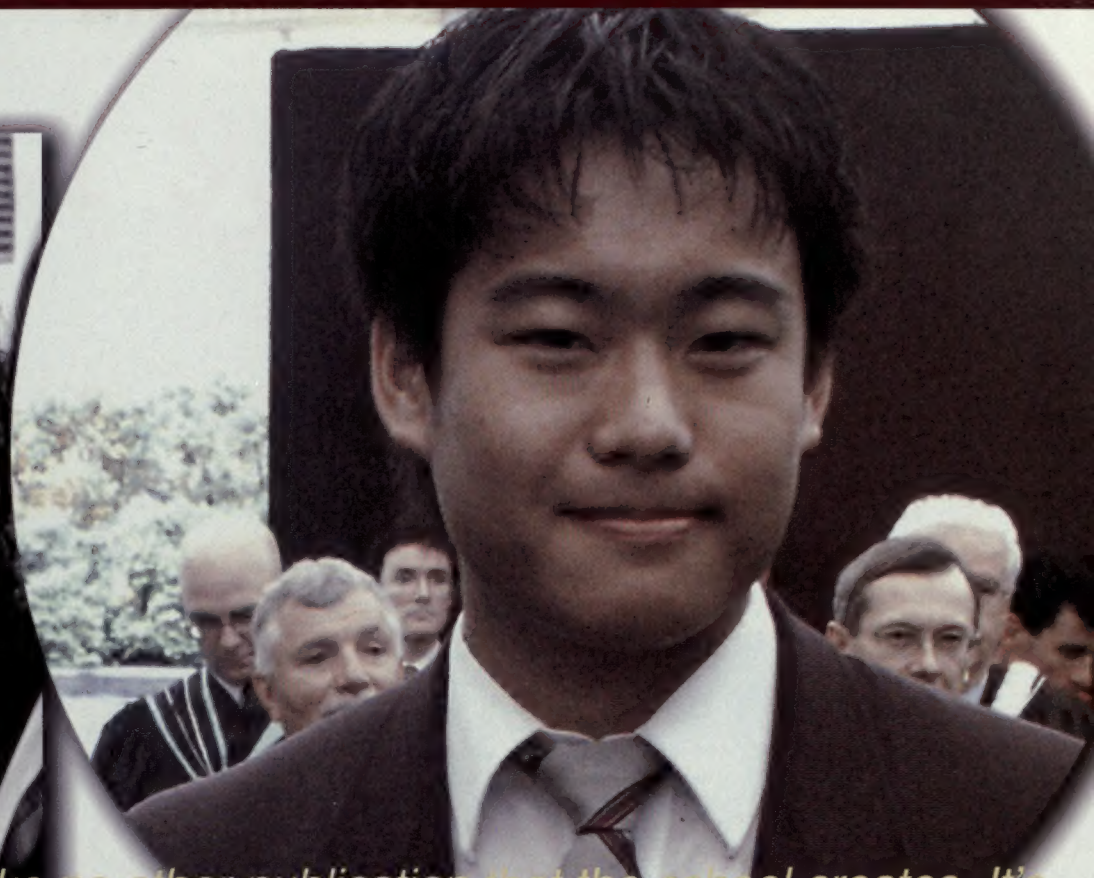
The Review
The Review



The Review is like no other publication that the school creates. It's essentially a historical document that is created by student and staff, both inside the classroom and outside. It is a collaboration between writers, photographers and editiors, who all arrive in September with little or no knowledge of what commitment is needed or expected. And it's always more than ever planned for! It needs the co-operation of coaches and staff who provide documentation about seasons and events and the dedicated single mindedness of the faculty advisors, Mrs. R. Berman and Mr. S. Kimmerer to chase, collect, cull and gather this information

This years publication is another step forward in the pursuit of producing a first class document. The editors, Derek Toms and Mike Lin were instrumental in helping create the theme and layout style of this publication. The Communications course - TGJ3M-01 - created most of the sports pages and many of the special events pages as well. Cody Biggings, Chris Bromley, Ricky Reininger, J.P. Suddaby, Alex McNabb, and Erik Bornstein need to be singled out for their contribution. While there are always mistakes with a project like this,(please be forgiving) we hope this publication reflects the school year as it was - one of change and progress.

Andrew Douglas, Mervyn Frame, Drewe MacIver, Scott Lennox, Nicholas Dadson, Michael Lin, David Woodcock, Nathan Rothwell, Adam Parent, Jason Lau, Jarryd Stock, Collin Collins, John Housser, Joseph Rothwell, J.P. Suddaby, Patrick McGrath, Dave Banwell, Matt Mitchell, Hugh Dowell, Adam Hoffman

This is was a challenging school year, with two graduating classes, construction, and various changes around the school. This year's Prefects managed to overome such challenges and live up to the year's theme: Spirit. It was a truly unique year in St. Andrew's College history, with the most amount of prefects ever - twenty. This year's prefects used their large numbers to their advantage, organizing events on a grander scale than previous years. They were busy throughout the entire year, planning events such as Homecoming, semi-formals, Spirit Week, Mayfest, the Associate Press Club outings, and the Cadet Formal. The bar was raised considerably as well in their t-shirt production, and a new Grads' Common Room was also created for the graduates of the double cohort. Spirit Week, another new introduction to the school, raised eyebrows and brought smiles to the faces of the students with the theme of the week: Streaking.

In conclusion, 2002-03 was a succesful year for the school and its prefect body. The Prefects would like to thank all those who aided us in our endavours throughout the year. Special thanks should go out to: Mr. Staunton, Mr. Josselyn, Mrs. Petri, Mrs. Perrier, Mr. Hillick, the Kitchen Staff, the Janitorial staff, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Shrimpton, the parents, and the graduating class for their continuous support. Thank you for a great year. To the Prefects of next year: Good luck, and take care of our school!

Fall

Term Events

For two days the graduating class of 2003 headed off to Camp Robin Hood to develop and build leadership skills and potential amongst each other as well as a sense of trust with their fellow classmates.

Through out the day a group of eleven students or so, led by one of our 2003 Prefects would rotate between different activities all aimed at teaching and extracting different leadership skills. Each group would work together as a team to complete a task or challenge presented to them. In order to complete these challenges all members of the team had to get involved and each member was encouraged to develop their own leadership potential.

On top of group activities there was also a chance to go swimming and watch as guy's flipped and twisted off the super springy diving board, play Frisbee, try archery, rock climb on an indoor wall and enjoy lunch and a show while a crazy few went up on stage and sang along to the music.

These two days were a great way to start the year, make some new friends and spend time with old ones. We were also able to meet some of the new boys and introduce them to the graduating class of 2003, who will become the potential leaders of tomorrow.

3rd Annual Terry Fox Run - On a drizzly day on September 29th, St. Andrew's College took place in it's 3rd Annual Terry Fox Run for cancer research, organised by the Outreach Committee. Although the weather was tough, all of the staff and students showed tremendous spirit throughout the race. Everyone raised pledges and ran for a worthy cause sporting the red and white school colours. Overall, the school raised approximately $8000 for the cause. Thanks is extended to everyone involved from the Terry Fox Foundation.

Walking on the lower fields prior to my 12:30 kick off, I came across two older gentlemen with name tags. Forgive me, for at this point in time I cannot recollect what was written on the tags but I can remember what they said. "Nice legs son. What team is fortunate enough to wear kilts on such a fine morning?" He was right you know, it was a fine morning. The forecast had been cold, but in contrast to the weather man's opinion the day was crisp and comfortable. You could feel victory everywhere. "First Soccer Sir. We've got a game today against De La Salle. The kilts are for show." "I see you're a Prefect as well. I don't suppose you still have a cane. He turned to his companion. "Remember Bill. Remember back in '58 when we had the power. We used to skip out of class 'cause nobody cared about us Prefects. I used to find kids who were messin' about or out of line and give 'em hell." If it wasn't for Mr. Scoular's book Not an Ordinary Place I would've thought these two guys had lost their marbles. That was just it though. This was what Homecoming was all about. Old boys coming back and reliving their St. Andrew's career through us current students. These two gentlemen from the class of '58, who had maintained their friendship to the current day, became school chums once again thanks to Homecoming 2002. J.P. Suddaby

99th Annual Cross Country Run

As a time honoured tradition since 1903, the Cross Country Run at St. Andrew's has allowed students to show their school spirit as they cover a grueling 2.0/3.5km run only to be rewarded by a four day break and a well deserved Thanksgiving dinner. Although chilly, this year had perfect conditions for the race, and proved to be exciting for the record number of students (and staff) who participated. Congratulations to all!

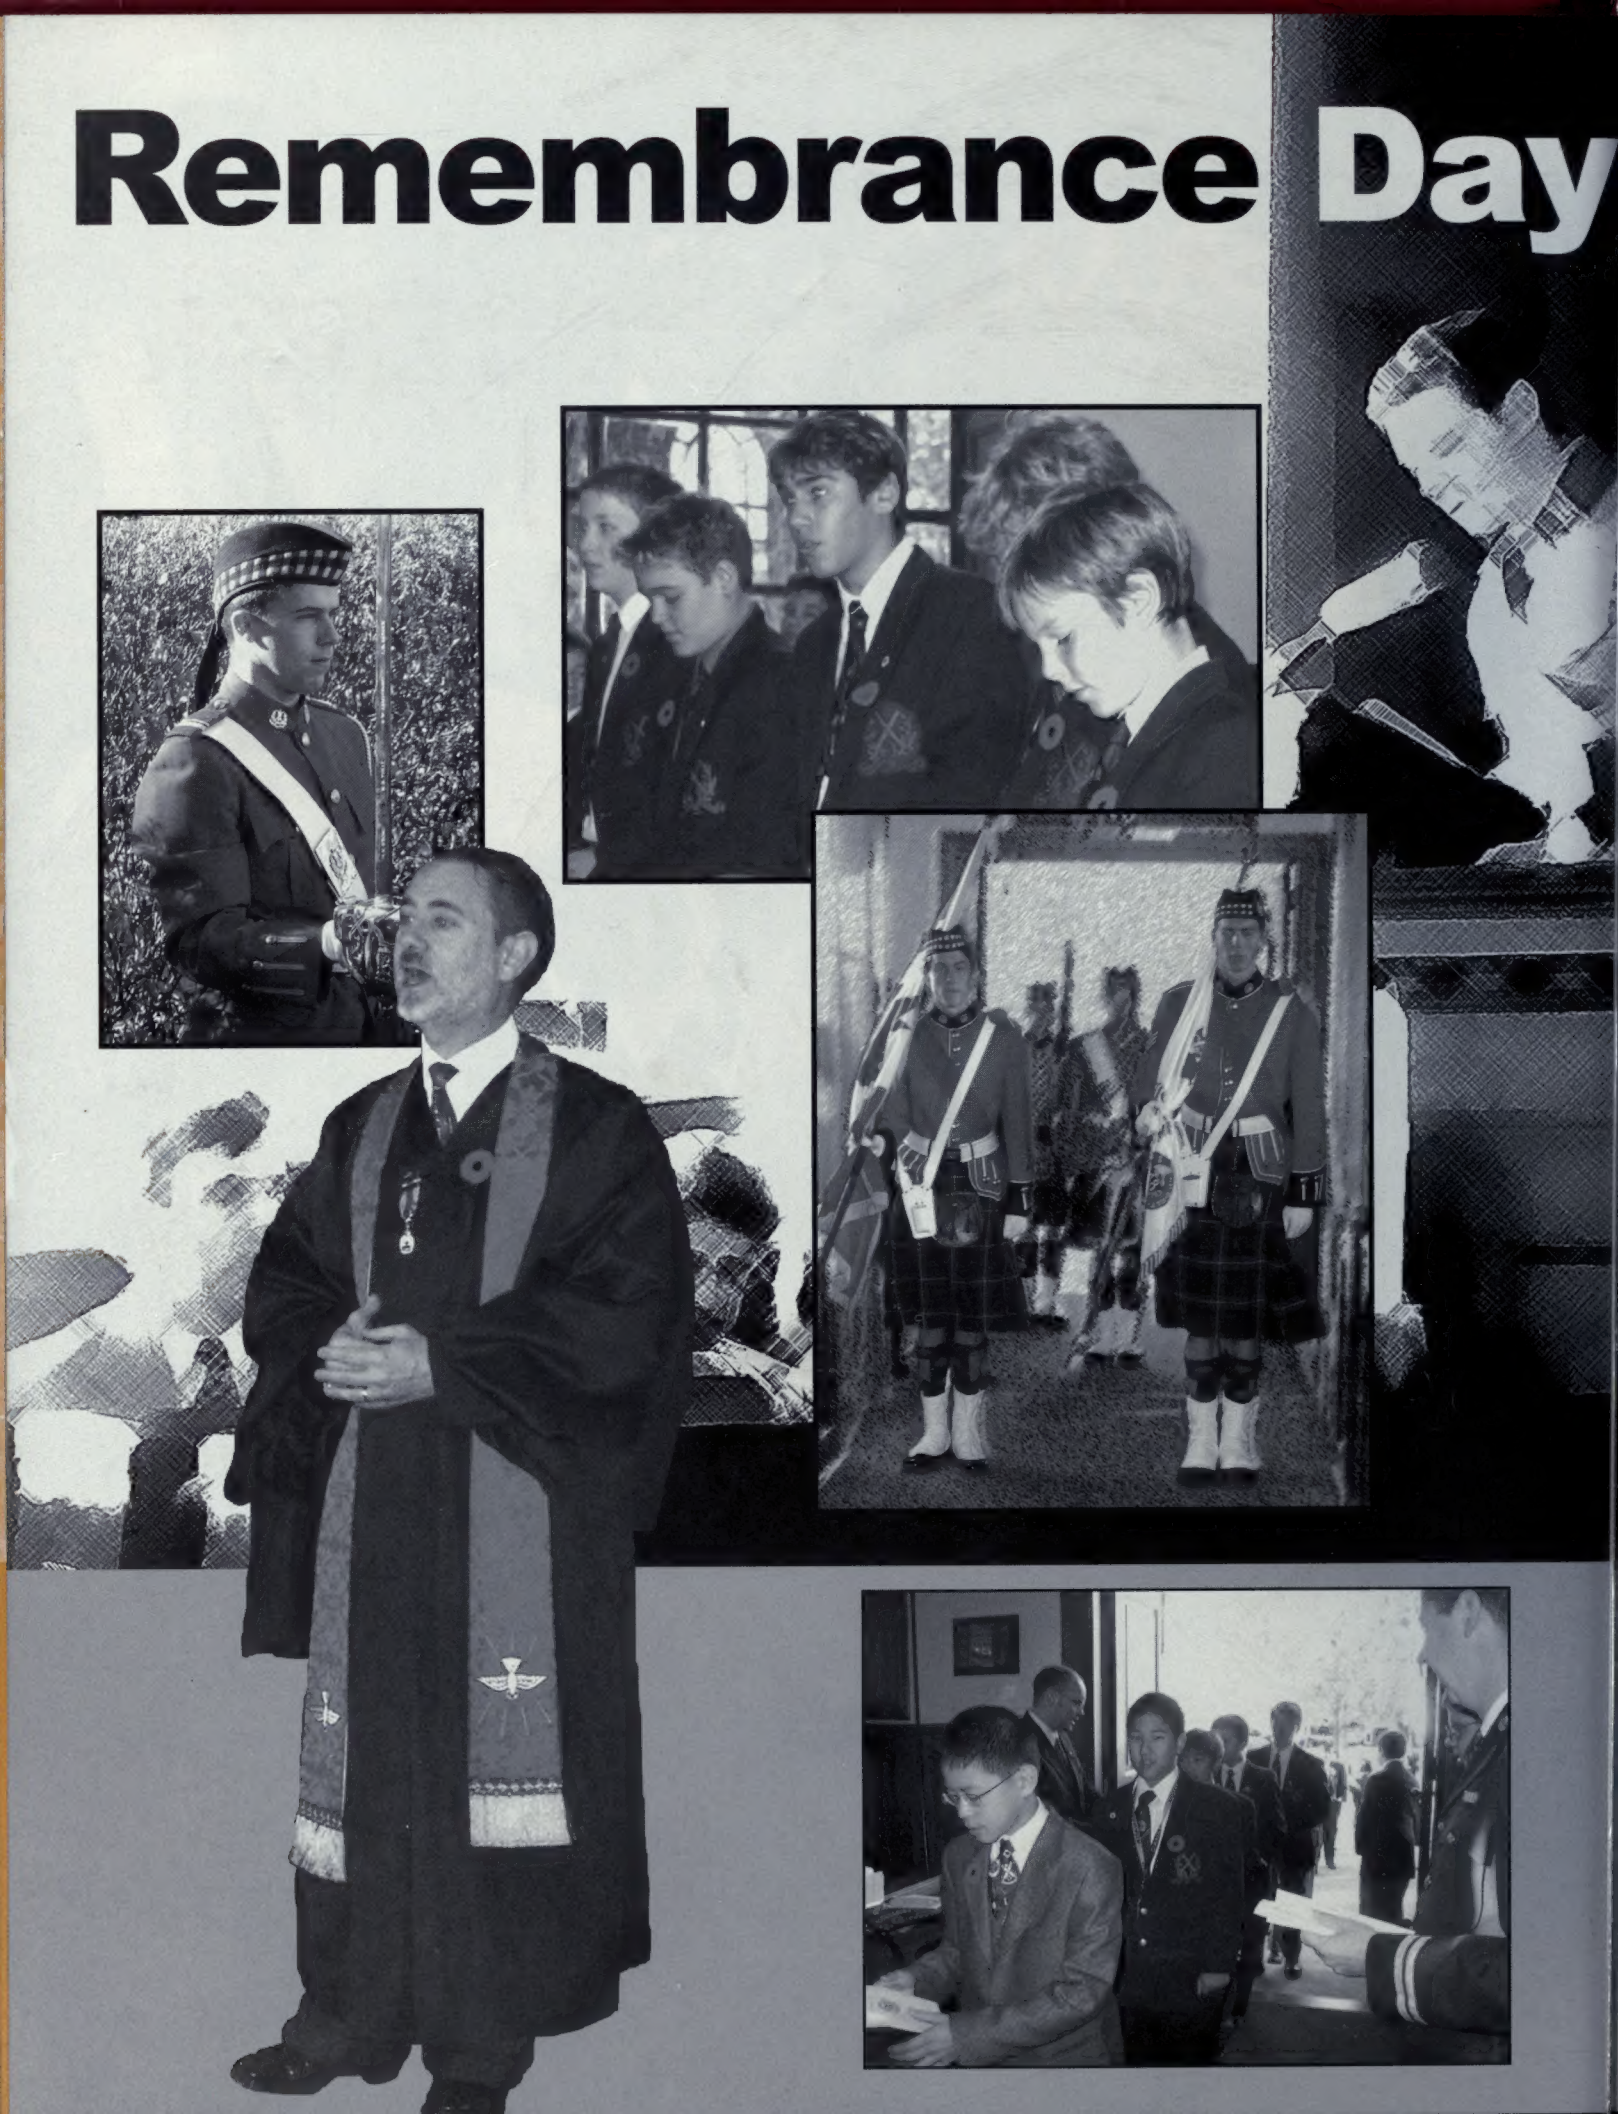
Remembrance Day



9/11 Prayer Circle

At a place that's as busy as St.Andrew's College, it isn't often that we have a chance to stop and reflect. However, twice this year the school took a break to remember those that have lost their lives. On Remembrance Day a special chapel ceremony was held to think back on the Andreans that made the ultimate sacrifice to secure freedom in World Wars I and II. As well, a Prayer Circle was held with the entire St.Andrew's community to recall the tragic events of the September 11th attacks on their one year anniversary. Students and teachers alike found solace in the coming together of the school. - Alex McNabb

Middle School Arts Day

November 13, 2002

The Middle School students were involved in an Arts Day on November 13, 2002 when visiting artists came to the school and taught the boys various different mediums and techniques. It was an exciting day for all with activities ranging from clay sculpture to digital photography to watercolour painting. It was an extremely successful event and we hope to make it a tradition at the school. The boy's favorite activity was the "Messy Hands" art bus!

Oklahoma!

A lot of people asked me why I was involved in the production of Oklahoma. My response never wavered - It was my last chance. The last kick at the can. The last time I would work on a professional production at St.Andrew's College. People think that high school performances can't be very good. What William Scoular has done at our school is taken prep-school students and transformed them into outstanding actors. Most students who get involved in the program don't realize the talent that lies within them. With the help of Mr. Scoular and his professional team of musicians and choreographers, anything becomes possible.

With all this said, I spent about 30 hours a week for ten weeks just to be in 3 scenes. I go to school, I go play soccer or hockey, and then I go to play practice until 10:00pm (sometimes later). Why would I do this? I love acting. I love the idea of transforming into somebody else just a little bit everyday. I get to step out of my skin, my problems and get swept away to animaginary place.

The cast this year was one of a kind. Mr. Scoular pulled out all of the stops and found an extraordinary actress to play the role of Laurie. Jarryd Stock mastered the role of Curly and became the backbone of the production. He was in almost every scene singing, dancing, and wowing the audience. Stuart Manchee played the role of Judd and created one of themost convincing characters I've ever scene. Peggy Reininger was once again an intricate part of the costume selection, tailoring, and organisation. On top of that she was a principle character in the production.

Oklahoma was one of those productions that touched the audience and moved them back in time to a place where the world was a simple place. On a certain level, the production parallels all of the things that are currently going on in the world. It is a special play that reminds us of the important things in life. An S.A.C. dramatic production is a worthwhile experience that I would recommend to any up and coming Andreans.

TERM SPORTS

On the field at one point this year we had won 16 straight football games without a loss and were 26 wins 4 losses and 1 tie over the previous four years. We have won Championships and had our share of tough losses.

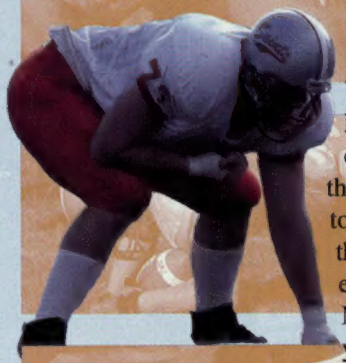
More then the success on the field, football had played a very key role in the development of character, leadership, spirit and heart. These are some of the most cherished qualities as young men attempt to achieve the greatest of all compliments….. that of being considered the ideal Andrean. The coaches are very pleased that beyond the many wins and few losses contributing to the development of "The Complete Man" Is Still our central goal.

We began in training camp and the boys demonstrated that above all else on team was going to out work this group of young men .

In our first HUGE test after only nine practices we went to Cincinnati to play a team one month and four weeks into their season. After getting down early, and I might add often, we showed tremendous commitment and resolve to not give up and we scrapped through the final half with our heads held high.

In the regular season the highlights were……

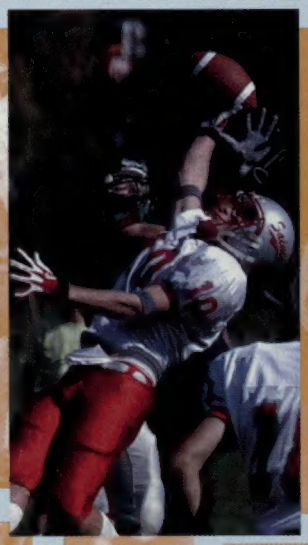
Demolishing UCC 31-13 and having a very easy time of it. The defence holding, according to the Toronto Star, "The best Running Back in Ontario" to negative yardage.



Week two was homecoming and the De La Salle a very tough battle and a great overtime victory of 38-24. Highlights of this game were Chris MacFarlane's three touchdowns, Jordan Ross's Huge hit on the De La Salle Fullback and Jeff Johnstone emerging from out of the shadow of Michael Faulds to throw for over 400 yards and four touchdown passes.

Week three and four saw lopsided victories over Ridley and TCS and a restlessness among the team because things were getting too easy. In each of those games we were up by 21 or more points at the half.

The semi-finals saw a return of the enthusiasm and energy of seasons past and we played some of our best football dismantling Ridley 49-7.



The finals arrived and confidence was high. It is a game that graduating players will want to forget, one of those games you replay in your head a thousand times. In the end we simply didn't make the plays necessary to win and we went down to defeat 14 – 12.

When teams get accustomed to winning, losses of this nature take a huge toll, but it is only because of the great success that this program has enjoyed that a loss like this stings so much.

Overall the team committed itself physically, grew as a football team and learned some very difficult lessons about integrity and being true to the most important thing: Commitment to the concept of team.

Having just 4 returning players, and therefore 40 rookies, most teams would have considered this our building year. But from the first day of camp it was clear that this was to be a superb team. In addition to the already high expectations placed on players like Anton Bennett and Karl McCartney, the coaches were thrilled to see a level of physical and mental preparation unparalleled in previous years. Many, many rookies showed up in top form and ready to play this demanding sport.

The season opened the way it was to continue with a 33-7 domination of UCC. We met them again in the semi-finals where the result was 33-0: a fitting testimony to the strength of this year's defense. The big hits of Dumani Ross were overwhelmed only by the pit-bull aggression of inside linebackers Mike Greco and Charlie Abbot. Half of our games were defensive shutouts, while only St. Mike's managed to score more than one touchdown against us.

Offensively we were blessed with a superb quarterback in Rob MacKay whose arm is going to be a formidable weapon at First next season.The speed of his passes meant that the receiver corps' hardest job was often hanging onto the ball.

Anton and Karl were obvious leaders on the field, but returnee Brian Daley had a fantastic final game while MattSuddaby showed impressive improvement throughout the season. Scott Johnstone was both a top receiver and a superb quarterback who has already got the coaches dreaming of next season. If only we can figure out a way for him to throw to himself...

Once again we faced St. Mikes in the finals and, despite a fair margin on the scoreboard, the game was actually close with most of the points coming from big plays or big errors. Despite being the only team to score two TD's on the awesome St. Mike's squad we made too many errors to be in the game at the end – but a second consecutive Finalist finish with 5-2 record is only one win away from where we want to be.

It was an exciting end to an outstanding season in which 44 young men made a huge commitment to the development of their skills and the continuation of one of the best school football programs in this province. Best of luck to those who are going up to the 1st Team level next year, meanwhile for returnees we know we already have the nucleus of another outstanding team.

Under normal circumstances, I would discard our 2002-2003 soccer season. In the Ridley Early Bird, we had a premature exit not making it out of the round robin. During the season, we were outmatched by our rivals Ridley College and our perfect record was shattered. Our National Tournament in Vancouver was a bust, losing to Ridley in the quarterfinals. In the CISAA finals we were defeated by shady refereeing and eventually penalty kicks. The championship went to our nemesis, Ridley. As captain, I led my team to victory in many battles. However, St. Andrew's had lost the war.

Before this season, First Soccer used to be about winning. In fact, winning was expected and losing wasn't tolerated. Should a soccer player therefore hang his head in defeat? Normally, I would be so devastated over a championship loss I wouldn't talk for a few days, maybe weeks. But this was not an ordinary season. My head has never been higher. Every test, every challenge was met with an unparalleled effort from 16 men. These men did not play for themselves, or even for their team, they played for the name on their jersey. They bled because they believed in themselves and in their school. After the repercussions of losing two players in Vancouver set in, First Soccer could've packed it in and called it quits. Yet everyone in the dressing room knew that St. Andrew's wasn't about quitting. If St. Andrew's doesn't quit, then wearing that jersey means no matter what, anything less than 100% from everyone on the field is unacceptable. First Soccer stepped it up a notch.

We marched our way to the finals of CISAA. Two weeks had been devoted to the match against Ridley. The final would not disappoint. This time, our coaches had out-thought the Ridley opponent and S.A.C. was more than prepared to do battle. For 90 minutes, every St. Andrew's player was winning his own little battle against his marker. We were winning 1-0 and First Soccer was doing everything in their power to stay on top.

MVP, Patrick McGrath, put his body on the line like he always did and displayed effort that only lifted the play of his teammates. MIP, David Nudds, made the most spectacular save ever seen in my four years of high-school soccer. Yet, somehow, someway, in the 94th minute the referee was able to award a free-kick and sure enough, Ridley found a way to put it in the back of the net. Overtime settled nothing and penalty kicks are a tough way to go down. Not many games are lost with nobody to blame.

Patrick McGrath left these words for First Soccer. "It was a season that revealed our true character, our tenacious desire to win. It was a season marked by disappointment and loss, yet we never, ever gave up. As a team we were never closer, we all supported each other, we all won together, all unfortunately lost together. It was really the perfect season." Our team may not have won, but the 2002-2003 soccer season was truly perfect. Many thanks go to the coaches and to Hugh. I will forever hear the bagpipes.

The Junior Varsity Soccer team had a challenging and rewarding season this fall. Starting with 40 players, the team was very competitive in its selection of who would remain on the pitch for the season. The early bird tournament looked very favourable with 2 wins, and the refs commented on our ability to field three almost completely different tier 2 teams throughout the day. Many players certainly had talent and ability and assistant coach Mr Ainsworth and I struggled through the process of choosing the right combination, resulting in the final JV team of twenty. Highlights of the year included our match against Holy Trinity School. Down 3-1 at the half, some aggressive mid-field work and incredible headers from our forwards brought us back to a 3- 3 tie in the last few minutes to end the game. By mid way through the season we had found our rhythm and celebrated three consecutive wins against Lakefield, Pickering College whom we beat 6 – 3, and TCS with a 6 – 1 thrashing. We entered the semi-finals with 4 wins, 2 ties and 2 losses.
The semi-final match was held at UCC. We were concerned about the game as we had tied them at our Homecoming earlier in the season, but we were confident that our game had been greatly refined since our first battle. The game was extremely well played by both teams, with a nil score at the half. Dominating the play throughout the second half though, we were confident that it was just moments before we would be in the lead. Unfortunately, a penalty was called unexpectedly in the 75th minute of play and that spelled the end for us. A well placed penalty kick brought an exciting season to a close.

The expectations were high this year for U16 Soccer, as the graduation of two classes at the end of the year, made this truly a developmental side for our senior team next year. Both Mr. Kimmerer and I were optimistic however, as a total of 13 returning players from our championship U15 side from last year made up the core of this remarkable team. As our season progressed, it was obvious from the start that this talented bunch of players possessed all the qualities of champions; an excellent overall skill set, teamwork and camaraderie, effort and most importantly the "Fire" or determination necessary to accept nothing but the best from themselves and each other.

Entering the CISAA tournament at St. Michaels our team posted a flawless 7-0 record outscoring our opponents 34-4 during the season. Our first test was against a talented side from TCS, and although our offence somewhat stalled, our defense was rock solid not giving up a single shot, ultimately spurring us onto a 1-0 victory. This advanced us to the championship game against CDS, and once again the team proved that its undefeated record was no fluke, triumphing 2-0 in a rather one-sided game.

Back to back championships in successive age divisions is certainly an accomplishment, and is a credit to the tireless dedication by the entire team. Many players were asked to play foreign roles this year, but worked hard to gain the skills and knowledge to be successful. It was this dedication and teamwork that was the real triumph, as now, many of them can move up to the senior level and know what it takes to be successful.

Mr. Kimmerer and I would especially like to thank our manager Morgan Lin for his help. Managers rarely get the accolades of top players and sometimes their contributions are overlooked, but they are still instrumental to successful teams. Morgan's unwavering dedication to SAC soccer over the last two years video taping both our and opponent games, gathering equipment, running the lines and cheering on the team has been especially appreciated. Additionally we would like to thank Mr. Marshall and Mr. Jones for all of their help and allowing us to practice with the First's. Their and the senior team's support certainly contributed to the success of our year.

UCC, CDS, Ridley, Pickering, HTS, Bayview Glen were all schools that this year's U15 soccer team shut down. Our undefeated Saints were detemined to bring home the large silver cup again and now you will see it in the trophy case in the Coulter hallway. Our captains Robert Iaccino and Erik Lebar pumped and cheered the team on to work together. They both had a lot to offer on the field and they shared their love of the game with their teammates. Thank you Erik and Rob for your leadership.Our exchange student from Spain, Guz was in shock to see us play in the snow on the championship day. He had never played in the fluffy white stuff and it took him awhile to get used to wearing gloves and a turtleneck. Guzman tied Erik Lebar as the top goal scorer this year.

Our Mexican connection was comprised of 2 returning players; Javo Cortina and Diego Morales.Diego was the unstoppable link in midfield. Javo was the player the team couldn't do without and we welcomed a newcomer to the school Pato Gonzalez in defence. Our enthusiastic flying goalie Lennon Sweeting perfected his signals and created a new stretch called the shakira. He plans on copyrighting it soon. Slide tackling Justin le Mieux Reale also known as Juice was the comic relief for the team. Contributions made by Viren,Seymour, Conrad, Dylan, Milnes, Butler, Thijs, and Blake were commendable.

Thank you to all for always playing in a sportsmanlike manner and maintaining a positive attitude. Our winning games in the CISAA against Bayview Glen and UCC were some of the most exciting ones of the year especially when UCC tied it up in the last 10 seconds of the final game. We taught those blue smurfs to go marching right back home. Ms. L. Picerno Esq.

As chosen by myself and the team, this year's Most Improved Player goes to a Grade 9 newboy who demonstrated an increased level of agility, skill and talent by the end of the season. He was a superstar in defense especially on our championship day. Congratulations to Cameron Martin.

MVP: Javo Cortina

The Most Valuable Player award also goes to a Grade 9 student whose superior foot skills and vision of the field were key to the many successes of this team. He is a versatile player with an excellent attitude. He scored our winning goal against UCC in overtime. Our soccer program will miss him as he returns to Mexico next year. Congratulations to Javo Cortina.

U14 Soccer had an exhausting schedule, playing 14 games over 6 weeks this fall, with two long trips to Belleville, two to Hamilton, three in Toronto, once to St. Catherines, along with hosting games here against Appleby, HTS, Crescent, and Ridley. Practices could turn frustrating as our basic skill levels were surprisingly low. Drills involving two or three forwards without any defenders often ended up with an easy goalie save, or a shot well-off target. In games or in practice, when we scored, it was always cause for celebration. To really improve much at a short 1st term sport requires a good deal of awareness and commitment to working on one's sporting weaknesses. Alas, our boys found this new challenge difficult, preferring to enjoy the great camaraderie developing amongst their team-mates, which was fine, but seldom results in wins on the score sheet, if that becomes the sole focus of one's efforts. Thus, it was no surprise after our first 6 games, to find our record standing at 2 wins and 4 losses. We had been an easy push-over for noticeably smaller teams who out-hustled us consistently to the ball. As practices got longer, boys began to realise that with 18 players on the team their starting positions could not be taken for granted. Any student who showed consistent and responsible effort, despite any mistakes made, or who could demonstrate in a game that he had remembered a lesson or two taught in practice, quickly enjoyed the most playing time. Line-ups were juggled for many weeks, allowing students to often try forward, mid-field, and defensive assignments before settling into a placement where they were most comfortable and confident. With a very exciting come-from-behind win in the dying moments against Hillfield, we began a string of 4 consecutive wins, where Tony Lau and Andrew Finelli finally provided a most solid defensive tandem that gave teams the greatest difficulty penetrating. They were thoughtfully supported on the flanks by Nirushan Thambirajah and James Porter. We were fortunate to have the strengths of Trevor Jackson, Ben Udashkin, Aldo Ruiz, and Paul Jenkins, able to come in from the sidelines and relieve any of our defenders when injuries or illness arose. Arthur Wong, Chad Davis, Cameron Tait, Jameson Tipping and David Kanhai rotated through mid-field positions capably supporting goal mouth assaults by any one of our forwards. Raymond Tung always gave his best, while the pounding strides of Pierce Cassidy, the indomitable spirit of tough-as-nails Robbie Kaptyn, or the gritty determination of Mathew Halloran all gave goalies plenty to fearfully anticipate. The team improved to 7-5 and entered the final tournament against St. Mikes. We had a 2nd half comeback victory with the help of Cameron Tait's three goals. We then met the strongly improved Holy Trinity team, we gave a trong effort but could not hold our lead. This years U14 soccer team made a tremandous improvement over the season and are champions in my book. Mr. D. Kyle Esq.

As the coach of the Under 12 soccer team, I was able to experience the dream of any coach. While many of you may think that this would be winning a championship, it was the fact that I had 14 boys show up to try out for 14 spots on the roster and I was able to avoid the awful feeling of having to tell players that they would not have the chance to wear the red and white of the S.A.C. Saints.

Our team is also unique in that it has the highest percentage of new St. Andrew's students. This was helped by the fact that many of the members of the team have brothers here already and they come armed with knowing what is expected from a student representing St. Andrew's on a representative sports team.

I was very proud of how quickly the team picked up the College's theme of spirit by starting each game off with the gangwa cheer although it was generally done exclusively by Dylan Baker in those early games. Another highlight for me was to watch a couple of our players, who are presently playing soccer in their town's rep programs, be extremely supportive of those on our team who were playing the sport for the very first time.

While the season was only a mere seven weeks, the team was able to play 12 games and during those contests won as many as they lost. The boys developed from 14 players to one group that worked in support of each other and played up to their potential in most games. In the CISAA tournament we started with a strong victory against Ridley before losing in the semifinals to a very talented Crescent squad.

Special thanks to Josh for all of his work as our goalkeeper, to Sam, Cameron, Mark and Bobby for their tenacious efforts in defence, to Dylan, Adrian and Graydon for their tireless runs in the midfield and to Michael, Jacob, David and Tyler for their scrappy work on the forward line.

The team's Most Improved Player award goes to James Butler for the substantial role that he undertook as a member of our midfield in the latter part of the season and the team's Most Valuable Player award goes to our sweeper Alex Culp for his outstanding work anchoring our team's defence and keeping us close in many games. *Mr. M. We had a very memorable time playing soccer in Winnipeg – After meeting Crescent two years in a row in the semi-final, two years of double overtime and two years of shoot outs we have finally defeated the opponent, Crescent school. The team played in LCC, snow less, in the final. It was a great tournament and St. Andrew's left with the most compliments on our behaviour too. Although this is a trip that these boys will remember forever and we have a lot of memories and laughs. Michael Del Zotto and Jonathon Tozzi. After a hard fought day on our final tournament, we met Crescent yet again, but this time in the final. They got two quick goals on us and we just couldn't return them, but we held our heads high and know that we can beat them – even in the snow.

This year the team was a given a coach selected short list of players to vote for MVP and MIP, and after a very close result, this year's MIP is a player who ended the season as our starting left mid-fielder, Colin Noble and our MVP made all of us feel very safe as last man back, Devon Bean. *Ms. C. The MIP for 1st volleyball is a player who started out the season as a decent hitter, but a somewhat lazy defensive player. However, he worked hard and improved on almost every facet of the game. By the end, he had cracked the starting line-up and was one of the most consistent players.

MVP:
Jarryd Stock

The MVP for 1st volleyball was the team leader whether on or off the court. His presence and calm while playing was a stabilizing force for his teammates, and his big hits rallied team confidence and spirit. While not playing, he was the player whose absence was most strongly felt. I would like to thank this young man for six years of dedication to the St. Andrew's volleyball program.

1st Volleyball

1st Volleyball

The 1st volleyball team started with a three-day camp in early September. There was a great deal of enthusiasm at the time for what looked to be a promising season. At the UCC Early Bird tournament they finished with a record of 10 wins and 4 losses including an exciting 35 – 33 loss to UCC in the last match of the day. That momentum continued into the University of Toronto invitational tournament on September 21 where they played a few tough matches against some of the top teams in Ontario. It continued on to Homecoming where they beat HTS convincingly in three straight games in what was probably one of their best matches of the season. Unfortunately, it was around that time as well that the team suffered a huge loss with an ankle injury to its captain and biggest hitter, Jarryd Stock. Jarryd ended up missing the next four weeks of play, leaving a void in power and leadership on the floor. The boys could not figure out how to accommodate for that loss and as a result, lost a couple of key matches to weaker teams. Those losses left them tied for fourth place in the league. As only the top four teams advance to the playoffs, ties are broken by looking at head-to-head scores. One of the matches lost during Jarryd's absence was to TCS, the team they were tied with for fourth place. Accordingly, they advanced to the playoffs and our season ended prematurely.

First of all let me say thank you to Mrs. D'Angelo who joined me in coaching the U16 Volleyball team this year. Having her as a co-coach was invaluable to the team and the time and effort she put in is greatly appreciated.

This years U16 volleyball team was a treat to coach. They had a load of talent and a lot of character. It is always a pleasure to coach coachable athletes. With only one early loss during the regular season to a less talented but well disciplined UCC team, we entered the CISAA Championship seeded 1st. A semi final win over Holy Trinity secured the anticipated re-match with UCC for the final.

Our boys won the first game of the best of 5 match 25 to 9 to open the final with a lop sided win. UCC however was not going to quit and fought back to win the second set 26 – 24 and the third 25 – 18. With our backs to the wall we rallied to win the fourth 25 – 14, another convincing win. Then it all came down to one rally point game to 15. Despite having a much more potent attack and Brick wall blocking, UCC prevailed in the 5th set 15-12 in a heartbreaking loss. To a man our team played with skill, heart and determination, a performance of which they should be very proud.

A major highlight to the season was winning the Consolation Championship at the Rick Hansen Secondary School Junior Boys Invitational. Of particular significance was that the tournament was made up of 13 public school teams that play at the Under 17 level and at the senior age net height. Therefore considering that we were pitted against teams a year older and playing on a net 19 cm higher, the team put on quite a show. We won our pool of 5 teams, swept the quarter finals and then lost in the semifinals to eventual tournament winners Rick Hansen S. S.

Eight of our players will move up to the 1st team level next year, with four remaining as the core of another very competitive U16 team. Our most improved player was difficult to decide. So many players improved greatly over the course of the season, but this player went from one who was on the bubble during team selection to a starter in the Championship match. He developed over the course of the season into a well rounded player who was able to provide solid hitting and clutch passing. This years MIP goes to Dennis Chang.

Mr. G. Ried Esq.

Our MVP was another tough decision. We had players who were unbeatable at the net, blocking everything in the same area code. We had others that consistently pounded the ball at opposition defenses instilling a fear that you could see in their eyes. We had players who sacrificed the body play after play to dig balls that were nearly unreachable. And finally we had setting and playmaking that had Senior team Coaches envying our level of strategy and game play. In the end, however our MVP goes to the player who led the team in all respects. On and off the floor Cody Biggings was the player we needed most. His leadership, spirit, skills and team building were truly an asset that made the difference. Congratulations Cody on being this years U16 Volleyball MVP.

At the beginning of the season, I anticipated that it was going to be a team-building year. Many of the players were inexperienced, not particularly tall and a bit too cautious. However, I underestimated the ability and determination of the young men who made up this year's U14 Volleyball team. They were a very coach-able team willing to try out new roles, practice new drills and support each other's efforts on the court.

There were many moments I shall never forget– Shingo's hard serves which won us the game against Crescent in the final tournament but 30% of the time hit Dennis in the back of the head. Dennis's cry of "set it to me, set it to me" in the game against TFS, our manager, Tyler King's "yippee", Ben Calvert's grin, Harrison's superstitions, Justin's singing on the bus, Praveer's quiet determination, Michael Nowicki's wild forearm pass, Adrian's hits and Michael Yoon's questions.

The team had strong leadership from their captain, Justin Nozuka – a talented player whose dedication and encouragement greatly contributed to the success of this team – for this reason he has been chosen as this year's MVP. The MIP goes to a player who spent much of last year sitting on the bench but was a key player this year – Dennis Tomory.

This season was a busy one with a total of seven meets. Our senior team, made up of Gordon Hunter, Geoff Delean, Brad Downey, Emmery Cheung, Armen Khajetoorian, and Hugh Dowell, was very competitive, finishing in second in both the CISAA and York Region conferences. Finishing second of fifteen in York Region allowed us to advance to OFSAA, this year held at Trinity College School.

In terms of individual highlights Gordon Hunter enjoyed a wonderful season finishing first in the CISAA and second in York Region championship meets. No one can argue with his determination to get better. He thrived on hard work and it paid off. We are pleased to present Gordon with two awards. One is the gold metal for first place CISAA finish, and second being the MVP award.

There is one more individual award. Going to the MIP in the midget category. This individual, day in and day out, put forth a great effort. He was one that never complained, even when asked to move up a category. He put the team first in his mind. The MIP is Kevin Dong

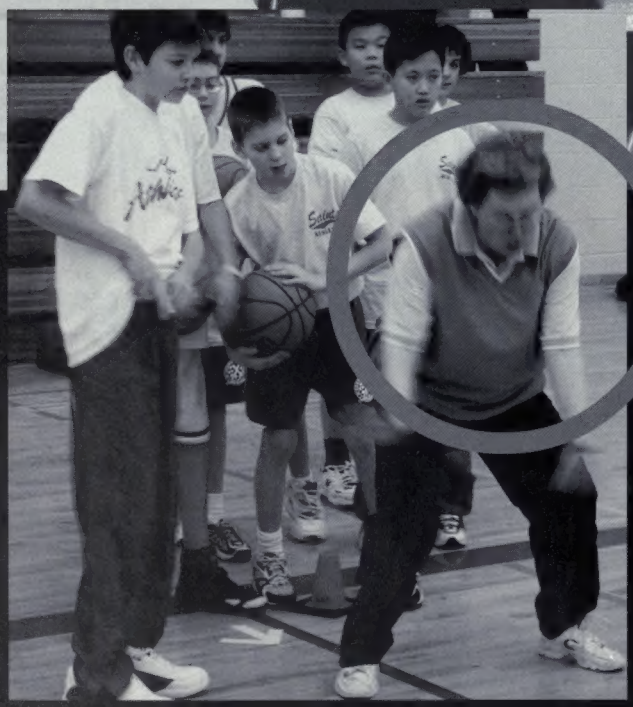
Hoops for Heart



This year St. Andrew's College held its first "Hoops for Heart" event for the Heart and Stroke Foundation. The event took place on December 17, 2002. It began with a motivational speaker and then proceeded with all students actively participating in a basketball themed unit. The students were divided into eleven groups and moved from station to station working on an array of basketball skills. The event was designed to increase student awareness as to the benefits of a healthy and active lifestyle with an added emphasis on living tobacco free and balanced eating habits. It was a fun and educational day for all!

St. Andrew's night is a special occasion in the year where the entire school can gather and celebrate the rich Scottish heritage of the school. This year certainly proved to be another fine celebration with haggis, piping and of course a feast of grand proportions. We were very fortunate to have four guests join our festivities this year. Alistair Gillies and Don Hamilton entertained us with the rousing address "To the Haggis" while Andreans' and old boys Jim Herder '64 and Michael Roy '85 reminisced about their current and past association with St. Andrew's, and how the school has influenced their lives. All in all it was night enjoyed by all, and certainly made us realize what a special honour it is to be called an "Andrean".

Ski Day, A time of fun and play. It was a good day for everyone who went, whether you were out on the slopes taking the black diamond or relaxing in the chalet playing some cards.What started out as a very cold and windy day on the hills turned out to be almost perfect with some nice powder, warm sun and great friends. It wasn't all fun and games though, many of the teachers could only dream of hitting those beautiful snowy hills as they stayed in the chalet and marked second term papers for the upcoming report card. Others watched DVD's on their computers, played cards, and Risk. Some even hit the hills. All in all a great time was had by everyone!

MACPHERSON TOURNAMENT

Since its inception in 1983, the MacPherson Tournament has always been one of the more popular events at SAC. This year was no different as enthusiasm for the event was high. This year marked the 20th anniversary of the tournament, and as usual, it was quite a show. Our SAC Saints started the tournament with an 8-0 trouncing of their first opponent, St. Josephs. However, things were not so bright for our boys later on in the tournament. Despite a close 4-2 loss in the traditional Friday night game, it was an extremely enjoyable evening which included not only great hockey, but a performance by the pipes and drums, the SASSIN shootout, and the much anticipated Islanders vs. Asians game. The Saints had one final chance of making the semi finals on Saturday morning, but fell just short to a talented IMG Academy. Overall the tournament went well and we look forward to seeing it again next year.

On February 20, 21, and 22, the famed Russian playwright Anton Chekhov was finally brought to the S.A.C. stage with two of his hilarious short plays performed by some of the school's best actors. The first play, The Proposal, about a hypochondriac trying to propose to the woman of his dreams, starred Adam Parent, David Nudds, and Meghan Marshall, all acting great through the zany plotline. The second play, The Bear: A Joke in One Act, about a woman who has given up on love and the crazy man who redeems her, starred Eitan Rosenberg, Deanna Rose, Arnold Al-Aadahmi, Kevin Wilson, and Will Mulock, acting their best in this infamous black comedy. Laughs came fast and furious as the audience finally got their first taste of the wild and wacky imagination of Anton Chekhov.

In March of 2003, Mr. Tony Myrans, Mr. Brian McCue, and Mr. David Stewart accompanied 31 students to the battlefields of the First and Second World Wars. Led by Lieutenant-Colonels (Ret.) Ed Gayment and Tom Christianson, the Andreans visited the sacred ground where our Old Boys fought and died.

We began our journey in Normandy, France, and visited both the Canadian and American beachheads at Juno and Omaha. Also, we toured the Normandy hedgerows around Caen, a town liberated by the Canadians in July of 1944.

From there, we went north to the battlefields of the First World War and visited sites such as the Newfoundland Memorial on the Somme, Vimy Ridge, and Ypres. We visited the Tyne Cot British War Cemetery (the largest in the British Empire) and the trenches at Sanctuary Woods, the location where the Canadians were first bloodied in battle. But it was at Vimy Ridge where the students gained an appreciation of the awesome sacrifice of Canada during the Great War.

In true Andrean style, we remembered the Old Boys of St. Andrew's College by laying eight wreaths, along with a short ceremony, at cemeteries and monuments where Andreans are laid to rest. Brian Grant and Mervyn Frame played the bagpipes and students volunteered to lay the wreath or conduct the ceremony. The others stood at attention and remembered in their own way.

In the end, the trip was an enormous success where all involved were profoundly affected by their experiences. It was both touching and rewarding to see that long after the guns fell silent, Andreans, who have never known war, returned home and [illegible] to the [illegible] have their lives [illegible] you feel [illegible]. It was an unforgettable experience, said one young Andrean. One that will not soon be forgotten.

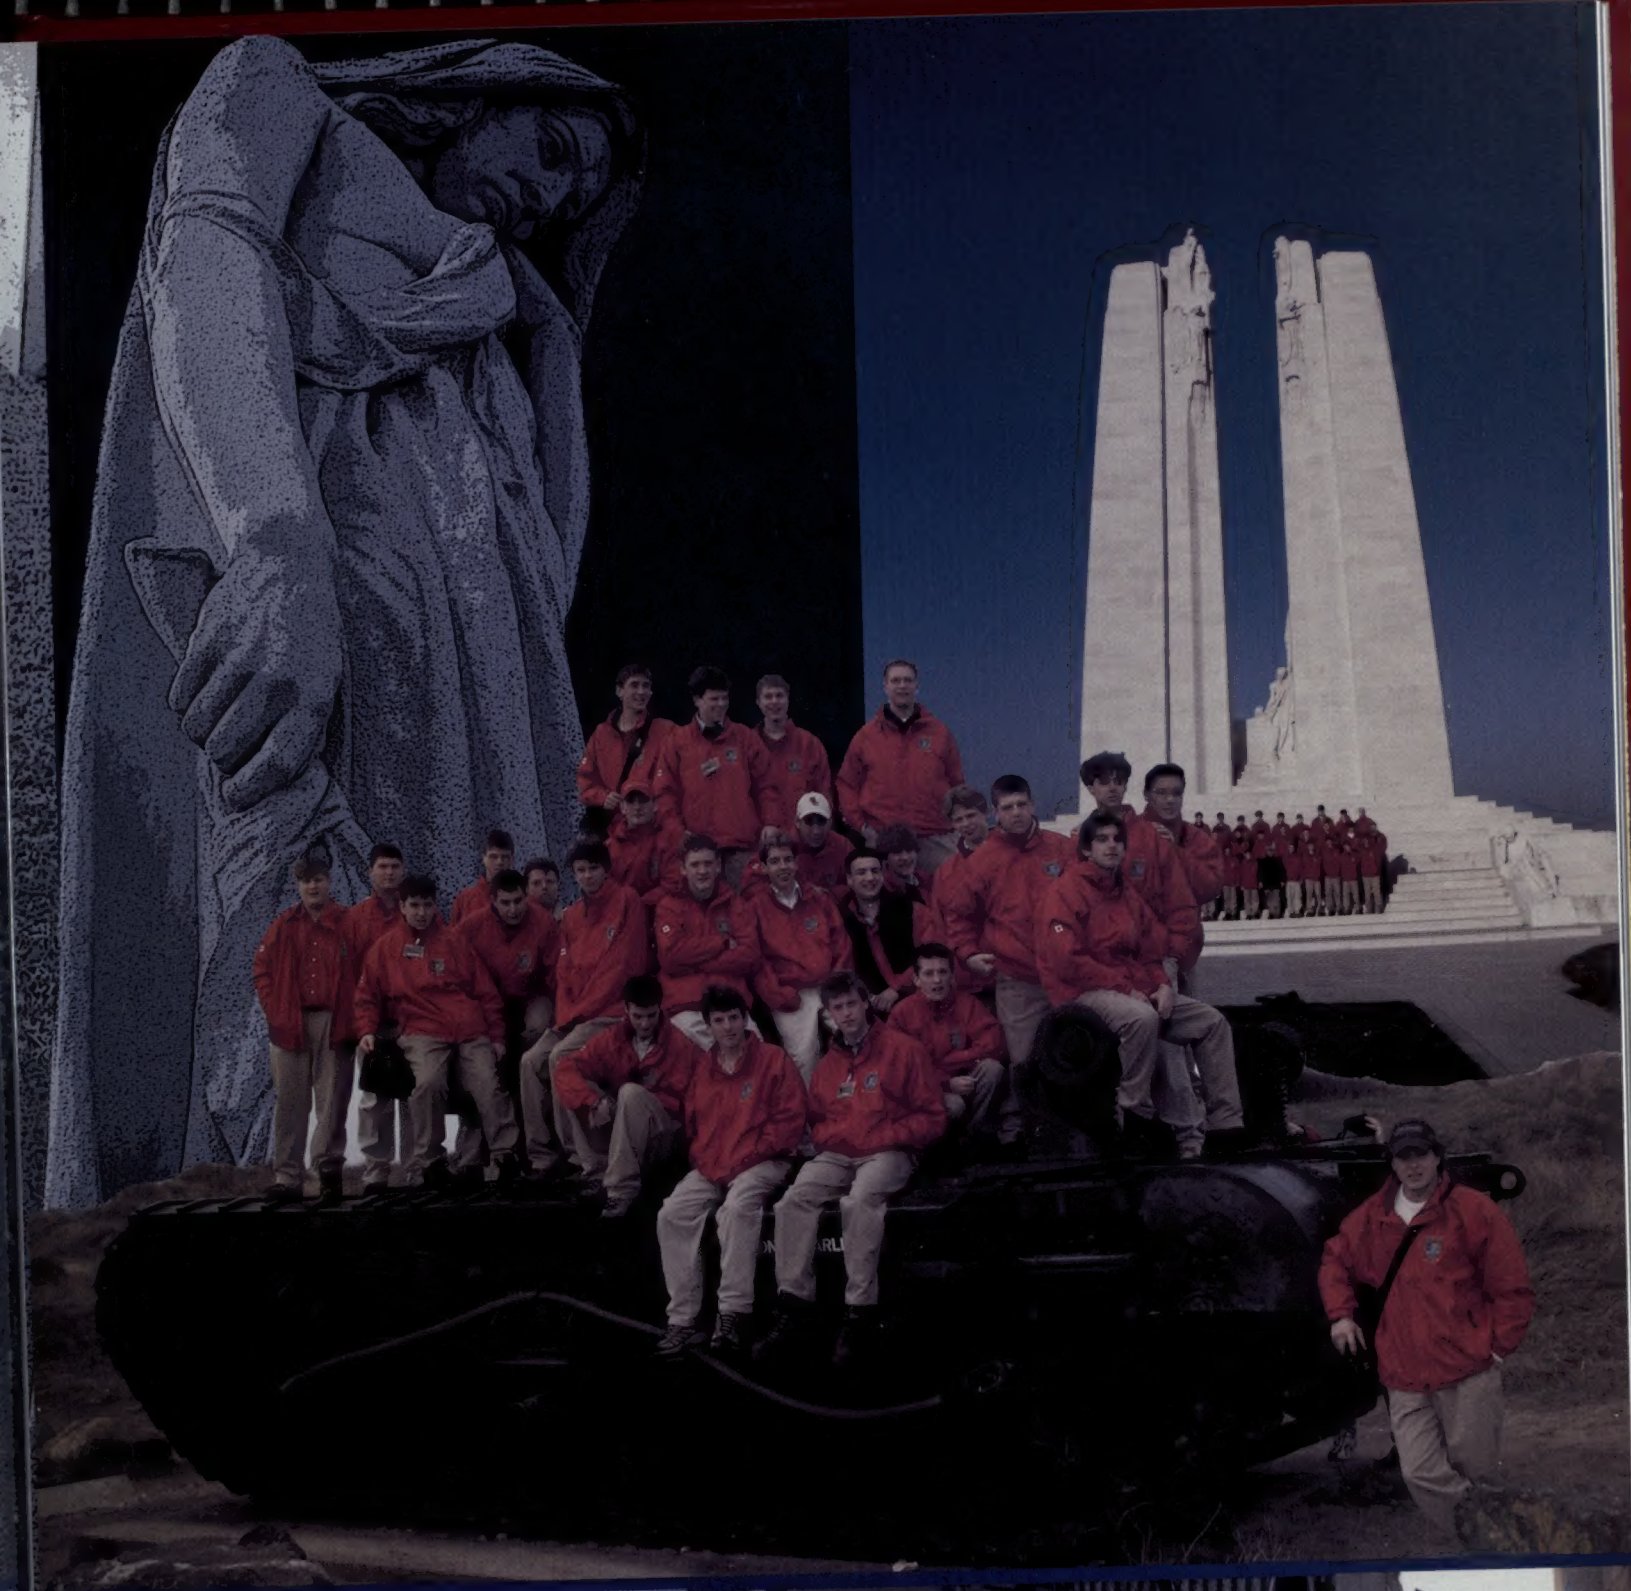
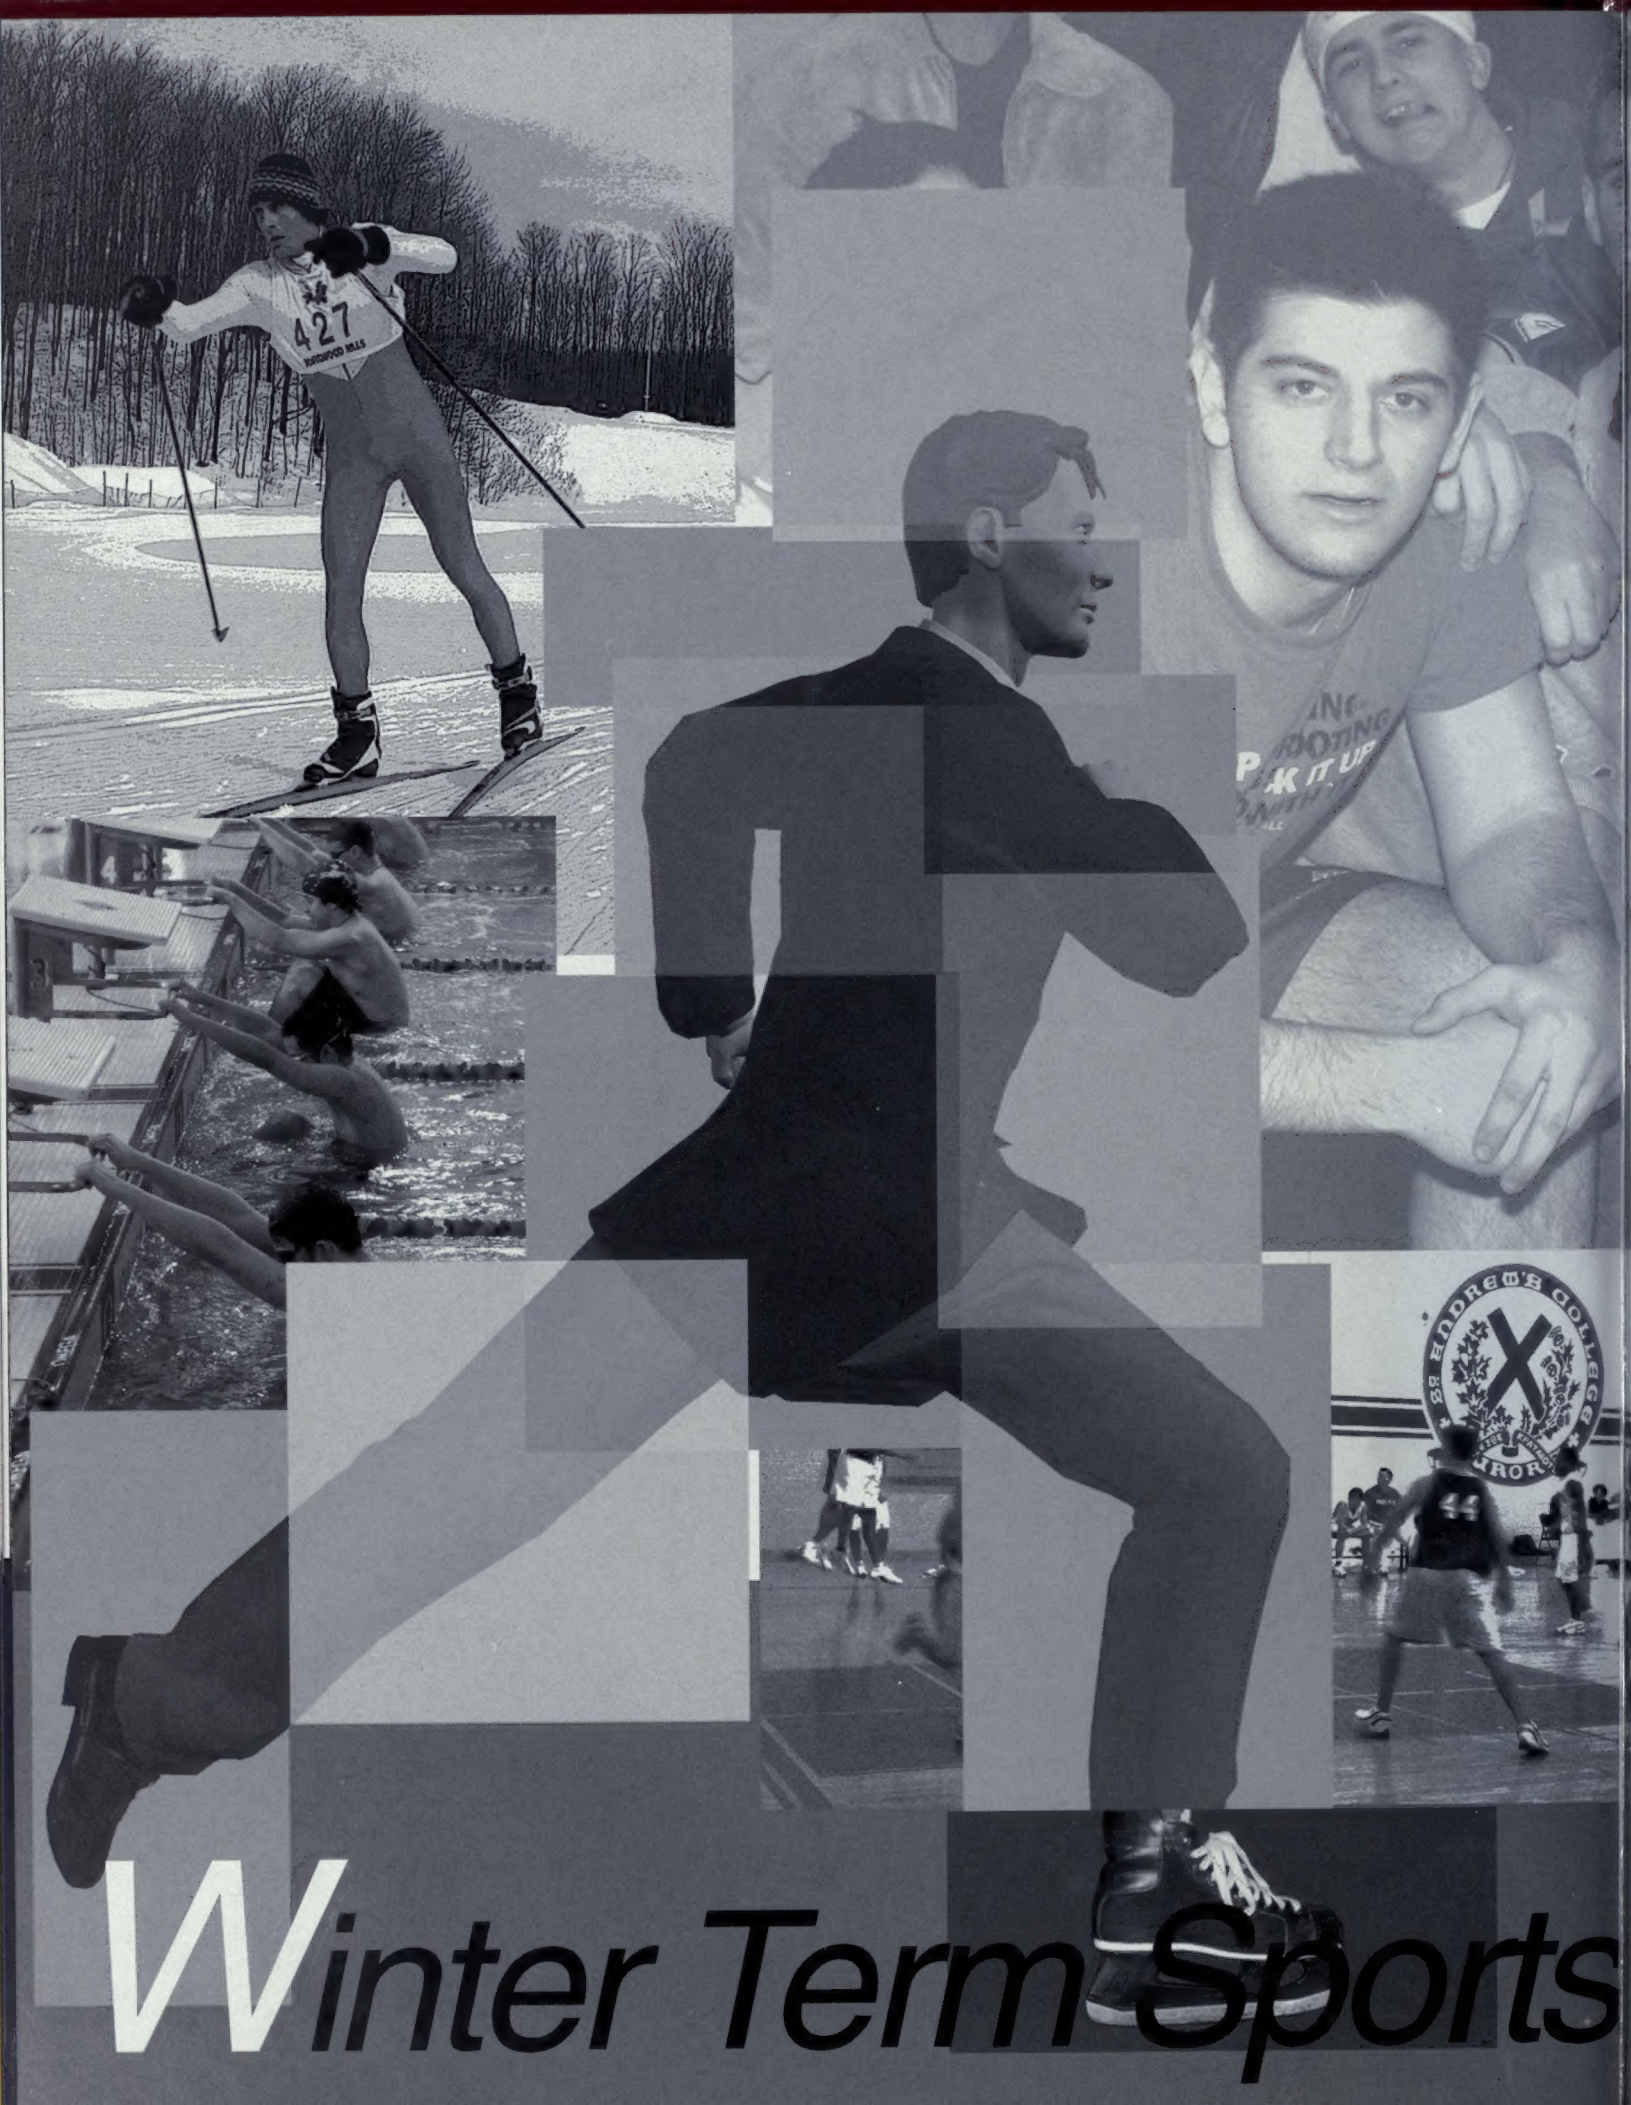
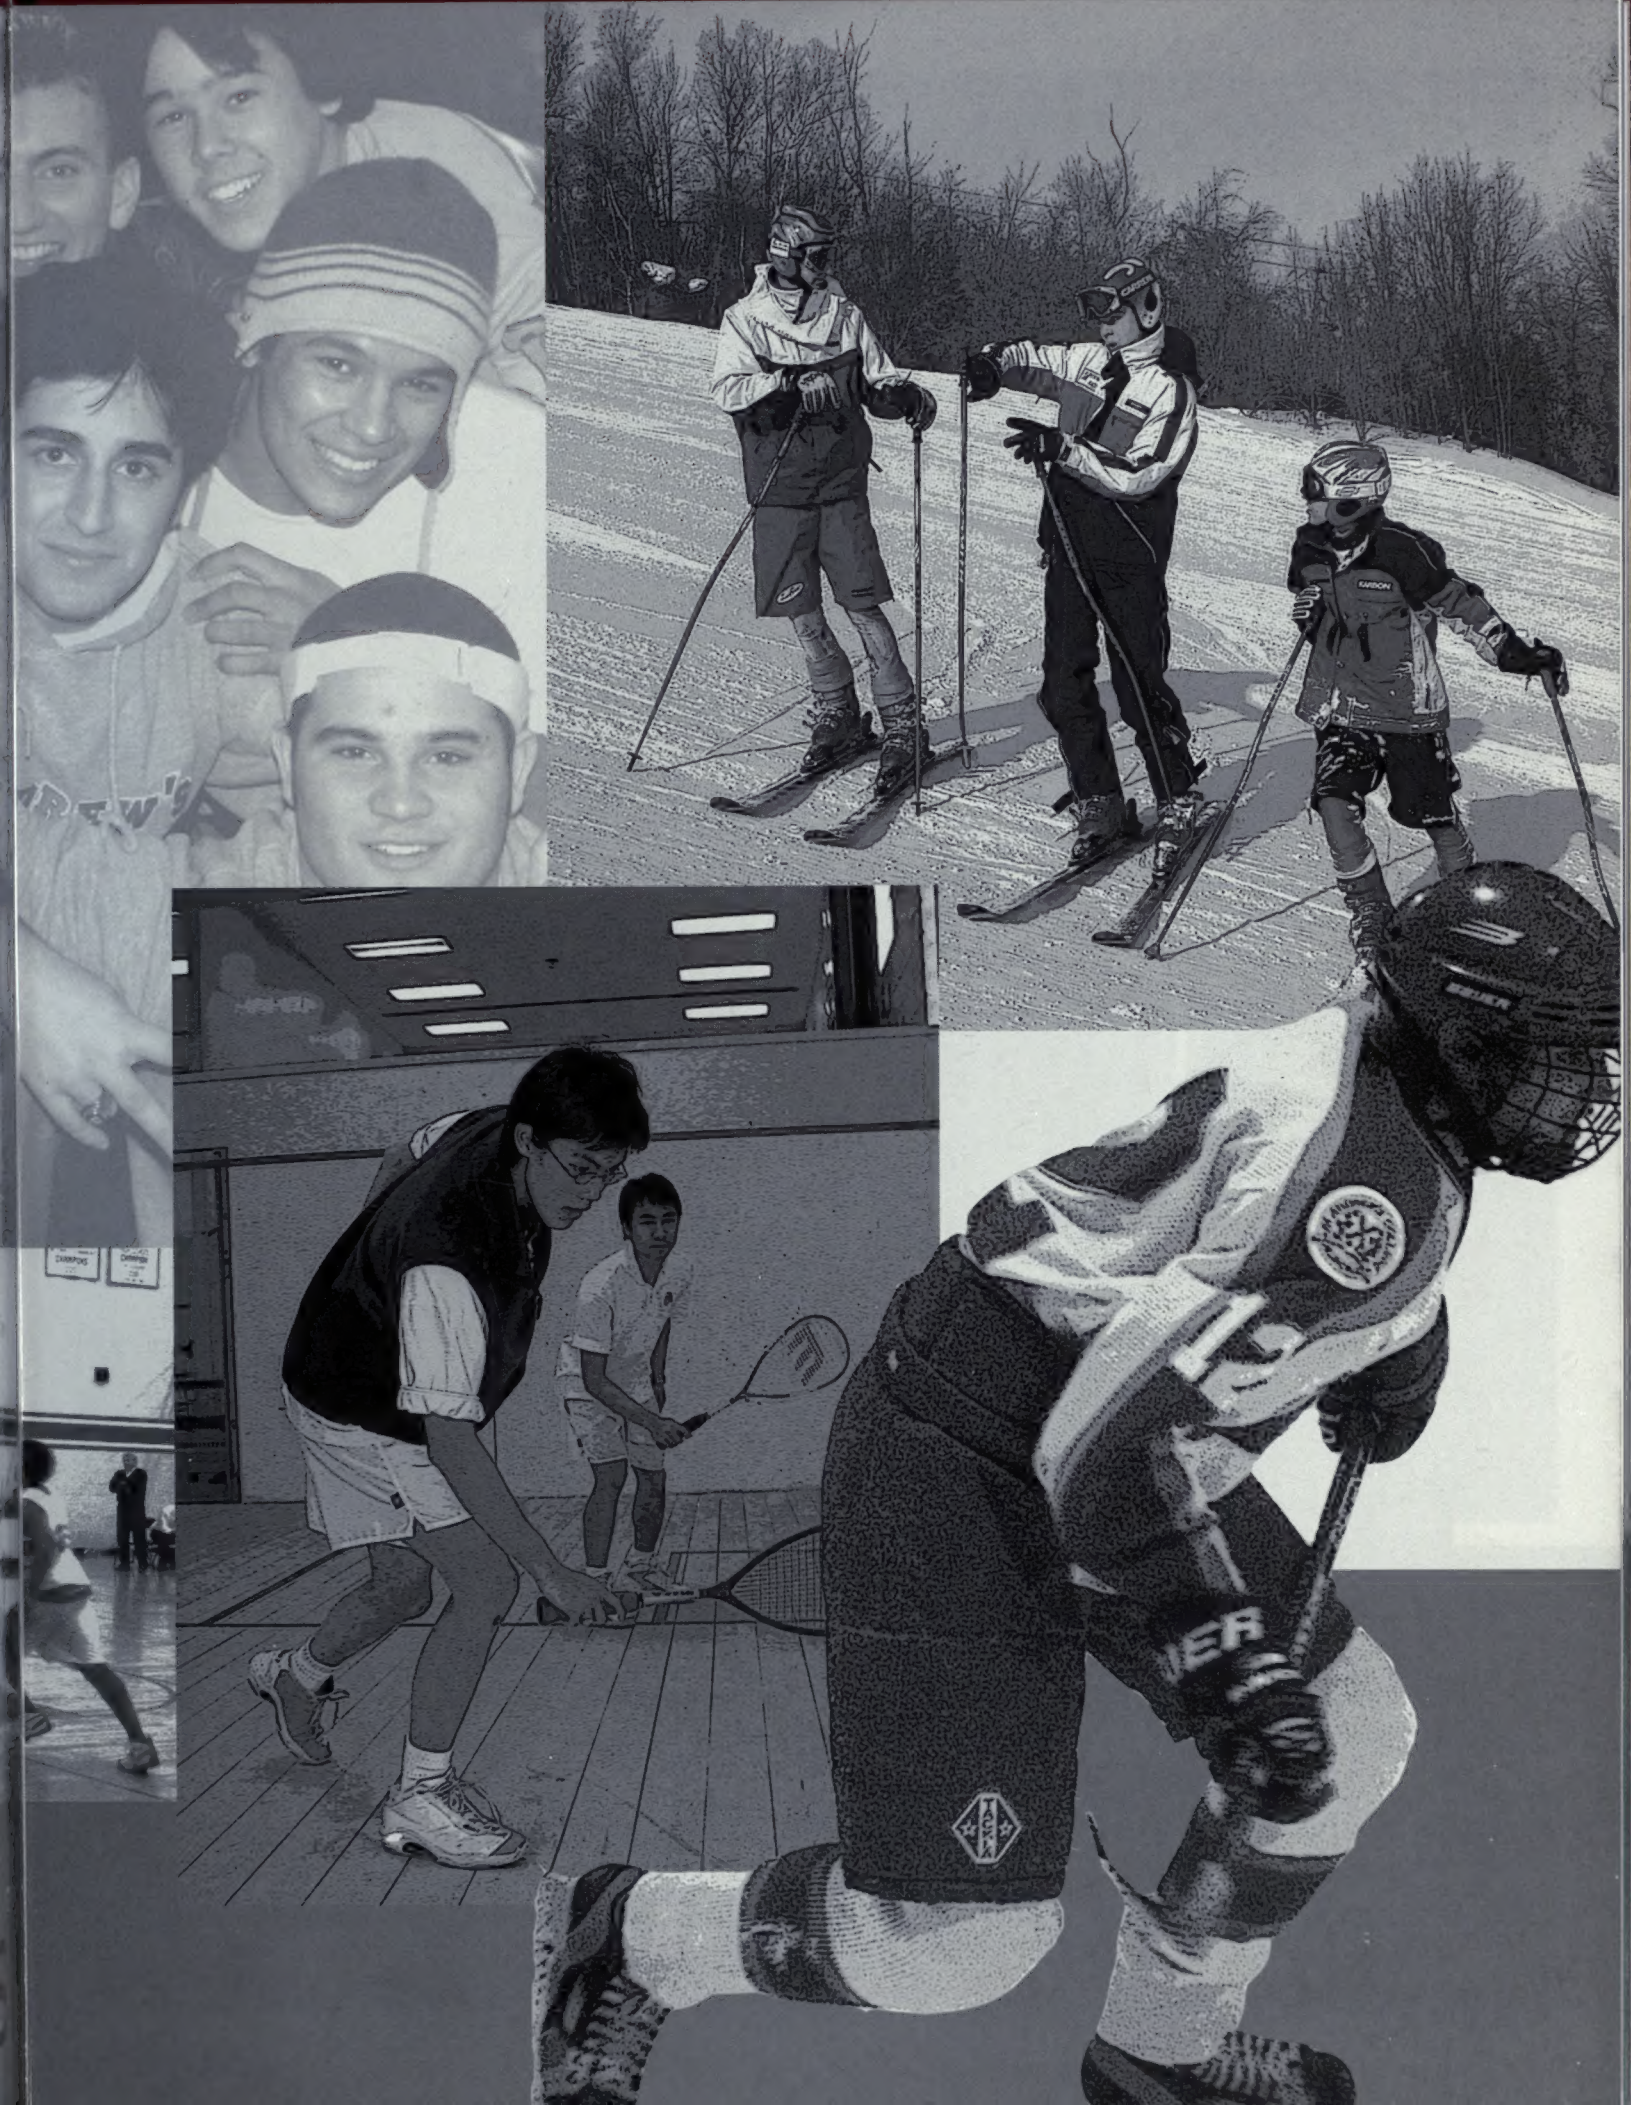
BATTLEFIELDS TRIP





Winter Term Sports



The Varsity team had a difficult season finishing below .500 for the first time in many years. A challenging schedule was partially responsible for our results as we played 19 of 32 games vs. top U.S. Prep schools. The season started with promise with our first meaningful game of the year at UCC. After a shaky 1st period the team came alive and played great hockey in the final 2 periods. Stellar goaltending by Tyler Hurst kept the score at 1-0 for UCC. With less than a minute to go and our goalie pulled Jordan Cyr snapped a wrist shot past the UCC goalie for a well deserved 1-1 tie. We followed this with some of our best hockey of the year at Colgate University where we swept both Millbrook School & National Sports Academy. The highlight of this trip was watching NCAA Division 1 rivals Colgate University take on Brown and Harvard.

Injuries were a key factor this year although not quite to the extent as the 2001-02 season. The team showed tremendous courage at the Ridley Early Bird tournament. We played Shady Side Academy from Pennsylvania with only 11 players. Three of four defensemen were actually forwards that we had to move back. Down 2-0 going into the 3rd period we scored 5 unanswered goals to win the game. Throughout the remainder of the year we showed flashes of brilliance but were never able to play at a consistently high level. The MacPherson tournament was a microcosm of our year. We easily won our Friday morning match setting the stage for an exciting Friday Night game. Despite dominating big stretches and out-shooting our opponent the Saints went down in defeat 4-2 to a tough Gilmour Academy side. We were unable to regroup in time to take on IMG Academy on Saturday morning ending the Saints run at the title prematurely.

We competed hard throughout the year. In the 2nd half of the season, scoring enough goals to bury an opponent was a challenge. Untimely injuries prohibited us from playing exhibition games against OFSAA champion Mount Carmel Secondary & runner-up St. Mike's. As a team we were anxious to prove we belonged with Toronto's top 10 ranked teams. It is unfortunate we didn't get a chance to prove ourselves. Able athletes are stepping-in and stepping-up to the Varsity squad but with so many graduating the team will have a totally different feel next year. We wish the seniors well.

Despite the fact, our practices were scrimmages and not much else (what do you do with 9 guys and one puck), the JV season was quite successful and thoroughly enjoyable. We had our usual checking mites, Carnovale, Middleton, and Renninger, augmented by the finesse of Johnstone, Del Zotto, McCullough, and Pryce, and the toughness of Bromley and Campbell. With Cody Biggings and Marc Stuart we got very, very consistent goalkeeping throughout the year and with R.J.Ellis, we had our very own feel-good comeback, impossible dream, story. We finished the season in first place and we had consecutive silver medal finishes at the UCC and year-end tournaments. My thanks to all the players for making this as much fun as I've ever had coaching. So long Gomers and best of luck next year!

When people ask if your season was a success, many times they are asking if you had a winning season. And no, we did not have a winning season but yes, it was a success. I told the team at the beginning of the season that no one has ever accomplished anything without going through some kind of adversity. We were not expected to win the championship this year, we were not expected to accomplish much. However, what we did do was learn. We learned that you do not have to have a legitimate sniper to win a game. We learned team play. We learned how twenty players could put aside their individual needs for a common goal. It was half way through the season when we learned this... but we did learn it.

The season started disappointing when we went through a string of games when we couldn't score a goal, then a stint where we couldn't stop a goal. It was when we played ours and, probably the entire league's nemesis, the "St. Michael's U16 Team" that things changed. We knew as usual that we were in for a tough afternoon. It didn't help knowing that it was St. Mike's "B" team that won their own tournament a few weeks earlier. And now we are playing their "A" team, but this is where our season turned around. We played tough, we played smart, we played determined and most of all, we played like a team. Did we end up losing? Yes, but the score was a respectable 4-2 and one of there goals was a bit of a bad bounce. The rest of the season was a joy to play. At one point we went unbeaten in 5 games which kept our team plugging along.

I would like to thank a few people who have contributed to our season: Mr. Hussey without whom it would have made a very difficult season, The support from the JV and First Teams, Mrs. Bedard, Mr. Reid, Mr. Kimmerer, Jordan Ekers, Igor Kastelyanets and of course, Mrs. Perrier. Mr. B. Kitagawa Esq.

When the Under 14 hockey team began practicing, we had one goal: to play in the championship game. We reached our goal and met our arch rival, St. Michael's College, in the final. And although we did not win the game, our boys put forth an excellent effort and deserve a great deal of credit in their fight to win the championship. If nothing else, St. Mike's learned that they that they need to respect St. Andrew's a great deal more!

We would like to thank Jamie Lawson and Alex McNabb for their help as assistant coaches. As usual, Mr. Galajda and I would like to impress upon you our TOP TEN list of great moments this past year.

#10: The Great goaltending which helped our success throughout the year, led by Cam Healy and Scott Giroux, with Rob Kidd. #9: The great efforts of the scrapper line of Mitch LeBar, Graydon Calvert, Alex Leon and Jake Hurlbut, throughout the year. #8: Colin's Noble's entire family and friends cheering on David Nam and Jack Avalos in their Canadian hockey debut at Appleby. #7: The excellent leadership of our captain, Pierce Cassidy, and our assistants, Logan Hurst, Michael Del Zotto, Colin Noble, Taylor Campbell and Jason Wilson. #6: The Lebar brothers and their weekly visits to the salon to get their hair permed. #5: Meeting Colin Mochrie from This Hour has 22 Minutes and Whose Line is it Anyways in the Halifax Airport. #4: The team deciding the Mr. Stewart is funnier than Colin Mochrie. #3: Jake Carrick using his smile to meet and hang out with the entire flight crew of an Air Switzerland flight. #2: Jon Tozzi: The boisterous, loud, enthusiastic, energetic, funny, GOAL SCORING MACHINE. #1: Winning the inaugural Under 15 King's Edgehill Hockey Tournament in Halifax, Nova Scotia! There are so many things about our tea that can't be dicribed in words.Its my pleasure to speak about the 1st basketball team this morning. The team finished the season as we started it: 12 players with incredible determination and effort working hard, day in and day out all for one common goal; to win the next game. Now, although we did not end the season exactly the way that we had planned to, the work and determination to improve that the team put into the season during practice and games was the most I have ever seen and is commendable. The team finished the season with an overall record of 27 wins and 7 losses. We played in 3 tournaments including ones in Welland, King City, and in California where the level of competition was twice as hard. The team had many memories from this season including almost leaving Dadson in San Luis Obispo, Playing sticky-fetch in the hotel, trying to find our way around the hotel with glow-sticks during the power outage, Coach Ford's drills, ATM American Teen Model Adam Hoffman, and ATHT American Teen Heart-Throb Jarryd Stock. I would like to thank Mr. Ruscitti, Mrs. Perrier, Mr. Reid, Jeff Delandrea, and Mr. O'Hare for their work helping us to win in many other facets of the game throughout the entire season. This year we have 8 graduating players. I would like the graduating players to please stand as I call your names. Jarryd Stock, Adam Hoffman, Captain Tyler Smith, Nick Dadson, Jesse Tipping, Joel Ford, Sebastien Manigat, and Patrick McGrath. Thank you, and the 4 returning players; Tim Birkett, Rob Mackay, Adam Ford, and Alex Boileau. Thank you. I would like to thank Mr. Josselyn for all the hard work and time he put into this team; Juice, without you we never would have gotten where we were. The team has donated a new trophy to the school called "The David Juice Josselyn" award for outstanding contribution to the 1st basketball team. This year the recipient is Mr. Josselyn.

It was a season filled with great hopes, great skill and some great basketball. Excellent performances were made early in the year to give promise of great things. A quick 3-0 record in league play, an appearance in our own tournament championship and much improved play from many players. We continued that trend of hustling on defense and finding the open offensive player. Unfortunately we were subject to hot and cold spells – inconsistent shooting and costly turnovers were issues with which we struggled in the second half of the year. We finished 3rd in league play with an overall record of 6 wins and 3 losses. In an incredibly competitive season we played a total of 20 games including 11 games that had a point differential of less than 5 points. We look forward to great things in basketball next year.

MVP: Our leader on the court, in many cases he seemed like an assistant coach. He saw the floor very well and led by example – hustling on defense, being unselfish on offense, and able to effectively attack the hoop. Austin Smith.

MIP: This guy was not going to try out for the team this year, in fact, I had to encourage him to come out after seeing him in the weight room. He is an incredible force on the back boards and his big rebounds led to many excellent offensive attacks. Vince De Civita.

Including exhibitions we played 21 games, finishing up with a 14 and 7 won-loss record. In CISAA league play we placed fourth of ten teams and found ourselves very competitive with the teams ahead of us in the standings. When it came to playoff time even though we were matched up against undefeated Lakefield, this year's League and CISAA champions, in the semi-finals I liked our chances of an upset. We had lost to them earlier by 4 points in a game where foul problems and two key defensive lapses in the final minute cost us.

From a coaching point of view I thoroughly enjoyed our season. It was great fun. We met our first objective of qualifying for the playoffs. Along the way we were in several close hotly contested games. I liked our effort. I liked our commitment. Our graduating players provided excellent leadership. I felt we showed considerable improvement in individual skills and team play. Bob Perrier Esq.

The U15 basketball team finished the season in 6th place, a considerable accomplishment considering how outsized they were in relation to most of the competition. They struggled on the boards which made second chances offensively, a fairly rare occurrence. However, they made up for it with hustle and heart. Erik Lebar, Mark Hanson and Blake Muir provided exceptional leadership on and off the court. Jay Smith, Erik Sodonis and Andrew Conrad made significant contributions to the overall team effort respectively, through their ball handling, rebounding and versatility. James McArthur and Kevin Dong provided key minutes from the bench. Congratulations to all of the players for a fine effort and an enjoyable season. Mr. M. Service Esq.

The Under 14 basketball team entered the season with high expectations. We had a strong team with many players joining us from the previous years under 13 team which lost in the finals.
The season started out strong. We were able to win our first four games in the month of November and looked very much like a championship team with easy victories over Appleby College and Ridley. We were being led by the strong play of our more senior players from grade nine Paul Jenkins, Adrian Bruno, and Jesse Cohen. We left for Christmas vacation with a record of 4 – 1 after losing to Crescent by two points just before the holidays began.
January proved to be bleak for our team. We lost 3 of 5 games and although Justin Nozuka and Shingo Nishioka did their best to keep the teams offense productive we could not score enough points to win, losing the three games by a combined 5 points. The team as a whole were improving especially some of our forwards. Adrian Wu, Emerson Wai, and Denis Tomory began to control rebounds and gave us hope for a successful February.
The turning point in the season was the addition of Greg Vandemark as manager. He was invaluable and truly improved the team and our chances for victory every time he was there.
We started February with a victory at Villanova's annual tournament. Our average margin of victory at this tournament was by 20 points. A trip to Ottawa continued our tournament play. We finished second behind the strong play of Bryan Linn and the emergence of Ben Calvert as a star point guard. We had amassed a record of 18 wins and 7 losses heading into the CISAA tournament.0
At the tournament we opened up with a victory over Crescent where we led by as much as 22 points. Our next match in the semifinals was against Hillfield College and we were ready for them. Jamison Tipping played an outstanding game and we went into the final quarter trailing by 6 points. Unfortunately we could not get any closer. Our season ended with us finishing third in the under 14 championships. Mr. M. Ruscitti Esq.

The under twelve Saints basketball team enjoyed tremendous improvement throughout the course of the season. Although only one member of the squad had played organized hoops prior to the season, every member of the team worked hard towards the goal of making the final tournament. Early season shellackings at the hands of some of our rivals obligated Coach McGee to seek assistance in teaching fundamental skills. Under the tutelage of Ms. Tara Perrier the team worked hard and showed much improvement. Players such as Alex Culp, Adrian "Slash" Eng, Mark Jenkins and Stanley Lin demonstrated some superior skills and and carried us closer to our ultimate goal. The next step was to bring back the master of strategy Mr. Hanson to teach and coach our offense and defense. Almost immediately the team improved and won some hard fought games over some previously unbeatable teams. Seeing improvement at both ends of the court from players such as Josh Harris, Ryan Cole, Bobby McDonald, and Cam Oram was very gratifying. Our quest for a final tournament placing made the final game in Dunlap Gym a must win. The team played magnificently and did the proud tradition of the old brick barn proud. Thank you to all the members of the team and congratulations to the MVP Boris Wong and to the MIP Jacob MacDonald.

What a thrill it was to see each player improve so much across the season: Doug MacDonald - with his smothering defensive posturing; Jorge Laborin – with his quick weaving left-handed drives to the basket for many lay-up points; Justin Oh – with his desire to learn the game and wild intensity on the court; Julian Cheong - with his tenacious defense and amazing foul shot %; SeungMok Ha – with his pinpoint passing, speedy learning curve, and inspired chanting of "DEFENSE, DEFENSE" whenever he graced the bench; Gordon Gray – with his high pressure defense that caused so many turnovers for the opposition; John Stoneman – who gave so much effort, despite bone sores in his growing feet, and who shone so brightly on our final tournament day against Appleby; John Si – whose selfless efforts by season's end made him one of our most valuable point guards; Taylor Walker – who could be seen most often flying horizontally through the air after a loose ball, and who always brought his best efforts to every practice and game; Peter Goitanich – who grew into an indomitable rebounder and playmaker; Josh Hanson – again who by season's end, put on a clinic, and scored a bundle of points, driving, deeking or cleverly assisting, thanks to his keen sense of the game; Daniel Morgis – our towering centre, who had to stay in the game so much to make sure we had a fighting chance at winning. Dan is blessed with many natural talents. And then there's Adel Ratansi – our fearless captain, who practiced and played with a cast for many weeks. The last hilight is from our CISAA championship day, in the consolation final, we were able to clearly dominate a UCC side that had easily beaten us by 20 points only a few weeks previously. What a thrill it was to see each player improve so much across the season Many of our boys played with bloody noses and lips, scraped knees and bruised arms, but all bravely played the best basketball of their young lives. I was never so proud of their effort on the floor, and the enthusiasm and encouragement they all generated from the bench. I may not be so lucky to work with as great a bunch of young men again, but that will be okay, because I know what it feels like to coach the the best. Thanks for the great memories, guys! Congratulations to the first swim team on an excellent season! After countless kilometers of swimming to master their kick, pull, endurance, sprints, starts and turns and relay takeovers, the swimmers achieved their goals: to become fit, to improve their times, and to win! This year, the boys took home the trophies for the York Region Championships for the 4th year in a row, and went on to win the CISAA Championships. During the season, 11 members of our team qualified for OFSAA, and made a very impressive performance at this provincial competition.

Congratulations to the following OFSAA medalists:

Bronze: Karl McCartney, Alex Tanton and Scott Simmons

Silver: Robert Lee and Scott Simmons

Gold: Scott Simmons, Robert Lee, Dana Stewart, Alex Tanton (400 Free Relay)

Farewell to the majority of the first team swimmers who are graduating this year. Alex, Scott, Dana, Robert, Drewe, Stuart, David, Freddie, Derrick, Jonathan, Fraser, and Kent, it has been a pleasure and an honour to coach you! Good luck next year. Ms. Venters (Coach)

Scott Simmons - Team captain: 2001-2002; Co-captain and MVP: 2002-2003
OFSAA Gold, Silver and Bronze medalist: 2002-2003
Scott is a serious athlete when it comes to swimming. He started his swimming career in Bermuda, where he has swum with Bermuda's National Team. He has been an integral part of the S.A.C. swim team for the past 4 years. He is a source of inspiration to other swimmers, by showing his complete dedication and commitment to this sport. Next year, Scott plans to take his training to the next level in England.

Fraser Fell - joined the recreational swim program in the fall to provide rehabilitation to his knee, and liked it so much that he decided to continue training with the winter swim team. He was a dedicated and enthusiastic member of the team, who really made it his mission to improve his skills and times during the season.

What a fantastic season! Long hours logged in the pool building endurance and perfecting stroke technique resulted in races won and many personal best times which enabled the team to win both the York Region and CISAA Championships. Special congratulations go to Adam Do, Ryan Luther, Kyle Jackson and Chad Davis for breaking the York Region record in the Junior Boys 200 FR Relay.

The U16 freestyle and medley relay teams travelled to OFSAA at the beginning of March with the rest of the First team. With a year's experience under their belts, much was expected of these boys and the pressure to perform was immense. Less experienced teams would have cracked under the pressure, but not our boys. The medley relay team of Ryan, Jeff Hynds, Chad and Adam improved on last year's 6th place finish by winning a silver medal, while the 200 freestyle relay team who did not even place in the top 16 last year, placed 4th, only fractions of a second behind the bronze medallists. Thank you to all of the U16 swimmers for their hard work and dedication and congratulations to all of the swimmers who will be moving up to the First team next year.

This season of Jr. Swimming was filled with improvements, laughter, competition and most of all "Spanish chit chat" considering more than half the team hailed from Mexico. Our small but mighty team consisted of Graham Hynds, who was our captain and kept the team together and organized; James Doran , this most polite member kept me informed of the teams where abouts; Jorge Roca, whose Speedo wouldn't have been complete without 3 or 4 sets of beads around his neck; Jorge, "or are you Diego?" DeHaro; Pato Gonzalez Vega, a strong swimmer but equally strong at scoping out the pretty girls on other teams; Diego "or are you Jorge?" Morales; Fernando "ferofti" DeTeresa; Adrian Carabias, who never missed a practice

After the fantastic season the team had last year winning the CISAA and then heading to OFSAA this season was a re-building year. We suffered from dwindling numbers, however, we made the best of the season. We took our training to new heights previously unseen by the St. Andrew's ski-team and by the first week of February in time for most competition all team members were skiing a respectable 20 km/wk.Hugh Dowell, Simon Ruggier, Artem Dudin, and Gord Hunter formed the core of the Senior team Although our successes were limited our senior team put in a solid performance at CISAA. At the end of January we managed to poach Matt McIntosh and Richard Oosthuizen from Mrs. Kowaltschuk's downhill team and show them that Nordic is the way and the truth in winter sport. They skied Junior Boys and posted promising results in two races and I will do my best again next year to keep them away from the dark side of the force. Our strongest skier Gord Hunter had a great season finishing first at CISAA and posting a top ten result amongst a very competitive field from Toronto, Georgian Bay, Muskoka, and York Region. We are looking forward to next years season when I will be poaching athletes from the other endurance sports including swimming and X-country running to join us in a sport that tests your limits and forces you to reach deep within yourself to see what you are really made of. Best wishes to the graduating members of our team; Gord Hunter whose many victories to raised St. Andrew's profile in the sport, and Hugh Dowell whose unwavering dedication to the team and quest for personal improvement was inspirational to us all. We are very lucky to have six excellent squash courts at the school. With the goal of making squash a centre of excellence, it is important to challenge our athletes with the best level of play available. This year, 9 players from our 1st, JV, U16 and U14 entered provincial tournaments in Markham, Burlington and Woodbridge and got to see firsthand the tremendous caliber of squash in the province. The players who entered these tournaments were motivated to improve, receive coaching and practise. The two first team players who most exemplified this spirit of commitment were Dennis Wong and Faisal Ratansi. Each achieved a level of play in the last half of the season that enabled them to defeat players 2 and 3 spots above them on the ladder.

What is interesting about squash is that a good athlete, who is new to the game, can pick it up rather quickly. Chris McFarlane proved this as he joined the program for the first time and was constantly challenging for a spot on the first squad. Another player worthy of mention is Clement Yau who juggled several commitments throughout the season yet did not let this interfere with his game. Then days before the final tournament he was in a car accident yet he persevered and played, despite being shaken-up and sore from the collision. After an enjoyable season of exhibition play with other schools, the 1st team finished the season in 3rd place just behind Appleby in 2nd, but with Ridley way out in front in 1st place.

This year's Under 16 Squash team remained undefeated all season long. The determination to win and play fair was truly evident amongst the whole group. Jon Adamo, Fernando Paramo, Luis Paramo, Adam Bucci, Justin Au and Vince Wong were always ranked in the top eight and usually cleaned out their competitors from schools like Holy Trinity, Bayview Glen, Ridley, Appleby, Crescent and UCC. Good luck next year as you move up to first squash. Special mention to Fernando Esteban, Matt Langer, Tomi Jun, George Si, Mike McIntosh, Jeff Seymour and Jon Mackenzie for their great efforts all season. We also had the chance to see Mr.Cameron often as he was the coach of the TCS team, we saw them so often (six times in a row) that we even knew the players first and last names by the finals. The Russian Embassy took our number one player at the time, Alex Ryazanov away from us on the day of our CISAA in order to sort out his VISA problems. Talk about bad timing!

Our Most Improved Player was never on a squash team before this year. He started off at the bottom and hovered around the middle of the ladder during the season. He stepped up to play the difficult third position in our final championship. This player ensures that everyone knows who he is with his loud booming voice, he must take after his older brother...Congratulations to the team's MIP, Paul Ross.

A natural at any sport, the Most Valuable Player is no stranger to nail biting finishes. He is used to games ending in overtime and he is used to being the lifesaver of the team. He helped St.Andrew's capture a soccer and a squash championship this year. The MVP had to play a difficult match against UCC in the finals, we were tied with the Blue Smurfs and the days' fate depended on him. As everyone in the stands nervously watched this neck in neck game, our team hero played a drop shot that stunned his opponent and captured our first place finish. It was a day that I will never forget. St.Andrew's will be losing a fine athlete as he returns to Mexico after spending two years here. The "A Team" for marksmanship this year was Gauthum Tolani, Jorge Roca, Javier Cortina (team Captain), Joaquin Hirschfeld, Rodrigo Lopez. Other members of the team were Jared Leslie, Sohaib Siddiqui, Steve Brooks, Duncan Geil, Vinu Natarajan, Adam Ford and Taylor Irving.

The Marksmanship Team enjoyed a successful but short season this year. The 'first' team competed in the Cadet Zone competition and finished with a solid second place just a few points of National Champions, #2799 Queen's York Rangers. Highlights included Javier Cortina's regular scores in the high 90s and a personal best of 98/100, which would surely have qualified him has one of the top shots in the province. Congratulations to all team members for yet another fine season with our school marksmanship team. Brian McCue Esq.

On Sunday April 27th, the perfect day for a parade was upon us, with clear skies and a high of 13 degrees Celsius. The Cadet Military Band provided stirring martial music while the Company Sergeants Major dressed their companies in line at Branksome Hall. CSM Chris Attard took over for the day as Acting RSM while the 1st Rugby Team claimed RSM Lennox for their tour east. Confidently, the Corps was ready for the Officers "fall-in" and A/RSM Attard turned the Parade over to the Senior Officers. The Pipes and Drums sounded the step-off and the Corps proudly marched from Branksome Hall to St. Paul's Anglican Church. Following the service, the Corps reformed and marched past our Guest of Honour, LCol (ret'd) Tom Christiansen who took the salute from the five-hundred and sixty Highlanders on parade. A marvelous start to our public engagements for the spring.

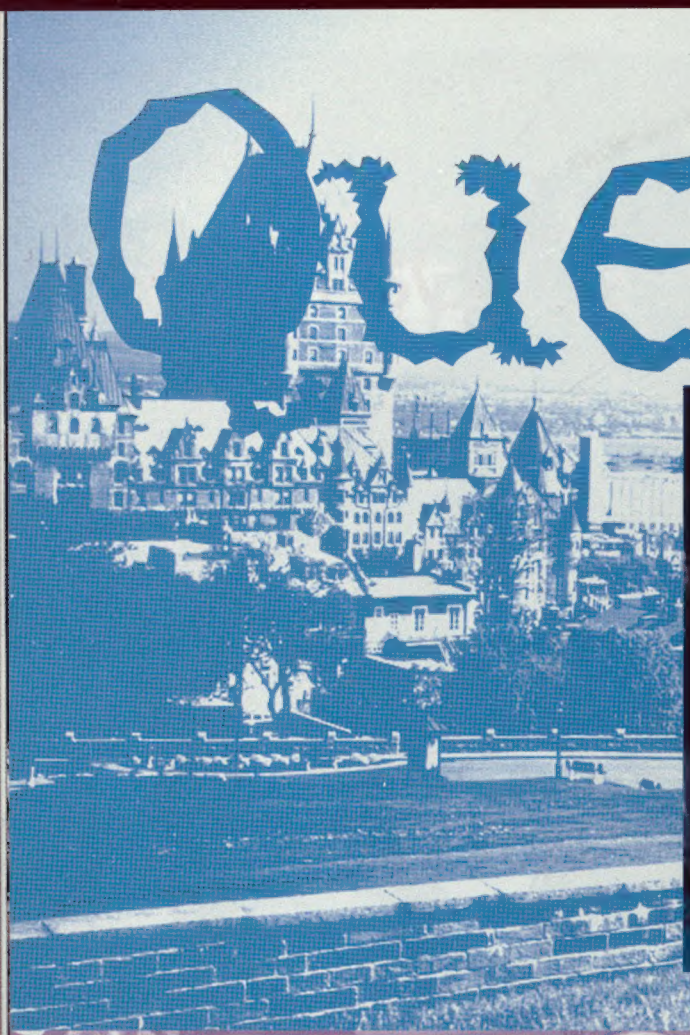
Quebec



The Grade 8 Graduating class departed for Quebec City Wednesday June 04 and experienced the province's fine culture for five days, returning the 08th of June. The trip was a tremendous success! The boys thoroughly enjoyed themselves throughout the entire trip, engaging in various cross-curricular activities while practising their oral French the entire time. Some of the highlights of the trip included whale watching in Tadoussac…what a sight! We observed many Beluga whales and a few Menkes only feet away from our boat! The boys had the opportunity to visit both Lower and Upper Quebec and experienced La Citadel, Quebec's famous fortress taking them back to the early times of Champlain. They were even able to role-play the Battle of Quebec on Canada's National Park, The Plains of Abraham. After a long day of travelling the city and being exposed to French-Canadian history they enjoyed an evening swim at the University of Laval. The boys ate many traditional meals including one at the famous "Cabane à Sucre" where they also participated in folklore dancing. Our final day was spent visiting St. Anne de Beaupre and Montmorency Falls…both absolutely beautiful! It was a fantastic trip for the boys and teachers alike, a memorable trip to conclude a very memorable year.

This years' 1st Team came with a great skill level, but also some issues with attitude and egos. We knew this coming in... but that didn't make it any easier. If there's one message I'd need to get out to the younger athletes in this audience – please remember that developing as an athlete means developing as a sportsman... your attitude is actually more important than your level of skill. Obviously you need both skill and attitude to become a truly exceptional athlete... but attitude is the most important.

Our first experience was a trip down to the Ohio Rugby Classic. We won all three matches, and outscored our opponents 89-10. We also had a red card and numerous penalties for talking to the ref, and were Division Champions.

Our next experience was a trip to the CAIS National Tournament at King's Edgehill school in Nova Scotia. We did a much better job of being disciplined with only a few outbursts... and schooled our opponents 114 – 0, winning all 5 matches and the National title for the second year in a row. Coach Shields and I were getting excited at this point... we had talent, AND discipline...

Then comes the week of Cadet inspection, 10 days off, the Cadet formal... and we meet UCC the following Wednesday... and we have lost our edge and our composure.. and earn the only loss of our season.

The rest of the season saw some steady improvement until the playoffs when, I have to hand it to these players – they played a near perfect semi-final match dismissing Appleby 44-5.

The finals, as the many of you who came down to UCC know, were a superb display of rugby, but – to be honest – we did not play anywhere near as well as we could have. We did play, for the most part, a disciplined, and certainly a creative brand of rugby that made us stand out from all the teams we met this year. And coming back from an 18-6 deficit with 15 minutes in a CISAA final remaining takes real discipline.

Coach Shields and myself would like to thank all the players who brought it together to bring us all a CISAA Championship for the first time in 5 years. This championship is a testament to the skill, determination, and discipline of these players.

The JV Rugby team started off very successfully initially participating in a tournament in Ohio, where we successively competed against many first teams of much larger schools losing 2 and winning 1. It was evident even at this point that out team was going to be very competitive and what seemed to be the team to beat as the season got underway.

Many measure the success of a season by their win and loss record and whether they are victorious in the final. However, for these 20 players, overcoming adversity and facing almost insurmountable odds proved that solely skill and speed are not necessarily the most important thing in successful teams. Determination, desire and above all pride is what makes teams champions. Although we succumbed in the final to a to a Powerful squad from SJK, this was the most memorable season I have ever had and these boys are still champions.

I must first thank Mr. Treasure for all of his video footage, help in practice and support in games as well as Ms. Ossenkop who was a fantastic help on the sidelines taping and tending to the many injuries that we suffered throughout the year. Most of all, however I would like to thank our Graduating players for their effort and dedication to the team. All told there are 13, 8 of which played on the team for 2 years namely Ryan Miller, Jason Lau, Alex Camargo, Freddie Kane, Allan Bean, Mike Bottomly, Jon Milnes and Joseph Lau and one who has played for three – Jae Hee Lee.

It was a tremendous year for the St. Andrew's College 2008 track and field team. Begining with the York Region Championships, the Saints had several strong preformances from Collin Collins, Senior MVP Gord Hunter, Midget MVP Karl McCartney, Chris McFarlane, Senior MVP Scott Simmons, and Junior MVP J.P. Suddaby. The CISAA Championships proved to be even more successful than York Region with dramatic victories by the Saints 4x100 and 4x400 meter relay teams. It was a bittersweet moment for the boys after defeating the Southern Champions Ridley College in both relays. They knew they had the talent to move on, however they were unable to field teams at meets that would qualify them for OFSAA.

Gord Hunter and J.P. Suddaby qualified for OFSAA in their respective events for the third year in a row. Scott Simmons and Karl McCartney attended their first Provincial Championship. It was a learning experience for both of them and hopefully Karl can return next year to represent the Saints at the most presitgous track and field meet of the high school year. Many thanks should go to all of the guys who came out and ran for St. Andrew's. The future looks bright and hopefully more strong runners can come along to fill the big shoes left by this year's graduates.

Some of us did pretty well and some of us didn't do as well, but this is not what badminton is about. The main point of this sport is to have fun and enjoy ourselves in the games. We have lost to tough opponents, but so what? Winning doesn't provide as much of a lesson as losing, but by losing we can learn from our mistakes and improve. The season started with disorganization and rusty moments, and as the season progressed, we had pulled together a strong team with great sense of SAC spirit. York Region Tournament was a great start of our badminton season, and it broadened our perspective in terms of skills and strategies. The rest of the season went pretty smooth, but the CISAA hit us hard. Nonetheless, it was a great season worth remembering. Ryan's coaching, Dennis's drops, George's "consistency", Simon's smashes, Richard's aggression, and Dave's frustration are always the highlights of the season. Big thanks to Ryan and Dennis for the coaching and all the practices, and especially Mr. Dominato for giving his analysis in between games. Keep the team up next year and don't let us down! This year's U16 team was made up mostly veterans and therefore they were experienced and understood what needed to be done to be successful. They worked hard in practice and were open to criticism and coaching. Their dedication and work ethic payed off with a very solid regular season, lead by the exceptional play of 1st Single and captain Calvin Lam. At the CISAA Championships our 2nd Single, Vincent Wong finished a strong 2nd with a gutsy performance, while 3rd Single "JJ" Lee won his division with real heart and determination. Our 2nd Doubles team of Samuel Kuit and Auldis Sung surprised everyone by playing their best badminton of the year and won their division as well. Finishing with two 1st places and a 2nd out of six divisions was still only good for 3ry place overall. Never the less, this was a very rewarding season. Well done gents, and thanks for your efforts. SK

Early in the season it became apparent that the team to beat would be Crescent School. With the loss of key player Sebastian Manigat to Rugby and our hopes diminished, we still managed to work together as a team committed to this one program in building our skill sets and strategies. Unfortunately the ~~Granite Club School~~ Crescent were to strong in the final tournament but I believe our players had personal bests and could see how their game had improved over the season. Special mention to our two doubles teams Mike Ferguson and Alexander Leon and Josh Hanson and Tony Lau who were second places finishers in a field of 9 teams!

The MVP this year set a standard of effort, attitude, conduct and deportment - Sean Eng.

MIP - Two players were clear candidates for this award. The first candidate, Scott Genin, went from being the team bird repairmen to earn a spot in the final tournament as third singles player. The MIP goes, though, to the player who almost took top spot from his brother - Adrian Eng.

A couple weeks ago I was really pleased to see table tennis showcased in a video on an email conference. We might only use a little Celluloid ball 40 millimetres in diameter but technique, hand -eye coordination and agility are huge components of our sport, as was shown. We will never get leather as there is no CIS championship. Nevertheless there is a strong group of enthusiasts here and I am pleased to be associated with them.

The future looks promising. For the first time that I can remember the junior squad is more numerous than the senior one and shows lots of potential. One pair reached the semi finals of the York Region championship and it is one of them who receives the MIP award in recognition of his efforts and the progress he made. Tommy Tan.

The MVP award goes to a graduating student who has been an enthusiastic player for these past three years and a partner in this year's number one pair - Steven Lam.

The time for softball at St. Andrew's has come to pass
So as for my poems, this will be the last.
An interesting season to say the least
As for the rain, well it never ceased.
Two games we played as scheduled and planned
The rest they were wet, cold and finally by demand.
Our team this year was full of pride,
15 great guys who were by the coaches' sides.
An assistant coach softball has never had,
So thank you Mrs. D'Angelo, to have you made us glad!
Nine players we have leaving our beloved S. A. C.
So have patience as we address who they'd be:
A three year veteran with me and assistant captain too,
Third base will never be the same MacArthur without you.
And then we move to the bag at second,
Joaquin's a talent with whom no one could reckon.
At first we had the mighty Fraser Fell,
Never played with us before, but this no one could tell.
This year's pitcher extraordinaire,
James Keston had a season not to be compared.
Sean Bornstein was learning the art of pitching too
Lots of progress he made – good for you.
Behind the plate we had a few
Mark Browning we're sorry we'll have no season number two.
Next we approach our utility man
Jeremy Lee played where ever he was needed for our plan.
Eric Swenker our assistant captain number two,
Thanks for everything as we needed your praise and rallied around you.
But now we move onto our MIP
And with this choice I think our team will agree.
A player who never, ever quit
And who was even this season in the mouth hit.
Eric Samson-Doel you really came far
This is way you're our MIP star.
As for our MVP we need not look past
Our youngest player and an arm to blast
Team captain Ryan Bucci you're the one
Who gets this year's MVP title – so up you come.
To the 6 players we're leaving behind
Good luck with whatever term three sport you find.
Thanks to all who played on this team
You really made S. A. C.'s last year of softball a scream.
Thanks for the memories, whether they be one year or three
But of a team, Mrs. D'Angelo and I could not proud

Adrian " i can't control myself" Wu
Emerson "Im cut?" Wai
Nirushin " I must organize the k'dawg" Thambirajah
Devon "ive lost my raquet, bag, hat, head" Mok

The teams voted MVP is someone who displayed dedication from the start of the year and regardless of injury, made it to every practice and gave his all. I fondly remember him during an injury, picking up all the balls for his team mates in his number 1's just so the practice would be more successful – Devon Bean

The teams voted MIP is someone who was determined to prove his skill. In a ladder competition he fought for his rightful position on the team, and earned the respect of his team mates – Graydon Calvert.

I want to express my sincere thanks to all members who made this an incredible coaching experience. I will fondly remember your enthusiasm, spirit and dedication.

Golf at St. Andrew's is a unique sport. I believe this is the only sport that both the junior and senior teams practice together each day, they play on the same courses at each tournament with two exceptions and each tournament is important because points are earned toward the ultimate championships by how well a team places in each individual tournament. The other unique element of golf is the players golf attracts and the interesting perspicuous they bring to the game.

This year we set a goal of defending the junior championship and winning the senior championship.

The depth of the program and teams was evident at the Inaugural Cardinal Golf Course High School Invitational Tournament for local high school teams. Because many members of the senior team were unavailable to play due to Prefect election announcements. We entered one senior player, Brent Brandham and four junior age players Matt Suddaby, Pierce Cassidy, Alex Tang and Ryan Bryce into the senior tournament. Matt shot a 79, the second lowest score of the day and the team won the senior championship.

Going into the last tournament of the season, the junior team was tied for 1st place and the senior team was in 2nd place behind Appleby. The junior team won their final tournament outright thus clinching the junior championship. A repeat championship! The seniors made it a little more interesting by placing 2nd in the final tournament, but more importantly, finishing ahead of Appleby. Finishing 13 points ahead of our nearest rival , St. Andrew's won the championship!We accomplished what we set out to do. The only school to win both championships in the same season and this is the second time we have done it.

These past four years at SAC have been a blast. Thanks to Whitney and all the boys especially Tanton, Roids, Soup, the Heem, Mini Swab, Fahlgren and Olivier. I would also like to acknowledge all the teachers and coaches who offered me wisdom and advice for my future endeavours, especially Mrs. Perrier, my advisor. Some of my greatest memories will be affiliated with the school. Some things will stick out more than others and some I will remember forever. Playing football in front of the Homecoming crowd and winning the Golden Horseshoe Bowl, all the trips to Montreal and the endless drilling during spring cadets will forever be a part of me. Finally, I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to attend SAC. I hope I make your investment worthwhile!

Look forward to seeing you boys at homecoming next year!

Asking of me to summarize my six years at SAC in a couple of words is almost impossible. SAC has been my life for the past six years and I will never forget all the good times. First of all, I would like to thank my parents for sending me to such an excellent school and always continuing to push me through my time here. To all my friends who I have made at SAC, I wish you all good luck in the future and may we always keep in touch. Remember that things will only get better! Thanks to all my teachers and coaches who taught me to put my all into anything I do and taught me work habits that I will carry through my life. The long and exciting road has finally come to an end and we must move on, but I will always remember the good times!

It's hard to believe that my seven years have come and gone here. It seems like just yesterday when I entered this great place, which over the years has become my home, and the people here my family. First of all I would like to thank my late father for giving me the gift of life, as well as allowing me the great opportunity to become a part of the Andrean community. Secondly I would like to thank my mum, you have been my back bone through all the hard times, and I thank you from the bottom of my heart for sticking by my side. To my second mum, Mrs. Perrier, thank you for guiding me, and always putting me back on track you really don't know how much your appreciated. Remember all those Saturday night, partying at Jonhstone, Stock, a lot of fun with a few drink, playing beer-pong and dancing all night most of the time with one of your girlfriend guys, sorry about that. I'll also remember trying to get out of trouble, arguing with Waldo about shoes, earring, taking off early for breaks, and shaving and also missed class for medical reasons, obviously. Also visiting the carwash with Mano, Mani and McCullough a couple times at night was quite funny, God, I never had fun like this in a carwash. Thanks to all of you for a awesome two years I had with you, good luck next year in you lives and I hope that at one point in our lives our road are going to meet again.

It's hard to believe that my time at SAC is already over. It feels like I just got here. There have been ups and downs, things I've loved and things I've hated, but at the end of the day, there's nowhere I'd rather go to school. The hallways feel too much like home. I want to thank all the boys for making this last year one of the best. From Cancun to the Grad Room to the famous SAC parties, it's been a trip. I want to thank my parents and my teachers for helping me eke my way through my academic career here. Most of all, I want to thank Ryan and Sandra for always being there for me so I'd have a shoulder to lean on. To my fellow grads, I wish you all the best in whatever you choose to do, and do it with the pride of an Andrean, for no other source of pride is so great.

I have had the best four years of my life at St. Andrew's College. Now that my time at SAC has come to an end I feel that I am leaving a wonderful community, like none other. I have made a lot of friends at SAC who will be a part of my life through University and onwards into the real world. I will never forget the wonderful productions Mr. Scoular has produced over my time here, and all the plays during Focus. I will never forget the Homecoming and Springfest Dances and after parties, the Football game at Homecoming, the MacPherson tournament, and the SAC pride. I would like to thank my parents for sending me to such a wonderful school; you can hardly imagine how much I appreciate their efforts keeping me here for four years. I would also like to thank my teacher's during my four years at SAC who gave me the best education. I have often wondered what I was going to say on my grad comment, and the time has finally come. It is unfortunate that I can't write more because every single person in my grade has affected me in some way. To my graduating class, the school will never be the same when we leave—we kept it real. To those who went on the grad trip, it was one hell of a ride. I just have one question; do you love soca? Wahid, you've been my best friend since grade 8. Big Botts, next time I almost drown, HELP ME. Jayson, you are such a nice guy. Don't change. Doel, SAC is way better than Richmond Hill. To Mr. Clements and Mr. Arril, you two were amazing. Chapel isn't the same without you. Mrs. Mix, I have never met a more caring person. Mr. Shields and Mr. Shrimpton, thanks for giving me a chance on football. Mr. Myrans, you been my advisor and teacher for many years and through your methods you taught me how to think, but more importantly, you taught me the meaning of hard work. A special thank you goes to my mom whose sacrifice made my SAC experience possible. I am so grateful and I will make you proud. Dad, I am so grateful with the time we shared these past couple of years. I feel like finally we got to really know each other. The car rides in the morning and the hockey game - two great memories. Mom and Dad, I love you both. Andrew, you are the best older brother I could ask for. Your faith in me is something I will always cherish. Thanks for all the support. To SAC, I have loved this school with all my heart for six years, thank you for everything. But it is time to say goodbye.

SAC has been full of great experiences. The people I have met during my time have given me a circle of friends as big as the world, literally. To the teachers that have been so influential in my life, particularly Tony Myrans, Thank You. To the guys, we've had a great time, life's just beginning though, let's see where it takes us. To the SMDB Crew ... Forever. Thanks for the memories. We've finished one chapter of our lives, time to start writing the next one.

Fitting six years of memorable moments into one valid grad comment is somewhat convoluted. I mean, the things that my childhood don't necessarily get my rocks off anymore. St. Andrew's has given me so much over the years, however I $200,000 in tuition is giving A LOT back, so let's just call it even for now. Over the years, SAC has evolved from only being institution, to being a part of my life where I would meet life long friends and make life long memories. Thanks to all my friends there from the very beginning and supported me in becoming the youngest and least mature graduate to ever attend St As time goes on we will all graduate (even McNeil) and a new generation of Andreans will replace us. Thanks, to the Ontario education for the double cohort, it was more fun than puppy dogs and fireworks. Cancun 2003, the time of my life, I wish now, to my one true love, the elixir, your passionate golden hue turned me to you from the beginning. Your frivolous being is worth the mere pennies and though your taste is more than acquired, our nexus can never be broken. I love you Colt 45. To the dip and egging runs that have been tattooed in my memory and all the donuts in the Grand Cherokee whip. Thanks, it's been quite the ride.

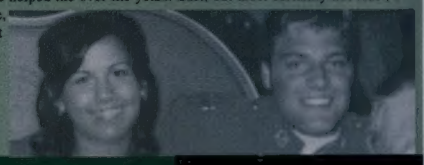
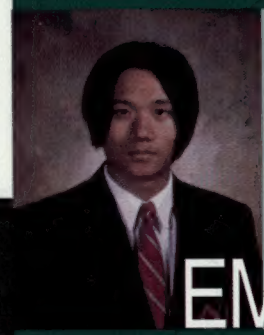
The journey I embarked upon 6 years ago, as I entered grade 7 at S.A.C, has been both enjoyable and challenging, one of many ups and downs. I have had the opportunity to experience life at St. Andrew's as a dayboy, and as a boarder, allowing me the chance to take part in all aspects of life at the College. Mention and thanks must go out to all I know for helping me through hard times as well as being there for the good times, to joke with and share a good laugh. To the guys I've known since grade 7, to the one's I've met along the way, thanks, it's been great sharing the journey with you! In particular, the boyz! Thanks Phil, a.k.a Benzino, and Dave, for giving me a second and third home, and Campbell, Milnes, and Downey. Props go out to the Sifton crew: Bobby, a.k.a Robert Round Eyes, Bri, Dunk, Geoff, and the honourary Yule. Thanks must also go to all the teachers and staff members who have helped me over the years. Last, but most certainly not least, I would like to thank Verity, you always believed in my abilities and it has made all the difference, to my brother Mike, class of 2002, for all his support, and my parents for their continual support and for giving me the chance to take part in a life altering experience. You have no idea how grateful and appreciative I am.



DAVID CHARLEBOIS

How do I sum up a third of my life in a paragraph? Quite simply, I'm only going to say what has been most important to me, and will never fade away. Firstly, I've got tons of thanks to give. Parents: I know I didn't always show it, but I strongly appreciated your help. My brother and my other mentors: It's been great being your student. Fellowship: Don't wanna see you go... Friends: You know who you are. Thanks for those little boosts. Teachers: My utmost thanks. My Jesus: You are everything to me - my Rock, my Guide, Jehovah-Jireh, "the God who saves my butt in times of trouble". I know I have done a lot of stupid things, but You love me enough to see past those flaws. In this school, all I've tried to do was have others see a glimpse of You through me. I hope it worked... Looking back on my years at SAC, and all the activities that I did, I have to admit that I did have a swell time. But putting things into perspective, this is all I can think of: It doesn't matter. None of it matters. In ten years, I will barely remember my years on the basketball team or in the FOCUS dramas. The only thing that my years at SAC will account to is the impact that I made on the lives of others. Going to university next year, there's no other place I'd rather have come from. Peace.

MARK CHENG



For the last 4 years I've seen a lot of guys come and go. Now it's my turn. Though not all my time here at sac has been joyful, it's still sad to leave this all behind. The lessons that we've learned at SAC are what we'll take with us when we leave and are what will help mould our future. Now it's my turn to join the boys before me whom taken the step out into the hostile world. We all have to find our own place in the world; luckily I have my experiences from SAC to light the way. If I could leave one note to the graduating boys of future years it would be to make sure you haven't missed out on anything.

The four years that I have spent at SAC have flown by quickly. I still remember when I first stepped into the school on orientation day – I was unsure of what's going on, excited and definitely scared. Over the past four years, there have been ups and downs which have shaped me and helped me grow. Everybody from my advisors, to teachers, to my friends have been behind me all the way through these good and sometimes turbulent times. I would like to take this opportunity to thank them for believing in me, for providing me with valuable lessons in life, for helping me realize my full potential and simply to be always there to help me out. Above all, I would like to thank my parents for the sacrifices they have made and their constant support and guidance. SAC has provided me with a lot of memories. These memories will remain with me for the rest of my life. Thank you SAC.

Without St. Andrew's College, I am not sure where I would be in life. The many experiences that have encompassed the duration of my affiliation with this school have shaped almost all of what I have become today. I am indebted forever to all the faculty, students and staff (past and present) who, just by being a presence, have enabled me to grow as a person – and an Andrean. To the friends (both Andrean and from other schools) I have accumulated during my time at S.A.C. – Thank You! Without all of you I would have been lost, especially during those times when I just needed someone to listen to all my problems and screwed up ideas. I would mention all of you in this comment if I could, but I only have limited space. You know who you are. To my family – Mom, Dad, Jed & Keith: I know that at times I may seem distant and quiet. It is at these times however, that I am able to look back and reflect on how lucky I am to have you all in my life. Thank you for the sacrifices you've given, and essentially for putting up with me over all these years. I love you all.

Having gone to this school, I have cannot help but notice how it has changed my life for the better. I would never have able to go here without the support of my grandparents and parents, and for that I thank them for everything I have received during my high school career. Secondly the only other person I can thank for getting my life straight is Mrs. Perrier, without her selfless thinking, I would probably be in a gutter somewhere in Paraguay. Thanks to everyone who made my high school experience as good as it was, I won't bother mentioning anyone because I wouldn't want to leave anyone out. The only thing I can say after graduating, is that I have been privileged to go to a school that has allowed me to do so much and give me so many opportunities. In a way I feel guilty that most people cannot enjoy the same high school education that I have.

ERIC DAVIES

Thank you, Pedro, St. Andrew's was one of the most educational journeys I have been on. St. Andrew's was so much fun. My advice to youngsters would be to get involved, and make a difference. Although I didn't make much of a difference, I got involved, and what a great time I had in doing so. To all my buddies (not you Campbell G.*) I hope we will meet up in the future, and when we do, I'll bring the beers, I'll bring the beers. To my best friends in Sifton, Robert, Duncan, Brian, David, you guys are like the brothers I never had. Many a good time was had, and since Robert and I are going to the same school, I can guarantee many more good times will come our way. Goal(s) in life (as of now): Become a radiologist, and use my father's MasterCard for another 30 years. I think I will be at Dalhousie, next year, so anyways, if I don't see any of the guys for a long time, just you know keep on given'er till you expire. It's sad, I know, but our time draws near:
For all the friends that I've made here
It's been great fun, like you all know
Especially before they booted "the show"
Give thanks to those who've helped you out
Along with them, weve changed, no doubt
For now, our ways disperse and part but do no forget the place in your heart that keeps our memories alive and well until we meet again, farewell.

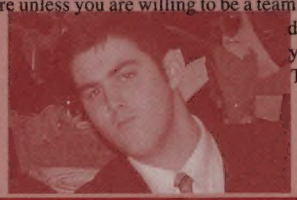
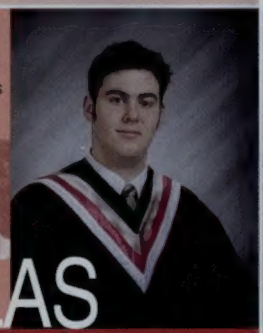
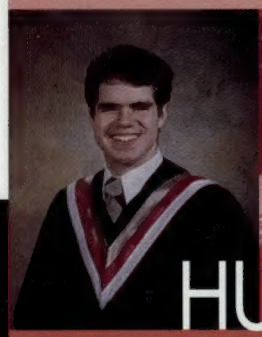
DAVID DOMINGUES

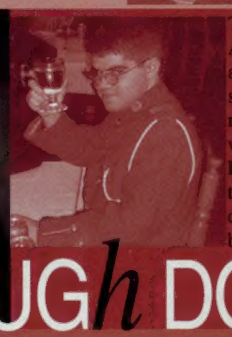
I think too many people take St. Andrew's for granted. Too many are consumed by the desire to win – being the best makes them blind to the true virtue of this place. It is doubtless the case that there are winners and losers in life, but we have to consider what winning truly is. Will the tough guys still be tough at Med. School? Will all of those marks that you struggled for really make you happier in life? The real victors are the people who can see that beyond the desire to win, SAC presents you with the chance to win with integrity. All the talent and experience in the world will get you nowhere unless you are willing to be a team player and to make personal sacrifices for the benefit of the big picture. Somewhere down the line, you will realize that you need help. You can't do it all alone. Will you have somewhere to turn? An Andrean, I might suggest, will know where to turn to. To my family; to the many whom I've been lucky enough to befriend; to Mr. McGillivray; to my fellow prefects; and to Paddy: You are the ones who have given shape to my dreams. I will be grateful forever.





ANDREW DOUGLAS





There is so much to be said about my four years here and yet I don't know how to say it. Even with its ups and downs St. Andrew's has been everything I've ever wanted and more. I cannot claim that there I did this on my own and there are a great many people who deserve credit. However there are so many of you and I can't do justice in this little space; please know that you have my thanks and affection for all that you've done for me. This place has given me so much; it taught me a great deal and allowed me to try so many new things. At times I cannot imagine life beyond its walls, but regardless the time has come to say goodbye. I've been in some of the most glorious cathedrals of England, but the can't compare to the simple beauty of our chapel. I've heard many great choirs, yet 500 untrained voices singing the Dorset Carol surpasses them all. The Stratford Festival could take some lessons from our drama department and I defy any unit of the Armed Forces to put on a better inspection then our corps. This has been the experience of a lifetime and I send best wishes to all my mates who shared the ride with me. I shall miss you all and this place so very much. To those who remain: Cherish his place. Mum, Dad, thank you so much.

Some of the most memorable times of my life have come from this place. My time here went by so fast without me even noticing and taking full advantage of everything this place has to offer. It was the greatest four years of my life and I owe it all to my parents for their sacrifices and the aggravations they endured from my many expenditures. Even though according to them, I still haven't learned the value of money, I have learned the value of friendship. I have certainly made some life long friends and acquaintances. Some of the many fun times at SAC include: skipping T's practices, Homecoming, Spring Fest, after parties, and the many car crashes! (Campbell and his tree, Drewe and his pole, Josh and his guard rail). The most memorable trip was the 2003 Cancun Grad trip…so many memories; it was simply, "A once in a lifetime trip." Over my time at SAC, I have had my ups and downs, but overall I personally feel that the good has completely outweighed the bad, even things like Saturday school?! It has been a remarkable experience, one that I will remember for the rest of my life. Thank you Mom and Dad and St. Andrew's for four of the most memorable years of my life.

Through my 6 years at S.A.C, I have gone through a lot. As I reflect upon my past six years at St. Andrews, I just can't believe how fast they have flown by. There are so many people I'd like to thank. First and foremost, I'd like to thank my parents for sacrificing so much to give me and my brothers this incredible opportunity. Mrs. Perrier, you have always been there for me, whether it was at school, at home, or in the hospital, thank you for all your support. Mr. Cowell, you have taught me a lot during each of the four years I've had you as a teacher, your guidance and friendship will never be forgotten. Mr. Scoular, your inspiration has been greatly appreciated ever since I first auditioned for you. Ms. Venters, you have helped me recover from injury and achieve two of my goals at SAC; one was joining first swimming, and the other was to bring home a CISAA championship. Thank you and I'll see you in Halifax! An honourable shoutout to the K-Dawg you were always somebody to talk to, and you always had a way of cheering me up, thanks. And last but definitely not least, I'd like to thank all my friends. I don't have enough room to name all of you, but you know who you are and it's been an awesome six years. Thank you all.

Nickname: Froggy - If you were to ask me what I thought of the time I spent here at St. Andrew's College I would probably say that the pros were heavily out weighed by the cons. However, while reminiscing the years, I realized that there were many reasons that I do and always will love this place. And even funnier, I can tell you every single reason for my infatuation. A special thanks to the McFarlanes, Rothwells, McCulloughs, and Manchees for taking great care of me during the weekends. I will never forget: winning at the Skydome, the lunch's dips, Mc Neil's clutchness this last year, the after hours at McFarlanes or Manchees, the trip in Sweden, and finally the week in Tremblant and Montreal. Before coming here, I thought Ontarians were boring and didn't know how to party, well you guys proved me wrong. I went to the best parties of my life these last two years. Also, thanks to the Perriers for being great. En terminant, merci a mes parents, sans vous je ne viverais pas ces moments exceptionnelles.

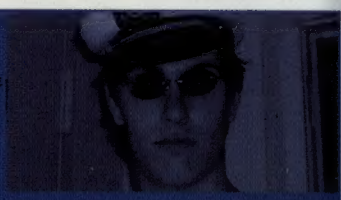
MANOLIS FRAGIADAKIS



1996. I would have to say that being a student at St. Andrew's College has been the most wonderful and valuable experience of my life. SAC has taught me so much and made such an impact on my life, but most of all it has guided me from a young twelve-year-old kid into the man I will be for the rest of my life. I would first like to thank the Perrier's, my housemasters, for giving me such a wonderful experience in boarding life. Without your little kitchen downstairs at night Mrs. Perrier, I wouldn't have survived. As I can't thank seven years of teachers in this short comment, I would simply just like to thank all of you. You all have made such an impact on my life and I will carry the things you taught me forever. Not only have you been amazing teachers, but amazing friends. To my friends throughout the years, I really will miss you greatly and I know we will always stay in touch. I also must thank Mac House for giving me the opportunity to be a house captain and have to say that during my time at SAC, this was one of the best memories I will take away with me. Damn, I'm up to 230 words now! 20 more! I guess to finish off, I wish all my friends who are going off to university the best of luck, Davies, Lorriman, Richard Choi, Lin, Lo, Joel. I also wish the best of luck to my friends who still have some time at SAC, Middleton, Irving, Munro (beat Irving in skiing next year) and Paddy. Live up the SAC experience boys, I know I did and leave with no regrets. Thanks to all for an amazing time!

MERVYN FRAME

I've been at SAC for four years now, and it's hard to translate the raw emotions [illegible] these have truly been the best years of my life. I remember when I first stepped through the doors of MacHouse, [illegible] uncomfortable it felt. But all my angst quickly disappeared, and in its place grew a feeling of home – a sense of [illegible] I think all of the teachers who helped me find direction in my life, both academically and personally, and [illegible] know who you are) for all the good times – this place would never have been the same without you. Even as a day-student you [illegible] feel welcome (that's probably why you could never get me to leave!). Mr. Shrimpton, thank you for all your advice [illegible] times. Most of all thanks for always being straight with me – always telling me what I needed to hear, and [illegible] especially to my parents who made the huge sacrifice to send me to such a wonderful place. At the end of this journey I am [illegible] than when I began. I go into the world confident in my abilities, and finally in myself, knowing that I will [illegible] help me along the way. Thank you everyone, for everything throughout the years.

The last four years have been memorable. I have made many friends that I will have forever, and learned many valuable lessons. Through my experiences at SAC, I have been able to grow as an individual. I would like to thank my parents who gave me the opportunity and made the sacrifice to send me here, as well as my advisor, Mr. Giel, who's advice over the years has proven to be priceless. I would also like to thank Mr. Shrimpton, who always tried to point me in the right direction. Mrs. Mix and Miss O'Higgins, thank you for always believing in me. To everybody still here, stick with it. Time goes by a lot faster than you think. To all the graduates, the best of luck in the future.

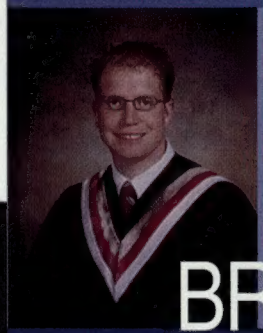
SAC (not S.A.C) has been interesting place where I have met some very funny characters. Thanks to my parents who have funded this four-year jamboree. Thanks to Ian, Fraser, Alex, Mom, and especially Dad for helping through good and bad times at St. Andrews. Thanks to Mr. Shrimpton for keeping me out of trouble and for being my advisor when some people who will remain nameless refused to. Thanks to all the faithful visitors of room #210. Thanks to all the prefects in my time who have organized the many great after parties I will never remember. Thanks to most but not all of the teachers who's classes I will always forget.

CAMPBELL GORDON



The last two years at SAC were without a doubt the best years of my life, I was a little unsure about living at an all guys boarding school, but now that I am used to it, I think it will be the people that I met in the boarding house that I will remember the most! My time at SAC has been the busiest in my life…at times I had to take six classes, play a sport such as rugby or soccer, fit in community service, as well as learn a pile of music for pipes and drums. That is not even mentioning what I do outside the SAC campus…but, like anyone else at SAC, I would not have had it any other way!! I would like to thank all of my teachers for not giving up on me after a dismal year in grade 12 from an academic standpoint. Thanks to the housemasters of Sifton (Newton, Ramon, and Bedard) who helped me to adjust to living away from home, you have no idea what that has meant to me; in particular I would like to thank Mrs. Mix for taking care of my university applications, I would have been lost without your help!! Also I owe a lot to my parents who took two years to convince me to apply to this school…I would like to thank them for that, as well as keeping me on the right track all through High School (though it may not have seemed like it sometimes!) Though the school year is not quite finished yet (we still have a rugby championship to win…hopefully) I think this year has been the best year of my life so far and I will cherish every moment of it. Cheers.

I took 9! came to SAC as a young boy, and will 'hopefully' leave as a man. I learned much in the classroom, but learned much more from my mistakes. Thanks to my BoyZ: BT, Tanton, the Rat, Lobes, Quest, and the ghetto crew. I'd like to thank mainly Mrs. Perrier for everything she has done, put up with, and helped me through. I don't know where I would be without her. But I'd also like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to go to a school like St. Andrew's, and also the few people who helped and supported me through good times and bad. I have learned many things during my stay at St. Andrew's, but most importantly that: you won't get recognition if you don't do anything. Your true friends are the ones who are always there for you no matter what happens, and last that you won't try unless you have a reason to, and I found mine just in time.

Wow, what a ride. As former graduates have stated, it would be a huge injustice to condense my four years at SAC into one paragraph. My Time here at St. Andrew's College has been truly memorable. And for that I owe thanks to the many extraordinary people who have made it so special. Thank you Mom and Dad for the sacrifices you made for me to attend S.A.C. Everything I've done here I did to make you proud. Thank you to Ms. Chasson for your guidance and instruction, not just in music, but in life. Thank you Mrs. Mix for your support and for always believing in me. Thank you Mr. Joiner for being a true inspiration and providing me with a "love for learning". Thanks especially to all my friends (you know who you are) I owe a lot of laughs to you guys. Now I leave St. Andrew College with two quotes, one which taught me how to overcome challenges, and the other, a statement I can make after four years of learning the hard way.

I refer to it as a high school but that doesn't do it justice. There are too many institutions that fit under that category and St. Andrew's belongs on its own. St. Andrew's has given me every opportunity to find the person I strive to be and I can't thank the teachers and staff at S.A.C. enough for everything they have done for me. Perhaps the most important part of St. Andrew's are the friends that surround you everyday. To all my friends (you know exactly who you are) without you guys I couldn't have done it. My career at S.A.C. has been the best years of my life because of you. The times we share in the classroom, the short times we had outside of the classroom, and most importantly on the field, will be the times I reflect back on forever. You guys are like brothers to me and I wish you the best in all you do. I would like to thank Mom and Dad for giving me the opportunity to be a part of something so amazing I love you guys and can't thank you enough for supporting me in everything I do. Thanks Carly for being everything a brother could ask for, and being that one person that I strive to be as successful as; I love you too. Well I have had just as much trouble coming up with what I wanted to say here as everyone else. S.A.C. has made too much of an impression on me to describe in 250 words or less. Coming here in grade nine was a big transition, but the welcoming and inviting atmosphere has helped me to become involved in some of the most exciting things of my life. In this my final year I find myself overwhelmed, and cannot yet see what I'm going to do when it's all over and gone. This year will be over in no time, just like the last three, and we'll all be left wondering where our time here went. So, to anyone that has more time at the school, enjoy it and take advantage of it. To those leaving let us be grateful for the opportunities that we have been given - by our parents, the school, and its many supporters. And for my last few words I have to give some shouts. To the OFSAA Krew, lead by K-Dawg: Beaner, Murf, Dill Hole, R.O., Tristan, Irving, and Johnny Mosley the bus driver. As well the rest of the Ski Team. To my hosts in Memorial house: Paddy and Dougs. And to everyone else, I'll never forget all of this!

In a short time this place has completely changed my life. Over the years I accepted the SAC philosophy as a way of life. My parents, sending me here had given me the gift of not only higher learning but also partaking in one of the finest overall learning environments the country has to offer. This school has taught me how to work and play, to win and lose, to laugh and cry but most importantly it has given me a safe place to mature into what I am today. I would like to thank my entire family for all the support and love they have shown me over the past five years. Also thanks to my coaches, they are the reason SAC sports are so good. To all the teachers, you have allowed me to become confident in my academic abilities, a gift, which will help me through any challenge at university. Finally to all my friends, it's been a blast; you guys have made my years here so unforgettable. Thanks for the memories, good luck to you all.

As I look back on my past three years at S.A.C, a sort of sadness overcomes me as I realize that the three best years of my life may just have passed by me. This school has done so much for me; it's given me a place to call home, to learn, and to find out who I am. While the importance of those aspects must not be overlooked, what I'll take away most from my time at S.A.C. are the friendships and bonds I have made inside these gates. My buddies, Nathan, Stu, McCullough, Joe, Jordan, Chris I can't even begin to explain what you guys mean to me. The jokes and laughter, whether it be in the dining hall, camping, North Bay, Collingwood, Cuba or Cancun will always be in my mind when nights before breaks, are times get tough in life. The Memorial boys and my roommate Ammo; the late nights talking, the Skoal sessions, and the Wednesday important that was to me. some of my better moments here. McNabb, thanks for sticking by me at the start when times were tough, you'll never know how Campbell, Stock, Maciver, Boo and Delean; in North Bay or at school, you guys have been by my side for the entire ride. And to all the other guys; Nic, for opening your homes and Downey, and the rest of the graduating class, it's been awesome! I would like to thank the entire Rothwell and Manchee families so much more to me. Mr. & Mrs. Perrier, words cannot describe what you mean to me and the whole SAC community. Mr. Myrans, you've taught me more than I could ever have imagined. Mr. T. I guess I just don't have what you have, the horrible hair and all. And finally, thank you Mom & Dad, you'll never understand just how much I appreciate the sacrifices you've made so that I could come to St. Andrew's.

First of all, I want to thank my parents for putting up with me for all of these years and for all of their support. I can't thank you enough for all that you have sacrificed. S.A.C will be a time in my life, which I will never forget, I have made some amazing friendships, guys that I know will be with me throughout the rest of my life. I could fill a book with the great experiences I've had at St. Andrew's. Hockey, Focus and Duke of Ed are full of great stories and amazing experiences. Trips to Cozumel, Tremblunt, playing puck, hockey parties, Mayfest, Homecoming, it's been a great 7 years. And finally to the boys, the guys who make SAC what it is: Collins, Woody, Thompson, Parent, Mitch, McCulough, Mano, Jean Simon, Dubaa, Campbell, Caron, Breener, Froggy and Mcneil. SAC has given me six wonderful years and I can say without a doubt in my mind that they have been the best years of my life. When I entered the school in grade seven I didn't know a soul and I didn't know what my parents had gotten me into. It was an experience that I wouldn't give up for anything in the world. Thanks MOM & DAD for all your hard earned sacrifices that you had to make to send me here it means the world to me. I would like to thank Mr. Staunton for helping out along the way; Mr. Shrimpton for being patient with me and helping me accomplish a dream; Mr. Bedard for helping me become a better person, teaching me so many life lessons and make SAC hockey memorable experience; and finally to Mrs. Perrier: thank you from the bottom of my heart you are like a second mother to me and I can't thank you enough, any problem I had or anything I needed you took care of for me. To my friends, boys (Jarryd, Chris, Nate, Joe, B-Mac, Hoff, Jordan, Hoff, Tim, Dan, Stu) you guys mean the world to me. JEFFREY JOHNSTONE

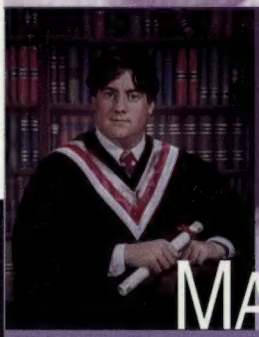
I came to SAC five years ago in 1998 in its centennial year and my five years at SAC have been the best years of my life. Its going to be one of the sadist days of my life when I leave these school grounds for the last time as a student. First of all I'd like to thank my parents for giving me this opportunity to come here and follow in the foot steps of my father. I'd also like to thank my best friends A.C. and E.S.D for making my time at SAC a whole lot better. I'm going to miss playing on our soccer and rugby fields and swimming at our swim meets. This school has offered me so much like Focus, sports, cadets, Duke of Edinburgh and so much more. I think I've got as much as possible out of this school as you can get out of it. My greatest complements at this school have been winning U14 soccer championship, U16 and Tier two rugby champs and back to back U16 swimming champs and 1st swimming champs my last year. Also Winning M.I.P. for U14 rugby and U16 swimming, getting my Bronze and silver Duke of Ed award and winning the Col. Tilson award in grade eight. I believe the experience I've learned at SAC will help me and stay with me forever. And I'm sure the name Co-Kane will live on at SAC for a few more years.

FREDDIE KANE



These last five years at SAC have been really amazing and these last two have been part of the best time of my life. So much has happened that it's really difficult to sum it up in a brief paragraph. I've meet some amazing people who I really hope to stay close to. Friends who have been there every step of they . I would like to give specific shouts to James Kesten " Look a sh* Van Dude" Chris Chmiel " You're such a jerk" Adam Rourke "Adam you're white accept that" Eric Samson-Doel " How they hell were you once a scholar?" I'm going to have so many memories, leaving this place and moving on is difficult. This school has given me so much and I have been able to experience so many different new things. I have learned so much and have grown immensely as a person during these last five years. I would like to thank my parents for giving me this opportunity and believing in me throughout my high school career.

Obviously first and foremost I would like to thank my parents for giving me the amazing opportunities that I had here at SAC. Then all my tight buddies who helped me through good times, great times, and the kinda all right times. I've had a good four years at SAC, it's a great place to go to high school and I'm proud to call myself an Andrean. The first thing I must do is thank my parents. They've always supported me in my endeavours and sacrificed whatever was necessary for my success. I must also thank my friends, because it is the students, before the activities, faculty and facilities, that make the school what it is. Whatever your beliefs may be, make sure they are your own. If you aren't careful, someone will choose them for you and you'll never be the wiser. Do not fall into a state of stagnation; expose yourself to as much as possible, including things outside of SAC. Experience is essential in one's development, so take advantage of any opportunity that seems even remotely appealing to you. A certain degree of introspection should also be combined with this proactive posture. Don't be afraid to stop and observe. You can learn a lot by taking a step back to examine the world around you. Also, don't expect any favours, life is objective. Finally, my favorite quote: "Everything was beautiful, and nothing hurt." – Kurt Vonnegut
Thank you and good luck to all my classmates in their future endeavours.

Well, four years seem to have come and gone like nothing, whether it was spent in Paris for 3 months, flying airplanes over the campus, or back home on the tundra, these years at SAC have been like no other. With all the Eskimo jokes, and the jokes that my closet neighbour lives 6 hours away by dog team. Well, let me assure you that although I may hail from the Arctic, there is little truth to half of those statements. Although I've had many names from Territories and Arctic Boy, Mr. Shrimpton came up with the best, "Klondike Kocik". That will always stick with me. Lastly, my parents must be thanked for allowing me to have such a great experience throughout my career. On a side note, If any of you are ever on a plane, and hear "On behalf of Cpt. Kocik and his crew." I'll accept one of two things: you can sprint off the plane real fast, (likely) or you can stay onboard and have the best flight of your life. And no, I do not eat raw whale, its called Muktuk.

When I entered the gates of SAC four years ago I can't forget how badly I wanted to leave. Here I am four years later, and I can definitely say that SAC has aided me in becoming the complete man and a well-rounded individual. Over the last four years I have learned to become independent in so many different ways. Being surrounded by such pleasant and brilliant people in such a small community and creating life long friendships. Being a border only added to the thrill of being here and also made me wash clothes every once in a while. There was never a dull moment whether it be Mrs. Perrier's wonderful snacks after study or throwing water balloons out my window. Thank you to my parents for supporting me financially, Mr. Perrier for all the math help and thanks to Mr. Josselyn my advisor and all my teachers. Good Luck to all my friends in the future. Peace I'm outta here.

I also want to thank all of my friends, I'll never forget you and I'll always remember great and fun times we had. I want to thank all of my teachers who taught me so many things. Thank you, Mr. Shrimpton for being a great housemaster and for always guiding and giving advice to me. St. Andrew's College has been like a home to me and I'll be missing you all.

These three years I have spent at SAC have had a tremendous impact on my life. After leaving RSGC, I was told against my will to study at SAC, but shortly after my arrival, I realized it was the best choice my parents have ever made for me. Boarding life has been a whole new experience, it teaches me how to mature independently in every aspect. I had much difficulity meeting the lightout time during my Gr. 10, 11 years, but during my final year as a floor captain, no one could stop me from staying up! (I would just say "im off to bed now sir…") I grew and learned so much from my friends, and without them, these few years would be rather meaningless. All three of my roommates have quite distinct characters; they all brought me great moments in my life. Yo, Joe dog, how's it going?? Wanna go chill at PMall? As for Paul, I have no comment…(haha) When we are desperate for a midnight snack, we can always count on Yip with his Beammer, which hopefully turns into a Z4. Cancun was such a crazy trip, it was definitely the best trip I have ever been to (Joe was the crazy one there!) We shall all stay in contact even after entering universities!

Entering SAC is definitely a major turning point of my life. Wow, I can't believe it's been 4 years already! I still remember the miserable first semester of my SAC life. "Why am I here, I'd rather go to UCC, at least it is closer to downtown Toronto!" was my initial comment about this place. It is amazing how I love St. Andrew's so much now. I am sure that the memories of these past 4 years would be some of the best ones in my life. From being a local Hong Kong student, unaware of what was happening in the larger world; to becoming a confident leader in an independent school in Canada is something that I have never imagined to happen to me before. This dream, however, has come true. To my parents, thank you for sending me here, and yes, your youngest son is finally going to University! To my sister, thanks for taking care of your craven brother. Your university guidance gets me (totally ignorant) to the place where I want to go. To my brother, we've been buddies since the day I was born despite the 4 years gap which we've never felt between us. I still remember how I mimic you all the time. Thanks for your great influence. Without any of you, I will not be the person I am today. To my AZN buddies at SAC, although we had a rough time at the beginning of the year, we managed to get along again half way through. I'll never forget the "tone-siu"AOE during the exam week (and taking showers in Flavelle afterwards where we heard birds singing in the morning). Best of luck to you all! To all of my friends here, I'll miss these days I've spent with you! Special thanks to my House Masters: Mr. T, Mr. Penton, Mr. Stewart, Mr. Galajda, Mr. Ramon, Mr. Service, Mr. Newton; Mr. Giel and Mr. Bedard (You two definitely made my life at SAC a lot easier and happier, THANK YOU) Finally, to all future grads…I strongly recommend LaBoom and Fat Tuesday! FAIRWELL, SAC!!!

When you look back on things, four years goes fast. As I think about everything that has happened, all the memories, it's overwhelming. There are so many people to thank for helping me through my time here, starting with my parents. They always pushed me to work harder and are the ones who are responsible for my being at St. Andrew's. My advisor Mrs. K, was always on top of me this year, making sure that I wrote all my tests, kept my marks up and made sure my spirits were high. To my housemasters and teachers, thank you as well for being there for any help I needed. I enjoyed my many roles around the school such as Community Service Council, DECA, and my leadership role as Head of House in Mac House. I will never forget the kids there, who are the reason I was able to laugh at night and also the reason why I'll have gray hairs by the time I'm 30! I also want to thank one of my best friends during the year in Mac House because she was the one constantly looking out for me to do well on tests, do my homework, and go to class and was always fun to hang out with almost every night. I think my greatest memories are of the sports teams, the championships, hanging out in friend's rooms at night, playing on the Mac House ice in the winter, watching Alias and Ed, and the spirit and atmosphere at SAC. These, among other things, are what I will take with me and remember from St. Andrew's.

JAMIE LAwSON

Thank you, Mom and Dad for providing me with such an amazing experience even though I didn't deserve it and it seems like I didn't appreciate it. I wish life would slow down.... Can't believe I'am finally out of this place… Where will life take me next???

When my parents left me here as a Gr.7 boarding student, I felt like I was a stranger in a distant land. For a young, introvert Asian boy who could barely speak any English, this whole new environment could have turned to be a dangerous adventure. I remember I cried alone often during the first month of SAC with overwhelming homesickness… the time I will have to spend in this strange realm seemed like a nightmare. Now, looking back at the past 6 years, I do not know how it went by so fast. The things strange to me at the beginning of my SAC career – chapel, EBs and ERs, Pep Rally, Cadets and sports - are now engraved into my life and will be part of my unforgettable memories. The sufferings, joys, sadness and pleasure I experienced here at SAC have certainly shaped me into a well-rounded man. Thanks to every single teacher who taught me since Gr. 7. I know I have been annoying at times in terms of marks, but you are the best teachers I have ever had, and I can't thank you enough for the things you taught me. Special thanks to my advisor and housemaster Mr. Bedard, for his guidance and caring of my brother and myself. Thanks to the staff and administration for giving me a better opportunity to shine academically and socially, especially for Mr. Swan, Mrs. Mix and Ms. O'Higgins for all the application work. I'd also like to thank all my Korean friends, for the great times we had and the lifelong memories we made. I will never forget all you SACKA guys. Lastly, I want to thank my family. To my brother, I would never have accomplished what I have without your warm support and advice. To my parents, thanks for sending me to SAC despite huge sacrifices you had to make. I will never forget the love you shown me whenever I was having hard times.

The education that you get at St. Andrew's goes far beyond History or Calculus; you can learn those things anywhere. What make St. Andrew's unique are the friendships you build during your time at the College, and the experiences you take with you when you leave. These are the memories that stay with you as you travel the road of life. It is the people you meet here that make St. Andrew's priceless. To the faculty and staff: thank you, my time at St. Andrew's was made better because of your help, and friendship; this place would not be the same without you. To my fellow graduates: it's been great, I wish you all the best of luck as we head out into the real world; I hope that someday we can all look back on our years at St. Andrew's as some of the best years of our lives. To future Andreans: live life to the fullest, make the most of your time here because you what you put into St. Andrew's is what you'll take out at the end. Finally, my deepest gratitude goes out to my parents; for the endless sacrifices you made when you chose to send your sons to the best school in Canada; I cannot thank you enough.

Well~~!! What do I have to say? Should I have to say something about my life at SAC? haha~ Well, who would have thought that three years at St. Andrew's would have passed by so quickly? All I can say is that they have been a blast. Still now, it seems like only yesterday that I was a fresh man at SAC. First of all, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Jesus Christ and my parents who always stand behind me. Secondly, I personally thank to Mr. Jones who always call me "ANDREW" Mr. Jones~!! You know what? My name is "ED" haha~ Lastly, Mr. Dominato (advisor) and Mr. Shrimpton (House Master). I would have to say thank you all for making me a better student. Now is the time to ask myself some questions. Hey Ed!! What did you do? What have you done? And what have you learnt? Words can't even begin to describe my memories that I will take away from SAC. I have learned so many life's valuable lessons which I will carry close to me wherever I go until my death. I finally came to understand the real meaning of being an Andrean. "Act like a man," "Be strong." These phrases are the diamonds. NO!!!! more than diamonds that will make my future shiny, bright and glistening. This is what my life is all about at SAC. It is all about being an Andrean. God Bless St. Andrew's College and you. AMEN!

I can't figure out what SAC means to me at this point. Maybe, I will know the value of life in SAC while I am studying at university (hopefully). But certainly, SAC taught me tones of stuff that I could not learn from somewhere else. I learned about life, friendships, how to catch the Mr. Perrier's (funny) joke during the classes, etc. These three years in SAC was my life turning point as well as one of the most enjoyable time in my life. I would like to thank my parents and sisters who support me, and also thanks to my fellow graduate students. Special thanks to my housemaster, Mr. Bedard, and advisor, Mrs. Pries. Four years have gone by so fast ... I really enjoyed my career at SAC. ... I learned and experienced many things here ... Life at SAC is very different from public schools ... Special thanks to: Mr. Bedard for always helping me out when I was in Sifton ... Mr. Robson and Mr. Kimmerer for always reminding me to tuck my shirt in ... SAC promises to do one thing for you: to develop you as a complete man, well rounded citizen. After my six years here, I certainly feel that the school has fulfilled its promise to me. Coming here as a grade 7 student, things like drama, community service, rugby, debating, getting high marks, and many other things were not familiar with me, but if this school has taught me one thing over the last six years, that would be to try everything and excel in all aspects of school life. It would be impossible to list all the memorable moments over the last six years, so I'll rather use this opportunity to thank some people. To the teachers, your dedication to the students in and out of the classroom (especially the countless hours of extra help you give on your spare time) has helped us tremendously, and I couldn't have asked for more from my teachers. To Mr. Shrimpton, I want to thank you for everything you've done for me over the last three years (there are too many things to list). To the grads, I wish you all the best of luck in the future. To my friends, thanks for all the good times over the years, and although the paths we choose for our future may separate us, I'll always remember you guys and we'll be friends forever. And finally to my parents, thanks for your support and care over the years. You basically allowed me to do whatever everything I did was to make you proud. I wanted in high school, and The six years I spent at SAC was an amazing journey. It has taught me so much about life that I'm sure I'm ready to begin the next chapter of my life.

Dear Heavenly Father, I thank You for bringing me through these seven years and in these awesome years, shaped and formed me into the person I am today. I thank you for blessing us with a wonderful school, academics, athletics, and all the unique things that make S.A.C. what it is. It is always difficult to leave from your home. I felt just as difficult from leaving SAC, as it was my "second" home. Getting into SAC and keeping up with all it's commitments were hard, but as a 'lifer here', I just realized that getting out was even harder. It is too tough for me to say goodbye, so I am just going to say "see you later" to my fellow Andreans. Lin, how much do you owe me again? Toms, E-Z Tomb Raider fanatic. Nick, KB tonight? Doel, d'own worry about it! Wahid, ya I had my milk this morning. Mr. Lorriman, come visit me again in Hong Kong! Choi, so… C-dog eh? Hurst, still remember your grade seven science "Ultra64rational Wicked Awesome Spectacular Guys" team? Frame, when are you going to invite me to your place? Miller, BLACK! Camargo, stop pushing people around when you talk to them. Mr. Dominato, you use way too many metaphors. Mr. Kimmerer, how many cameras do you need man? Mr. Hanson, so my mother's slow and my grandma's muscles are not developed yet right? Mrs. Pilieci, don't you ever throw that picture of BoBo away! Mr. Butcher, "joy geen". Mr. Jones, EASY sir! Mr. Joiner, I like your jokes… Mr. Perrier, don't worry, you won't be teaching me again. Because the review is so tight with the word count, I cannot mention all of your names, but I assure you all that I will remember you for the rest of my life. I would like to thank SAC as whole for enlightening me with all aspects of life (leadership, spirit, courage…etc.). My friend once said, "As an individual, I am just a man, but as Andreans, we are brothers." I shall remember that I once attended SAC but I will always be an Andrean. Good luck with your futures my fellow Andreans.

Seven years… It's hard to believe. There have been so many moments and so many memories it's hard to put them all together. They just come to you when you are with friends or back any where you have been with the school, and you just think: "Man we were real idiots back then!" and everyone has a good laugh. These memories I share with those who were with me and I will not forget them. They are the most important things you can take from this place. Over my years here there have been so many people who are responsible for what I have become; teachers, family, and friends alike. I dare not name them for fear of leaving some one out… besides, there is no need, for you all know who you are, and what you mean to me! I will never be able to repay what you have given me, I can only offer my thanks and continue to pass on what you have passed to me. The past four years at SAC have given me an experience I will never forget. My time here as a student has developed my qualities as an individual and made me mature. Memories of all my friends and events will stick with me through out my life, especially when I pass these stories on to others. I was once told that the friends you make in high school are your friends for life and i never realised it till this day. As we separate at the end of the year I know there will be many more AP's to come. Shout Outs to Dave 'Humvy' Nudds, Ry Guy, and all the rest around. The people who I thank who have made it possible for my years at St. Andrew's College are my parents Anna and Charlie. I would also like to thank the Ladies Guild who have helped on me too. As I am now graduating I realise what it means to be an Andrean.

It's been an amazing six years for me. So much so, that it is hard to put it into words. I've made it a goal during my stay here to do as much as I can. "Quantity… and quality." I've had the right people behind me. To my parents… You are my being. I love you more than you'll ever know. Thank you for supporting me in whatever I chose to do. To my friends (Es[illegible] Patty and Doogie) Thanks. You keep me smiling. Keep in touch. To my brother… John, you're just as much a part of SAC as I am. Since you can't have a grad comment, I'll slip one in for you – "McFarlane, Harryd, McCulluogh, Rothwells, Ross, Caron, Cambell, Stu… the guys. Thanks. I can't tell you how much fun it's been over these past six years. Ace, thanks buddy; that's all I can say. Mom, I love you; always have, always will. Drewe, you are the greatest brother in the world; I should start[illegible] you money." JJ, I love you – remember that. Teachers, wow. You make me, me. McCue, you are like my brother. You make a great housemaster and (from what I can see) an even better father. Thanks for everything. Scoular, by far the best teacher in the school; you're brilliant! Pipers – keep playing. Well the ride is over. S.A.C. has been an interesting and important period of my life so far. The good times definitely outweighed the bad. It's amazing how much you learn in 6 years (whether retained from class or otherwise...) and how fast that time goes by. The Boys: Jro, C-Mac, Gord, Tucan, Nro, Joe, Ja-Rule, Frog, Mano & Mani, Mexico, gr.11's and everyone else, thanks for all of the amazing experiences. Thank you to all of my teachers and coaches, past and present, who were part of the "Grande" experience. Mr. Cameron, Waldo, Mr. Wilkin, Bernie, TS, Mr. Myrans (the one man army who doesn't get enough credit) thank you JJ for your honest insight, and last but not least thank you Mr. Scoular. I appreciate your faith in an awkward blonde kid and I can't begin to thank you enough. Along with these other teachers, for being true mentors to me. To everyone else in the S.A.C. community 'good luck in the future' as the school is ever-changing. Everyone involved in the school is changing everyday with it and, in my final year especially, I learned that change can be good. I thank my parents, family, friends and girlfriends who have supported 100% of my decisions, good or bad, over the past 6 years and continue to love me as I change over time. I will one day surpass all of the expectations and hopes you have set out for me and that I have laid out for myself. 123

My first and last year at SAC; a completely different environment to live in that what I am accustomed. I have not only learned many things about school, but also many things about life, the type of things that you can only learn in a place like this. I want to thank more than anyone in the world, my parents, for giving me the privilege and opportunity to finish my last year of high school at St. Andrews College. Thank Mr. Scoular for inspiring me in doing so many things that without your support and teaching skills, I would have never achieve. Mrs. Mix, the greatest university counsellor in the world, thank you for all the help you have given me and for having the patience to listen to my crazy problems. I want to thank all the SAC boys for making me feel welcome to the school since the moment I arrived, you guys made it easier for me! It's been great year with not so great food, but hey, every thing has its advantages and disadvantages. Next year for me will be at Laurentian University studying sports psychology, so now you know where to find me. Peace and Love

When I look back on my years at St. Andrew's, it all seems to be a blur. As my time comes to an end, I can't do anything but cherish the memories and the things SAC has taught me. The long nights on the football field, the road trips, the countless laughs in the dining hall, boarding rooms, and locker rooms, the friendships that I have gained, and all the special qualities that St. Andrew's holds are things I always remember. St. Andrew's has given me somewhere to belong and to flourish, and no words can truly speak to my love for this place. Mr. Shrimpton, Mr. Bedard, Mr. Service, and Mrs. P, thanks for all your help I'll never forget it. All my boys: Stock, McFarlane, Nate, Joe, Gord, Stu, Ross, Caron, Stone, Frog, McNeil, Seb, Mano, Ammo, Parent, Mitch, Zorro, Thompson, Woodrow, Hurst, and Collins – I don't know where I'd be without you guys, Burke, Lyle, T-Birk, DVD, Cyr, and French – There will always be room on my floor. Clinton and Colin – Make the best of your time at SAC while it lasts. And last but certainly not least I want to thank my Mom and Dad for all the sacrifices and always being there. I am more grateful than you'll ever know. Thank you for making me an Andrean.

Gordie, Jarr, Ross, Mani, Mano, McCullough, Stink, and Stu. Coaches (specifically Mr. Shrimpton); your knowledge and devotion you brought to every practice and game was truly remarkable and I thank you for making my sports career at SAC as successful and enjoyable as it was. Nana, thank you for all you have done for me, I will always strive to be your favourite grandson! Finally my Mom and Dad, I know I've put you through a lot, and I couldn't imagine a better set of parents who could have dealt with my highs and lows so graciously. I cannot begin to describe the influence St. Andrew's College has had on me as a person. It rigorous academic demands coupled with its unfathomable athletic and extracurricular programs have provided me with a truly eclectic education: advancing my thinking while honing both my leadership and equilibrium finding skills have unequivocally prepared me for more than just university. The College has also instilled an intrinsic sense of integrity, morality and benevolence and for that I am genuinely thankful. Of course, my 6-year journey trough St. Andrew's would not have been possibly without my friends. Mr. Service, thank you for your help in developing me as both a student and person. Your office door was always open and you always listened to me. Thank you to my good friends, Hugh, Drewe, Nick and House. You were always there to enjoy the good times but more importantly you stood by me rigidly during the bad ones. You have all such a great comprehension of friendship and generosity; it is truly unique. Thank you to Doogs my great friend and roommate since grade 8. We have had some amazing times together and I realize that you have played an integral role in shaping my character. You always challenged yet supported me and for that I will be ever grateful. Thank you to Mrs. Perrier. Your infinite guidance and wisdom, your steadfast support and your continual charity is truly humbling. You have been my mother away from home for the past 6 years and for that I will be ever grateful. Finally thank you to my parents for not just their financial backing but also for their faith in me as a person. Their fidelity has inspired me the to develop, mature and succeed as an Andrean.

PATRICK McGRATH

I have spent some the best years of my life here at St. Andrews College, after graduating from Belair High School in Jamaica 1999-2000 I had no where to go but here, my uncle Christopher Webb's(77-79) school. Since then I have done more than I could ever have imagined and at the same time matured from the child that left Jamaica in to the man that is proud to be from Jamaica. Through being here I have to met many persons from the different nations of the world that I know of and from nations that I never knew existed such as Abu Dhabi (yo Zeebo), but most of all it was through meeting people that learned about how the real world is, aside from being in cadets every Thursday. I can say that I have done a lot of what the school has to offer but still little overall, but if I were to have a second chance I would not change a thing. I leave this school with no regrets and with confidence in myself. To list some of my marks on this school I have been: Floor Captain on the 2nd floor of Flavelle 02-03, Company Sergeant Flavelle 02 - 03, the guy who set up the Flavelle theatre, Mac house captain first term 01 - 02 (look for me in the painting in the Mac house library), SNA 02 - 03, Fencing 00 - 01, Rec Golf 00 - 01, Softball 01 - 02. Goodbye and Thank you everyone

I suppose my time here is done. I've had my moments, the good and bad over the past five years, but I've come out of it with all my limbs in tact, some sort of education and a few great friends. I'd like to thank my parents for forking out the ridiculously high tuition, my public school friends for giving some sort of haven from the never ending life of St.Andrews and all the people that have been good to me. Douglas and Patrick, you've shown me there's a few good Americans, keep reaching for that rainbow. Milnes, Big Ben, and Geoff, you guys made boarding look good. Gord, thanks for remembering, I'll look you up if I'm in the Bay. House: don't suppose you want to go camping after last formal? Mark Cheng is a solid guy, he reminds of a shorter version of Jesus. C-Lowes take care of Wilson and Kaptyn – try and get them to shower before graduating. I'm glad Manchee far enough around the pop-rock scene, to try and discover inner peace (remember that stupid seagull in cancun?). Lev, Thijis; try to keep your sister from breaking anything else and Lev, Take off that skid bracelet! To all the other boys: Camargo, J-Lee, Jalil, this guy sitting to the left of me, you know I'll miss you all and if you want me to say something about you ask me in the hall. 1st suntanning/lacrosse calls, best of luck to all!

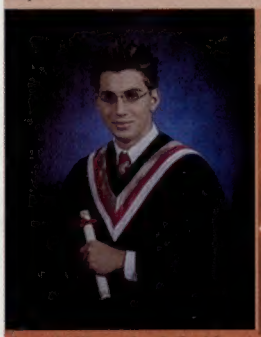
ALExANDER McNEIL



Nicknames: Milfus, Milner, Millie, Millie Vanillie, Jew Wop, Ryo, Millicopter '03, cadets, Hardy Boys '03. Over my 5 years at SAC I have learned countless lessons with countless memories. However, no lesson has been so valuable as that of the importance of friends. Not the friends you can laugh with, but those you can cry with. What makes SAC such a great place is not the walls, or buildings, or fields, but the people. Though I have many fond memories of the quad, lower fields, and gyms, they would be nothing without the people surrounding them. What I will miss most about SAC are the faces that became familiar over the past 5 years. Not only my friends, but I will miss everyone who is part of SAC - all the teachers and staff, and all of the janitors who became friends to many of the students. I would like to thank my parents for giving me the opportunity to have the best 5 years of my life. I know I am a pain in the ass, and sometimes you want to kill me, but I promise in the end it will all be worth it. I would like to thank Mr. Bedard for being there for me year after year, though I often let him down. Sorry for all the trouble sir. I have to thank Mrs. Mix for being a mentor, an advisor; the reason so many of us can go to university, but most importantly, a friend. @—}— don't forget V-Day 2003! We made you blush. Melissa, the best things come when you aren't looking. Now to those who made my 5 years here more than just worth the while, the boys. Tzimas, Ammo, Dan, Nudds, Nick T, Sunder, Khaje, D-Dot, Tipping, Joel, Posa, Luc, Collin, Hiscox , Banwell. I hope that all our friendships last the test of time. I would like to thank God for giving my parents the opportunity to send me to St. Andrew's College. Although it has some things to improve on, it has had a positive impact on my overall development as a person. I would also like to thank my parents for supporting me throughout my school career even when times were tough. However, I remember when I first came to SAC, I hated it. It took two years for me to feel like I was a part of the community. Once I immersed myself into it, I started to feel comfortable. The teachers I would like to thank are Mr. Josselyn (advisor), Mr. Dunford (grade 11 and 12 math teacher) and Ms. P, for putting up with me in the library for the past five years(haha!). We finally did it Ruckers! Biggups to everyone on my squad including Coach Smith and GM Hracs. We all played hard. My boys at SAC: Wahid, Camargs, N. Diddy, O-del, Hracs, Miguel (Wishing Well), Z-dot (you're still SAC at heart). My boys 4 life, Mag 7:45: Lakhani, Mun, Shaff, Jai(Babu), Habib, Karl, Lizo. Even though SAC has been fun, the sillest year was grade 8 at WWMS.

I have so many memories from this place that will last a lifetime: walking down the chapel steps to the beat of 'oh when the saints', bus rides to Ridley, sneaking out to TJ'S at lunch and karaoke at FOCUS. but all these memories would be nothing without the people that made them possible. Well, now I can say with confidence. Three years at SAC were probably the most important times in my life. I learned a lot, and also saw much of my potentials too. I discovered my unique potentials especially in: getting highest grades while putting lowest effort possible, and studying while sleeping. I really want to thank SAC for these fabulous skills. Ok, getting serious here. One thing that I think I earned during the life at SAC, or if someone asks me the same question, I can without hesitating say; I earned the most fantastic friends and memories that were worth every second of my time here. What I did, thought, and said for these three years made up another me that I never found before. It is a man, who has pride, confidence, and faith in who he is. I hope to stand in front of the quad some many days after this, and feel the same feeling that I get these days when I look at the peaceful scenery of SAC. Goodbye SAC!

Life at St. Andrew's has almost completed and I have too many thoughts running through my head to write down. It has been the experience of a lifetime for me and all the others graduating in this double year. St. Andrew's is not only a school, but a second home where the teachers care as parents, and your peers act as brothers. Experiences that will be remembered forever have been engraved into my life, from the intense Andrean mentality of cheering for the First Football, Golden Horseshoe Champions and at all the pep rallies to the feelings at the carol services and the cadet inspections. Everything from semi's, formals, and after parties, just chilling with friends in someone's room to giving it everything you can possibly give for the Saints jersey you have on, everything will be remembered with great appreciation for this truly extraordinary place. My parents have been a huge part in what I am today and I thank them for all the opportunities that they given my brother and I. Sam, thanks for leading the way into SAC and being a great role model for Nathan and I to look up to. Nathan, thank you for everything, you are both truly amazing brothers. Being an Andrean has definitely put my life on a different path. One shaped by the people and events that I have encountered over the past 6 years. I will always remember the great friends that I have met here, you know who you are. Thanks out to all the prefects from each of the passing years for setting up some great events, such as the dances, Formals, and associated press meetings. Of the many school events, I specifically remember one St Andrew's Night dinner. An old boy was guest speaker and his words have since stuck to me, probably because I had found it humorous at the time. He talked about procrastination (the exact quote is not quite appropriate…) and I find this quite fitting since I am writing this grad comment at the exact moment it is due. Through my years of experience I have concluded that procrastination isn't too bad even if it doesn't happen to often, because once in a while you just can't avoid screwing yourself. This is certainly not an ordinary place, SAC is an academically competitive atmosphere, encouraging extra curricular events, and supporting a sheltered environment. An environment that has kept us less vulnerable to some of the problems that we would have otherwise encountered in the real world. It is now time to leave this remarkable shelter and experience the real world on my own.

Without a doubt I thank God first and foremost for helping me make it through. Mums, Pops, and the family thank you for your undying support the whole way... I arrived at SAC as an open-minded boy, and now I'm leaving as a much wiser young man, ready to move on. My time here would not have been bearable without: Frog and Dana (my dawgs for life…nuff said), McNeil a.k.a Drugs, Phil, Zoheb, Steve, Parent, Big T, Woody, Hurst, Dmytri, Campbell, Milnes, Banwell, Collins, Miller, Seb, Amo, Mani, Andre, Mark, Terry, Christian, boyz from days gone: Mackie, Scholz, Gummie, Spinz, Zahir, Warren, Tim, Ali, Robo, Sacher, Jan, Jamie, special thanks to Mr. and Mrs. Perrier, Mr. Bedard, Mr. Walden and all those "special" ladies out there, you know who you are. SCOTT SIMMONS

Nicknames: Ty-bo, Sky-bo, Sky, Tylas, T-smith, Smitty, Lurch

Activities: 1st Soccer, 1st Basketball, 1st Rugby, Christian fellowship, Intramural basketball flag party, frequent speaker in chapel (Tuesday M.A.P. program), dedicated member of Smith coach (championship in 2003 with "Rucker"), Cadet platoon instructor and member of house. - In three years at St. Andrew's I've grown exponentially. Not in the physical sense, as I did in grade 8 (the awkward year), but in character. In fact, due to the two CISAA championship losses I endured this year (Soccer, ending in penalty shots, and Basketball, in a last second 3-pointer), I now believe that I have overdosed on character. But the opportunities that I have been given to feel the pain of those losses, and the exhilaration of last year's soccer victory, are instances that I will be grateful for throughout my life. The lessons I have learned both on the field and while travelling with my teammates, will positively influence my decisions and ensure that I follow promising paths. In fact, I probably won't fully appreciate the value of my time here, both socially and academically, until I take time to reflect in two or three years. It's something that must be stepped back from, and given time, to truly comprehend. That said, there are some people that made obvious impacts in my life at S.A.C. First, Juice and Mr. Ruscitti (the ultimate contrast), thanks for the faith you put in me in our three years of steady ascent in basketball. I hope that I have shown at least half the respect you demanded and deserved. Thanks to all the staff that provided encouragement and understanding, unfortunately I don't have room to give everyone proper recognition, but be assured I will not forget the selfless help, from late night calculus to miraculously clean jerseys, I've received. My friends fit in here somewhere, but I'll be seeing them often, intentionally or otherwise, and any due gratitude will be sorted out later, or simply assumed. Finally, without my parents I simply wouldn't have anything so wonderful to write about or such permanent pride and confidence. And so shall we come to the end of this week unashamed and with a quiet mind.

My two years at St. Andrew's have been some of the best of my life. It still seems like yesterday when I was a nervous grade 11 student who knew no one at the school but I will leave with great friendships that I will carry throughout my life. Once I entered those gates of brass I wanted to leave, but know as I am nearing my graduation, this school has done so much, I don't want to leave it behind. But as I leave I will take everything this school has taught me, and hopefully apply it successfully in the outside world. It is hard to express in words how much I want to thank my parents for giving me to such a good opportunity and making such a big sacrifice to get me here. I would like to thank my brother for helping me adjust to such a great place and helping me get the most out of my time at SAC. Thanks to all my teachers who helped me get the most out of my time at SAC, especially Mr. Shrimpton, Mr. Galajda and Mr. Service, you gave me the desire to learn. I can't say enough about Mrs. Perrier as my advisor, always willing to sit down and talk things over and being there for support. Thanks for all the boys who made it easy for me to adjust to such a tight knit community, one that you never want to leave. This school has changed my life forever and the memories and friendships that I had here will never leave me. This wonderful experience would not have been possible without the sacrifices made by my parents to send me here. You have done so much for my, motivating me to do my best, but at the same time caring for me when I have struggled. Thanks for everything mom and dad

At the end of my fourth year at St. Andrew's College, I can reflect back on all of the accomplishments and failures that have shaped me into the young man I am today. There are a lot of good people within the faculty and staff who provided a positive influence on myself and peers. Not only should I commend the staff on four great years, but I must thank all the guys I went to school with. The conformity and talent within our grade allowed for some tremendously successful sports teams. On an individual level, winning the 200 meters at OFSAA was a very special moment and one that has opened many doors at the university level for me. Although playing on great teams and winning individual championships was a valuable experience, I gained a tremendous sense of accomplishment when participating in the S.A.C. dramatic productions. I was fortunate enough to be a principle character in the 2001 production of Oliver!. Without a doubt, Oliver! was the most satisfying and enjoyable thing I ever did at St. Andrew's. Of course, I must thank my mother and father for cheering me on at every game, every meet and every performance. Home or away I could count on at least one of them being there. I must also thank my grandparents for their support throughout my high school career. Matthew, you must carry on the legacy of your name and I wish you all the best in your final years at S.A.C.

Well, it's been nearly five years since I first came to SAC and it has changed dramatically. This school has had its ups and downs but has always kept on going. The younger generation is lucky; they get to see some of the most significant changes over the next few years. It is also now up to the younger students to step up and be leaders. Unfortunately, I'm not really sure what advice to give or how to give it, so I'll let others say it better:

"Stand up to your obstacles and do something about them. You will find that they haven't half the strength you think they have." ~ Norman Vincent Peale
"Self-reliance is the only road to true freedom, and being one's own person is its ultimate reward." ~ Patricia Sampson
"I am only one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. And I will not let what I cannot do interfere with what I can do." ~ Edward Everett Hale
"Remember the difference between a boss and a leader; a boss says "Go!" - a leader says "Let's go!" ~ E.M. Kelly
"Often people attempt to live their lives backwards; they try to have more things, or more money, in order to do more of what they want, so they will be happier. The way it actually works is the reverse. You must first be who you really are, then do what you need to do, in order to have what you want Margaret Young

Although having gone through many rough times here at SAC, I can safely look back and say that I had the time of my life. With ample opportunity to live my dream and be part of a real community, I was given more than I ever expected. Brian, my best friend, you were always there for me. I wouldn't be the same without you. Josh, Andrew, Adam, Dave, and Andrew, you all made my time here that much better. My advisors, Mr. Walden and Mr. Arril, your guidance helped me greatly. Mr. Ainsworth and Mr. Dunford, thanks for the great classes. Mr. and Mrs. Perrier, thanks for always being there for me when I needed someone. I love my two brothers Marc and Luc, and my sister Tanya for being more than just siblings, but great friends. I love you mom because you always knew what was best for me. Dad, not a day goes by when I don't of you. I also want to thank God for putting me where I am and for giving me the tools to make a difference. To everyone who is where they are in life, don't expect everything to be given to you for you must work hard at everything you do to succeed.
"Your word is a lamp to my feet and a light for my path." Psalms 119:105

Wow I actually did it. I made it through 6 years of swimming and St Andrews College. Many people think I am crazy for doing what I did, myself included. I'm on my way to bigger and better things. I just want to say thanks to everyone who helped me out along the way. My closest friends (the wrong crowd), the teachers who saw promise in me, and especially my advisor Mrs. Perrier. If I didn't have her I'm sure my high school career may not have even existed. Props to my friends otherwise known as the "Questionable crowd" Beatty, Joel, Breen, Perks, Campbell, and yeah RJ you too. I just want to say goodbye to those places which harboured my unconscious mind and resting body (sleeping), Football locker room, Library, many classrooms, Josh's room, Gym, Chemistry and the locker hallway. You know what they say about a fat girl and a Moped? It's true... For all of you SAC boys entering your high school days, make sure you have FUN and live your life with no regrets. Keep this in mind, if you ever get caught for skipping class just say my name and everything will be fine (I am the king). I just can't believe its all over...Finally! Thanks again to all of my Friends J.W.S.M.D.B.

For the past seven years of my life, I have been part of a very special place. I came to SAC not knowing what to expect and not overly thrilled to be there. Now that my time has passed, I don't really know how to part with something that has become part of me. S.A.C. has given me so many opportunities that I will forever be grateful of. I would like to thank my parents for giving me such an advantage, I love both of you with all my heart and thank you for sticking through the good, bad, and even worse times. The greatest thing SAC has provided me with are my friends, who make life at SAC so special. Woody, Hursty, Parent, Collins, Mitchell, McCollough, Amadori, John John, Zoratto, the rest of Euro, McNeil and the 'slanders, Scooter, Froggie, and Dana, I will never forget the countless memories and amazing times we shared. You have all influenced my life, and I will never loose touch. Mr. Kimmerer thanks for everything the past 7 years, I hope Graham keeps you busy when I'm gone! The times I will miss most are Homecoming's, Semi's, Formal's, Cozumel 2000, MacPherson, FOCUS, After parties, and the mornings after! The reality of leaving SAC is difficult to grasp. I know I will miss this place, but I feel prepared to move on. Thank you to everyone who has helped me or influence me in some way.

When I first came to this school 6 years ago, I didn't know if this was hell or worst. Going to a new school and leaving my old friends behind to get surrounded by boys… not a smart idea. Ah well. It's over now. Throughout these years, it has left me with many memories: Mr. Butcher's "Gwai Lo" and "Gong Ying Mun", Mr. Arril's chain saw in chapel, Mr. Dunford's math class in the parking lot and Mr. Tebokkel calling me "Ebay."
The only down side is why oh why isn't this a co-ed school! I would like to first thank my mom and dad for giving me this opportunity to enroll at SAC. JOSE URIBE

Nick names: Swiss, Otto, TY, T-dot, Blondie.

Activities: A1 Alpine skiing (2years), JV soccer, Softball training squad (1 year), Floor Captain in Flavelle. My two years at SAC were all that I ever expected, everyone knew my name within a couple of months. It is all I ever dreamed of! I never expected to accomplish this much coming from a little hick town in Switzerland. I remember when I came over to SAC on a visit during my Grade 10 year, I especially remember of the interview with Mr Foy and his challenging question. I never sweated that much in my life! I am very grateful to my parents of sending me to this school. Especially my dad, he is my source of inspiration. Without him I would never have had the ambition and the courage to try something new. He really helped me during the rough times. I will never forget that night after the MacPherson game... Boy what a night that was! I truly had great times at this school, the long weekends with Mr Perrier or the trip to Turks and Caicos with Maj. McCue. One thing I love about this school is the relationship between the Teachers and the students. I am very grateful for what Mr Shrimpton and Mr McCue have done for me. I had a particularly challenging time during my Grad year because I did not only have to deal with the pressure of University applications. But I had to deal with a very homesick brother, in the end everything went for the best. With a little help from my good friends Gillbrotha, Sheep boy, Roger, Wade, Fly boy, BC man, Sterling & Emmery and many others. I will forever be grateful for listening to what I had to say. You can't imagine how much that meant to me. Cheers to everyone and hope to see you in the future.

Wow. That's all I can say after 4 years, wow. They went very quickly and will not be forgotten. There has been no better experience in my life then the one which I have had here and I have enjoyed every minute of it. From Mrs. Perrier's House breakfasts to Mr. P's late night math sessions, it's been a blast. For trips like California for basketball, and Cancun '03 for the grad trip it's been great and well worth it. First, thanks to my parents for providing the money for me to go to school at such a place as S.A.C.. Thanks to all the friends I made here for making it an even better experience then it could have been; Eric, Josh, Paddy, Dougie, Merv, Nathan, Jarryd, Botts, Dadson, and everybody else who I may have missed. To Mrs. Perrier for being like a second mother to me here being my advisor and housemaster must have been a challenge. Mr. Giel for his "quizzes", Mr. Josselyn, Mr. Robson's English class, Mrs. Bedard and Mrs. Mix's University Counselling have all been key to my success here. Lastly, to returning guys: A Feez, T-Birk, Billy, Darryl, Francis, DVD, Crane, the school is yours; cherish it because you never know what you're missing until you've lost it. "I've failed over and over again in my life, and that is why…… I succeed."

What can I say? It has been four memorable years at SAC, I would like to start by saying thanks to Mom & Dad for giving me the opportunity to attend SAC, I know that they have sacrificed a lot to send me here and even though I never called home it didn't mean I didn't care, I was just busy…and to my brother, Jason, I know that you have always been there for me. I know that you take a lot of heat because you are my brother and I would like to say thank you. I would also like to thank the Perriers for taking care of me for 4 years. I would especially like to thanks all my past roommates Joseph, Wilson, Brent, Nick, Ringo & Yip (my second room at MAC) and Kenny. Who can forget ape (#3), water elemental, DD, and dlau you guys brought so much humor. Never will I forget drifting to Harvey's, the endless WC games, losing a hood, long hours at vd, rejecting sin law in geometry, 6am with Joseph, learning "striking the match" on guitar, and 10 minutes of "soft-core" stories at Cancun. The year is rapidly coming to an end and we all will be going separate ways, I will miss this school and all my friends; however I am sure that our future will cross further down the road.

Finally I realize how much time left in my SAC life when I am writing this grad comment. Three years ago I never thought that I would be someone like me now. Sixty days until prize day and the end of my OAC year. I would never forget the first day of being an Andrean. Thanks to my dad and mom, for giving me this opportunity to study at St Andrew's College, where I surely learnt a lot about not only academically and also about life. The past 3 years, I had a lot of wonderful moments with my friends and indubitably it will not be forgettable. My life in SAC would not go pass as pleasurable without my Chinese buddies. Also I would like to say thanks to my house master Shrimp dog for providing me many opportunities in all aspects here at Flavelle house, and giving me so many chances to skip chapels for sleeping in my morning classes. Last but not least, I would like to thank my adviser, Mr Dunny. Thank you for all your encouragement and assistance that you have provided for my SAC years. Without your assistance I wouldn't be able to make a right decision on picking my courses and attending a university. I would like to give special thanks to all my buddies (David Lau(9 lo), Matthew Yip (DSL modem), Ringo Ng (mosonini in NHL, Lungs), Joseph Leung (CT, Chief Taurent BND Big Nose Dog), Emmery Cheung(DKX), Steven Lam (Toe Man), Dennis Wong (Far seer, Gangless), Wilson Poon (GAY LO), Charles Ng (The Magician), Kent Yeung(Bo Lo Cow), Clement Yau (Big Brother), Dereck Leung (Big Strenght Leon), Bosco Tse (Bostwana), Kevin Lau (Ape, OKAY Lo, Tongue, ass toucher, THE ONE.). SAC will be one of the biggest parts in my life.

Thanks mom and dad for providing me with the opportunity to go to SAC for these past 5 years. The memories and good times I've had while here will be irreplaceable. Too all the boy's graduating, best of luck in what ever it is you plan on doing, you've made my time at SAC a memorable one. To Hanni, Everton and all the people who are involved with making the school look great, thanks. The good times I've had while here at SAC will compare to no others, all the school trips, the good times on the sports teams I've been on, our Duke trip to Cozumel, the homecomings, Friday night McPherson's and Carol Services. Some can't wait to graduate, but coming to SAC has made me never want to leave it. I will always remember SAC for 3 things. 1 the best after parties anywhere, no one can throw a bender like a SAC boy. 2 The good times to be had after school in the hockey rink, the boarding houses, and the playing fields. 3 The bonds made with everyone involved in the school. Shout out to the boys who were always up for a session, Steve, Hurst, Collins, Parent, Mitchell, B-Mac, Mano, Seb, McNiel, Breen, Caron, Froggy, Scott, Little guy, Delean and anyone else who wanted to join. Special thanks to Mr. Walden, Mr. Kimmerer, Mr. Service, Mr. Scoular, and the Guidance Office.

It was still like yesterday that I first came to this school, first met my housemaster, my roommate, first learnt how to login email, first tasted dinning hall's * food, first served my EB, first skipped class. Activities: U-16 Badminton, Intramural Basketball, Intramural Swimming, 1st Sleeping, U-16 chapel attendance, 1st Badminton, Bronze Medallion Instructor, Lifeguard, Rifle Team. It seemed only yesterday that I first step into St. Andrew's College. I still remember the excited feeling I had yet the new environment was quite scary to a grade nine. I was going to be a boarder, spending the next four years at the school. The first thing that crossed my mind was, "Am I going to have any friends?" Little did I know that friends need not to be one of my concerns. Graduating from elementary school and going to high school was one of the biggest changes in my life. Although grade 9 is not the youngest, it was however, very frightening. The work in SAC was overwhelming at first. I had a really hard time trying to catch up. The hardest thing to comprehend was that there were no parents beside me to tell me when to work. Time management was really hard. Four years have passed in the blink of an eye. Thank you Mom & Dad for giving me the change to go to SAC and have such experiences of a life time. Thank you to all the teachers who had taught me and special thanks to the Perriers who have been excellent at taking care of Memorial House. I know I am going to Ms. P's hamburgers and food after study. The Math Dan will be one of those memories which will stay forever. Finally, thx to all my friends: Lung Gor, JoeJoe, Jay Lo, BiBi, KayMun, BoBo, Ape, DLau, Farseer, Gloria, Toes, Su-Wa[illegible], Thanks, Chucks, Kent, and Ah Chuen. p.s. order doesn't matter. Grade 8 McGee

Twas home room, and the McGee eights,
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe:
All mimsy were the GHOBRIAL'S,
And the NISHIOKAS outgrabe.

"Beware the CALVERT joke, my son!
The puns that bite, the syntax weak!
Beware the HYNDS as well, and shun
The frumious Cameron TAIT!"

He took his JONESal sword in hand:
Long time the MANNish foe he sought ——
So rested he by the STONEMAN tree,
And stood awhile in thought.

And , as in YOONish thought he stood,
The CALVERT joke, with puns of groan,
Came MORALESing through the HANSON wood.
And TILLERed as it came!

One, two! One, two! And through and through
The ARON blade went TIPPING-tack!
He left it dead, and with its head
He went LEBARing back.

"And, has thou slain the CALVERT joke?
Come to my arms, my BEANish boy,
O CARABIAS day, DOUGEE, DOUGAY,
He TREVORED in his joy.

Twas home room, and the McGee eights,
Did gyre and gimble in the wabe,
All YUENish were the borogroves
And the mome raths outgrabe.

Grade 7 Austin

Grade 7… what a year! The homeroom of Ms. Austin, was not just any old homeroom. It was a great homeroom. From the high spirits of Perry to the humorous antics of Jon K it was a great year. Morning chess games between people like Abhinav and Mitch could always be seen as they tried to reach the title of chess champion. In end of term dodge ball competitions between our homeroom and Mr. Ruscitti's homeroom, you could always be certain to see people like Michael D and Aldo leading on our homeroom to hopefully a victory. But it wasn't just because of things like these and other achievements that made our homeroom great, it was because people respected one another; people went the extra mile to help out a student in need of help; people were really nice. The year has passed by quickly, and I'm sure everyone will agree with me that years later people will look back on this year and remember even the littlest of things. The achievements of people, phenomenal, the friendships between people, great, the year together as grade 7s, fantastic.

Our class is a bunch of hard working individuals who have succeeded greatly through this very hard year. I say hard because of all the construction going on and our tuck shop that was torn down early on during the year. We have been very grateful for the fact year for our teacher Mr. Ruscitti who has given our class many pizza parties and other rewards which, I think, was greatly enjoyed by all of my fellow classmates and I. The year was quite an interesting one, with half of our class being new boys. Cadets was an interesting experience, especially since I have never experienced anything quite like it before. It takes endurance to stand straight for over 1 hour and intelligence to learn the commands and drills. The athletic ability of our class improved greatly as the year progressed, thanks largely to Mrs. Perrier, who organised fun games that improved our physical fitness. All in all, the year was a success for all of the Grade 7 students.

The Grade 6 class has an interesting combination of personalities. There are boys from Korea, Australia, Mexico, Hong Kong and of course Canada. Our homeroom teacher is Mr. Kyle, who also teaches us Science and English. We have studied many different things this year. Some of them include: building k'nex in science, studying Greece and Rome in history, in French we have studied Paris and Quebec, in English we studied punctuation and a couple of novels. We have enjoyed these subjects very much including all of our other ones. The boys in our class all have participated in at least one sport showing that we are an athletic group of boys.

Now we will talk about the boys in our class. Mark Jenkins is a very talented basketball player, Joshua Harris is a very likeable guy, Alex Culp is very good at soccer, Jorge Roca is a Mexican and likes to play on the computer, Bobby McDonald is a very trustworthy guy and is a friend to everyone, Jameel Hanoun is a very smart kid and is filled with facts and knowledge, Boris Wong is a very funny guy even though he can be shy, Dave Nam always strives for his best while doing his work his English speaking has improved vastly over the course of the year, Jack Avalos also comes from Mexico and loves to share his culture with the class, Alistair Man is a boarder and loves being here all the time, Tyler Aron likes to play soccer, hockey and squash, Ryan Cole is a very interesting character and has a great sense of humour, Michael Anderson is a talented artist and is an amazing piano player he also is a good soccer player, James Doran is from Australia and is an incredibly responsible boy and on top of that is a great classmate, Michael Goitanich is class president and very co-operative, Sam Millette is class vice president and is very funny, and nice. Mr. Kyle is our homeroom, English and Science teacher and is a great teacher, he makes learning in grade 6 interesting.

As you can tell this years grade 6 class is a very enthusiastic addition to our school. We will continue to thrive all throughout our years at St. Andrew's.

MacDonald House

Wow! The year seemed to fly by in the hallways of Macdonald House and what an action-packed year it was! I am pleased to report that our Residential Life Curriculum certainly added a great deal to our current Residential Life Program. Throughout the year, I have reinforced that fact that a Residential Life Curriculum is as equally important as the academic curriculum within a boarding school. The Macdonald House Duty Team, consisting of Masters Mr. Kitagawa, Dr. Joiner, Mr. Finlay, Mrs. D'Angelo, Mr. Inglis and Mr. Reid, as well as with the support of Assistant Housemasters Mr. Stewart, Mr. Tsioros and our "Mac Mom" Resident Don Ms. Ossenkopp were able to provide an environment that was nurturing and caring, and teach values and issues in a responsible and appropriate manner to Mac House students. As well, thank you to all Middle School Study teachers, Mrs. Shields and Ms. Grossi for providing help and guidance during the important 'study prep' time. I am deeply thankful and grateful for all their hard work and dedication to the boys of Mac House. Not only was the House supervised by our excellent Duty Team, it was also an environment for our older House Captain students to act as big brothers to our younger students. The job of a House Captain is 24/7 – imagine living, working and playing in an environment surrounded by young and highly energetic grade 6, 7 and 8s! Thanks to all our House Captains (especially Tomi Jun who helped out for two terms!) and our two Heads of House, Jamie Lawson and Jean-Simon Bourque for being great role models and leaders. In addition, I'd like to thank our Mac House Ladies Guild Coordinator Mrs. Housser, as well as Mrs. Poirier-MacIver, Mrs. Chanadi, Mrs. Noble and Mrs. Giroux for helping out in Mac House on a regular basis. The Birthday Bashes were a blast! Finally, I'd like to thank Mr. Tsioros for being there and for serving the boys of Mac House for the past seven years as Assistant Housemaster. I wish him and his family all the best! Mr. Tsioros and his family have recently purchased their own home in Aurora. We welcome Mr. Nicholas Day to assume the position of Assistant Housemaster in Macdonald House in September.

Houses Houses Houses Houses Houses Houses Houses

The addition of the fire doors (restricting travel between the upper school houses), the network shutdown at midnight, the ongoing construction and many more minor changes were not well received by returning students. As well, an ever-increasing day population continued to put stress on the boarding contingent. Despite this, I cannot remember a year where students were as respectful, conscientious and friendly. Through all of our mistakes and poor judgements, these things remained constant.

Assistant Housemaster, Keith Ramon, added an enormous amount to the life and tone of the house. It is probably not a coincidence that student behaviour was as good. Thanks in part to the duty team and the graduating Heads of House, Jae Hee Lee, Geoff Delean and Soung Hun Lee, we managed the highest academic average among the boarding houses and closed the gap against the day houses. Many other students also set a high standard in terms of comportment including Jason Lau who was the winner of the Sifton Award for his contribution to school spirit and house activities. Jose Uribe was a big brother to a wonderful group of Mexicans who enriched so much the life of Sifton and the school. Our best wishes to these guys and all others who move on to different places next fall. Nearly half of the students in Sifton will be new to the house next year. With leaders like Head Prefect, Faisal Ratansi, soon to be Prefect Tomi Jun, Head of House Eugene Ryu, and Assistant Heads of House Matt Middleton, and Andre Fernandez, the new members will be well received and fit in nicely with the veterans.

It is with great sadness that my wife, children, and I leave Sifton House. We are extremely grateful to all the student who so richly touched our lives over the past six years. You cannot imagine how fortunate we feel to have lived among so many wonderful people.

Memorial

This year has marked a turning point for Memorial House in every area of school life. Our house has always been a home away from home. In other words it's the second best place to live! This year Memorial surpassed any level we reached in the past thanks to all those who were part of this house. We had a great mix of athletes, musicians, scholars, actors and leaders as well as a wide range of culture and all round strong house spirit. Together we achieved The Best Company Award, secured a strong second at Track and Field Day, produced some of the best after study snacks/ meals in the kitchen, enjoyed the best of the Perrier's backyard BBQ's, The Award for Best Chapel Attendance which we held for a day, the most mathematical house thanks to the Math Den, success of the HUNT for Eric "the man" Davies, and we also acquired a higher sense of fashion this year with the release of a great looking line of Memorial clothing. We owe many things to the two who make this house home and we thank Mr. and Mrs. Perrier for everything they have done. They make Memorial house feel like an extension of their own home. We were able to show our gratitude this year with a beautiful canoe that will forever remind them of how much they mean to us. As a Head of House I felt honoured to lead Memorial and those that lived in the house. I will never forget the memories that many of us shared from the kitchen, TV room, house meetings and hall ways. It was an amazing year! Thanks to everyone!!!!!

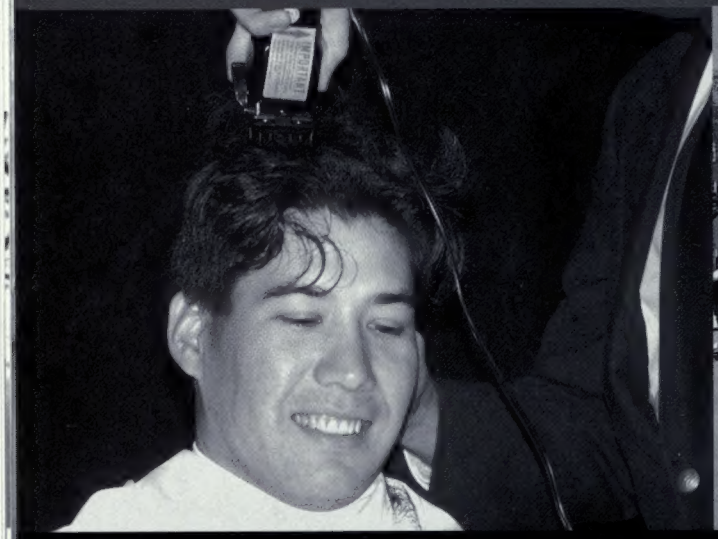
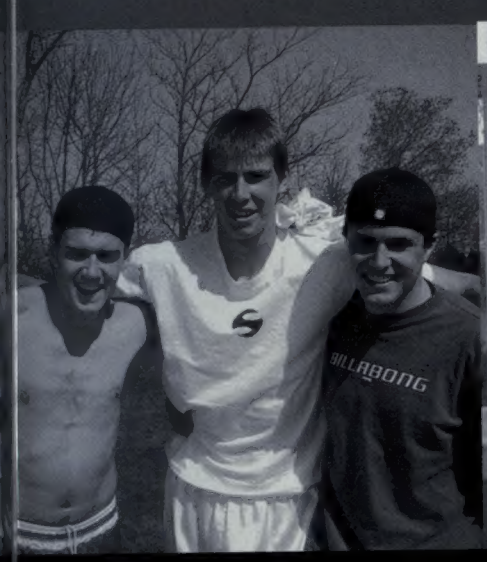
SMITH HOUSE





This past year was a school year unlike any other in recent memory for Smith House. As an invincible unit, we accumulated a list of victories unparalleled by any other house at St. Andrew's, and the key to our success was participation! After kicking off the year with a tie for first in Terry Fox pledges, there was an undeniable feeling of pride growing in our small, construction frequented hallway, yet little did we know that it was a mere tremor preceding our explosive emergence as the new "house to beat". With protein providing barbecues and pizza lunches held in the Smith House dungeon our chemistry and strength were further developed. These hearty meals were also used as a time for veterans to reflect on years gone by, and the many defeats endured. With the mental and physical stability of the team secured it was time to put our athletics to the test in a game that should be next on the list for Olympic representation; dodgeball! Both Laidlaw and later, Ramsey suffered humiliating defeats as we simply had more true athletes. The dedication of the house, was mirrored by our housemaster, Mr. Kitagawa, who voluntarily had his (beloved) hair shaved off after Smith House was crowned champions of the Upper School Cross Country Run! Yet, another testament to the competitiveness of the house and another obstacle overcome in the years unprecedented success! Adding to these years triumphs was the successful introduction of, not one but two Smith House clothing lines, including T-shirts, sweet shirts, caps and our personal favorite - bathrobes. Thanks must be given to our co-heads of house, Alex Comargo and Stu Manchee. Both of these grads we instrumental in ensuring Smith House was successful in all of our endeavors. Most notable was our first place track and field finish. Without the strong example set by the grads, our achievement of all our goals may not have been possible. Thanks to the Smith House council and to all that made Smith House what it is today. This year we have set a high standard, for the house to uphold next year… To the remaining members, keep the flame burning!

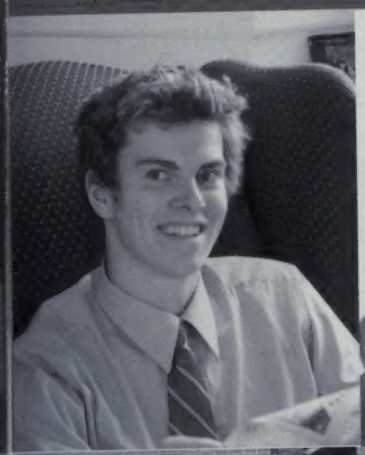
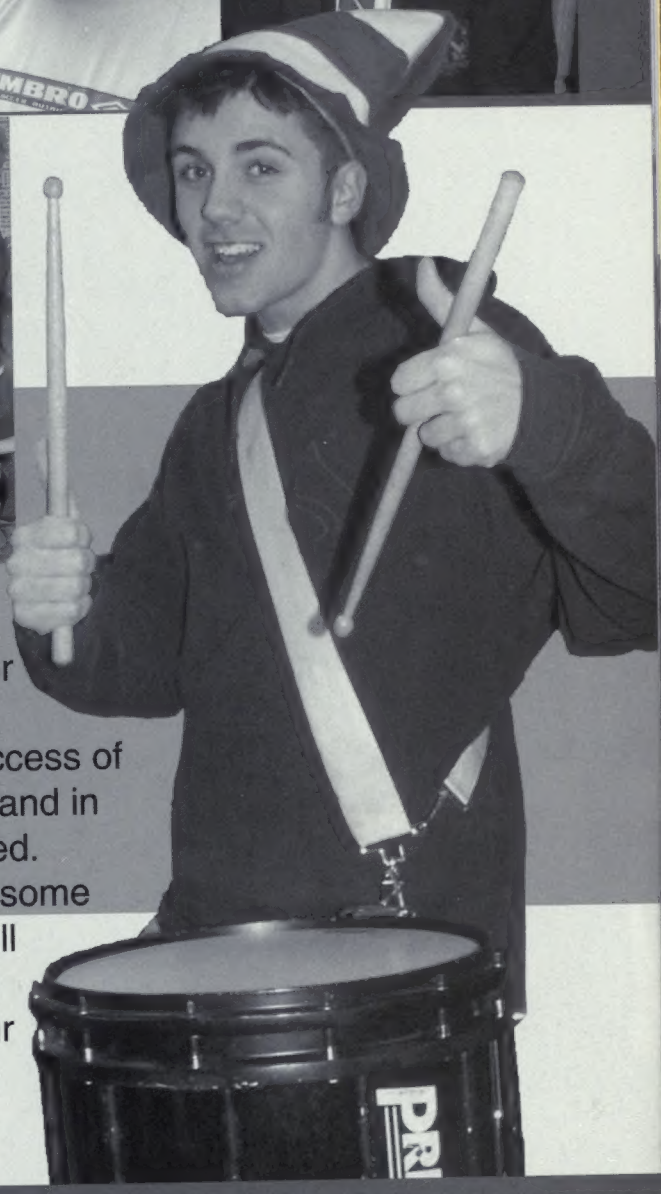
RAMSEY HOUSE

Houses Houses Houses Houses Houses Houses Houses





Lead by our two able head's of House, David Nudds and Allan Bean, Ramsey was beaten by only one other house for the Housser trophy for clan competitions in the Upper School this year. This alone is indicative of the success of the house members in the classroom, on the sport's field and in the many different co-curricular activities that were pursued. With many pizza lunches, barbeques, Tim-bits as well as some friendly rivalry with outer day houses, many memories will leave with this large graduating class as they make room for others to step into their place. Best of luck in all of your future endeavors and thanks for a great year!

Laidlaw House, the defending Houser Trophy winner as best house the last two years, struggled this year in maintaining it's ranking. Never the less Laidlaw had a solid year with the majority of it's members involved most school team, clubs and dramatic productions. Lead by Co-heads of House, Stephen Tompson and Brian Harvey, the house enjoyed numerous pizza lunches and "Tim-Bit' Wednesdays. much to the envy of other houses. As well, many members of the house maintained it's commitment to the ideals of team work, dedication and obligation. Returning members look forward to regaining the number one status to the house. To those who have graduated, good luck to you and your new endeavours...thanks for your efforts on behalf of Laidlaw House.

CLUBS

From its humble beginnings, Community Service at St. Andrew's has been increasing steadily year after year. Each successive year the college takes on more and more opportunities to involve itself in the surrounding community. This year the Community Service Council consisted of fifteen extremely capable and dedicated members who met every week to organize and plan the volunteer projects for S.A.C. The group of students was split up into two distinct sects: Communication & Advertising. The Communication portion was responsible for the organization of individual events for the college. The Advertising portion was responsible for the Newsletter, posters, and the website. More projects were taken on and successfully completed this past academic year than ever before. Instilled this year was the Volunteer-Term program, in which students who were taking the term off sports could dedicate their spare time to community service. Another new endeavor this year was the C.S. Newsletter, used to inform the school about past and upcoming events, and interviews with current valuable volunteers. The core groups of community service projects were taken on also, such as trips to the Blood Donor clinic, Food Drive, park clean-ups, CN Tower Climb, ushering and Gift-Wrapping. The entire graduating class was also able to achieve the minimum requirement of hours to graduate 40, with many students going far beyond the expected by attaining their new 200 hour pins.

The council would like to thank all those that chose to participate and chaperone in the events throughout the year. Without you they, of course, would not have been possible. Thanks should also be extended to Reverend Roffey, who chose to take time out of his hectic schedule to assist the council this year with Middle School and Statistics. Thank you Mrs. Pries, who keeps community service on track. The council will be saying goodbye this year to graduating students: Soung-Hun Lee, David Charlebois, Jamie Lawson, Brian Harvey, Joseph Leung, Treasurer Geoffrey Delean, Advertising Co. Mike Lin, Vice President Jason Lau, and President Nick Dadson. Congratulations to all those selected to be on the council next year including: Christian Thorne, Jason Kim, Chang Boo, Aldis Sung, Greg Vandemark, Christopher Simpson, James McArthur and Joseph Ghobrial with returning member Imran Gulamani. The chosen executive for the upcoming year consists of President Zameer Velji-Pirani, Vice President Justin Wong, and Secretary Jay Smith. Make sure to visit our improved Community Service website: 'kilby.sac.on.ca/activitiesclubs/comservice'.

Community Service

Community Service

The purpose of the St. Andrew's College Student Outreach Committee is to encourage civic responsibility and a commitment to helping others. This complements the school's mission: to help nurture "the complete man, the well-rounded citizen".

The lesser publicized, but perhaps even more valuable secondary purpose of the committee, is to offer a forum for the development of student leadership skills. Committee members coordinate four major events and numerous smaller activities each year. It is through their enthusiasm and energy that other students are inspired to get involved in charity fundraising.

In the 2002/2003 school year, the students of S.A.C. have already raised in excess of $18,000 for such charities as the Terry Fox Foundation, United Way, Ontario Special Olympics, the Nelson Mandela Children's Fund, Dr. Graham's Homes and World Vision.

As staff facilitator for the Outreach Committee, one of my greatest joys is to be able to watch the efforts of some remarkable student leaders come to fruition on event days. There are 15 members on the committee this year, each of whom has demonstrated character, integrity and a keen sense of responsibility in their work with Outreach. Patrick McGrath (Co-president) and Alex McNabb (Advertising Coordinator) were the driving forces behind the 5th annual charity coffee house in February which turned out to be the most successful one yet. Jarryd Stock (Co-president) and Sebastien Manigat (O.A.C.) coordinated the 4th annual staff/student basketball game in March. (Once again, the staff team won!) Adam Parent (Co-president) organized a raffle held at the same time which raised almost $1200. Although Adam did much of the organization for this raffle, it would not have been possible without the efforts of Taylor Walker (Grade 8), Matthew Suddaby (Grade 9), Jared Leslie (Grade 10) and Brendon McCullough (Treasurer) in gathering prizes. The 3rd annual 30 Hour Famine for World Vision was held in April under the direction of Faisal Ratansi (Secretary) and Bradley Downey (Grade 12). With over 100 participants, this was the largest famine thus far at S.A.C. A new initiative this year, the brainchild of Joel Ford (O.A.C.), was the monthly sale of Krispy Kreme doughnuts. Thanks to Joel's creative idea and ongoing initiative, sales have resulted in almost $1500 charitable profit over the past six months. The remaining committee members: Nick Leslie (Grade 9), Ryan Bryce (Grade 10), Matthew Gnyp (Grade 11), and Jason Kim (Grade 11) have also proven their value many times over in the support they have provided to all of these endeavours.

This year's Outreach successes are without a doubt, a function of the leadership, commitment, vision and hard work of the exceptional young men comprising the committee.

Outreach
Outreach

The Christian Fellowship this year was quite productive in their events. Introducing the M.A.P. program to chapel, the students brought a new twist to the morning services and shared their views on life and spiritual matters. One of these events involved DJ Lynn who rocked the house with his beats and the meaningful messages of the contemporary songs. Several students were introduced to Christ, some for the first time, through such an event. The fellowship in general carried on its tradition of having fun and learning more about spiritual living as well as fellowshiping with one another. There was growth both in bumbers and in spirit this year. Special thank you to Rev. Roffey for all his help and to the leaders and grads, Mark Cheng, Michael Lin, Tyler Smith, Paul Tsai, Jason Lau for all their support and guidance. Good luck and God bless in the future.

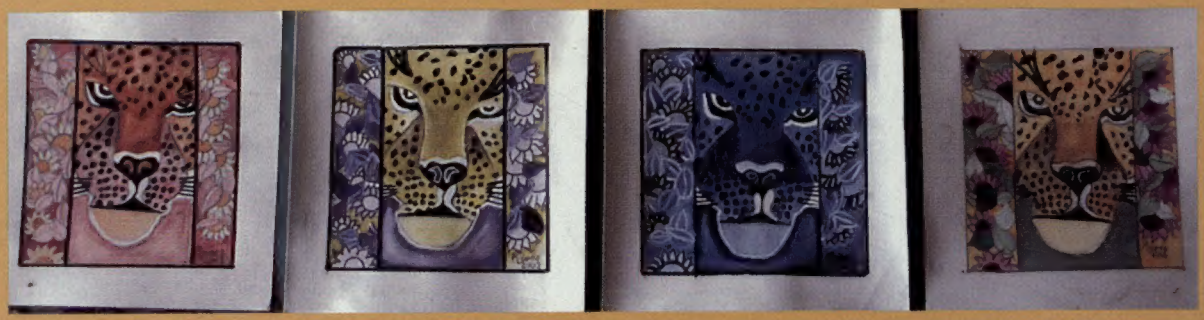
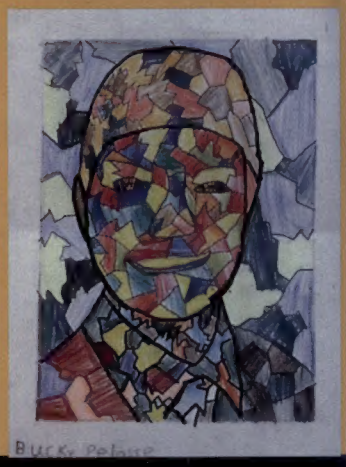
THE ARTS





Knowledge - Brandon McNally

I hold the knowledge, with which I have,
I stare at it, as a poor child does a dime,
Unknowing of the vast wealth in the world,
Quite happy to stare within its surface,
Yet when that dime looses its shine,
I'm forced to look deeper than before,
See past the surface and to find nothing,
And as the children have parents,
I have wise men to guide me,
And as the parents with a smile
Take the dime from the youth,
It startles the youth and they fight
They fight for what's theirs
Just as I fought for my knowledge,
But the father takes the dime and gives,
They give a bill a piece of paper,
The child sees only the lack of shine
Soon though he sees the pictures
And the words 'In God We Trust'
They see the light
They learn as well
They thank he who gave the dollar
As I thank he who created knowledge

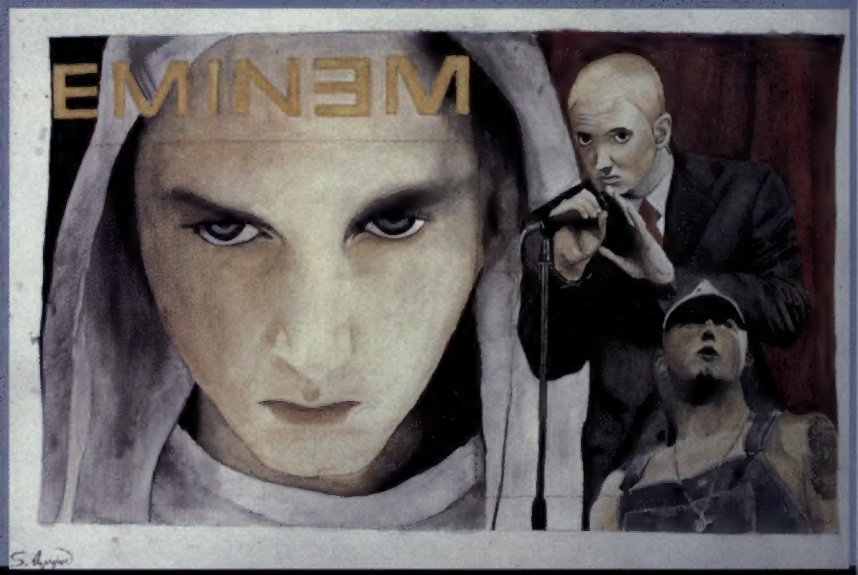
Life Stories - Justin Wong

Unforgettable, equivocal, arbitrary, and totally rational and irrational all together
Yet it all comes to play whether we like it or not
At the street corner, the coffee bar, the movie theatre, and the quaint boutique.
Habitual stories of predilection, antagonism, and love
Fill our schedules so much so, that we overlook reading them
Esoteric stories are transients, forever searching for places to do its work
Simple tales are abundant, and will eternally come and go
So what makes a textbook story? That of complexity and simplicity attached to the same spine?
No, there are no guidlines
But only in the hands of a true virtuoso can one justly create works worthy of a god.

This fables virtuoso is life and we are all subordinates in this whimsical tale of our existence.



Painting - Michael Lin

As I paint your face
I feel like I'm touching you
As I paint your eyes
You see
Every stroke of the brush
I put my life into you
Each dab of pigment
A breathe of air
As I create you on my canvas
Our souls begin to fuse
I am, we are, one, not two
You are me and I am you.

Dream - Derek Toms
(Based on "I, Icarus" by Alden Nowlan)

Once, it was easy.
There was nothing I couldn't hve, go, be.
Escape was always there,
within reach.
Monotonous greys transformed into psychedelic reds, yellow and blues;
Concrete to wildflowers.
Boring walls to exotic locales.
I was free.

ARTS 2002 2003

Duality - Nicholas Dadson

Secluded, I am half,
Together, I am one.
None know you exist
for trapped inside
this outer shell we,
both reside, persist.

My alter ego and me,
the antithesis
to all my deeds.
What would be of such a life, if you, in fact,
were me?

Everlasting - Jonathan Mackenzie

Legions of people walking
All in a perfect line
Not one of them knowing where they're going to

Unconciously wrought with hopes and desires
Slowly they drift while the world conspires
You know we know what you're going through
What you're going through

This is a war but one of a kind
No bombs no soldiers
Only deception you'll find
You want, you see, but you'll never touch me

Mind's eye is cloudy grey
What do the papers say
So blind and so naive
I will make you believe

Prize Day 2003

The 104th edition of Prize Day at St. Andrew's College is dedicated to Justin Scott, Class of 1998, who died tragically earlier this year after a car accident in his native Bahamas.

We would like to thank everyone for their patience during the past twelve months, a period marked by the most complex and comprehensive building program in the history of St. Andrew's College. Faculty and their families, staff, parents, students, neighbours, and visitors to the school have all been inconvenienced by the construction. As the black, red and white signs around the campus indicate, we do apologize for the disruption you have incurred this year. By the time the students return to the campus in September, all projects will be finished and we are confident that the Andrean community will be thrilled with the finished product.

The Class of 2003 has fared well with 100% of students being offered places to university and/or college! The total amount of scholarship funds awarded were $1,092,000 with more offers coming every day. Some of the more notable scholarships include Alex McNabb, awarded the President's Scholarship from the University of Guelph and major U.S. scholarships and bursaries awarded to Alex Camargo, Derrick Kocik, Sebastien Manigat, J.P. Suddaby, Alex Tanton, Jesse Tipping, and Derek Toms. Our top student of the Class of 2003, Soung Hun Lee, turned down the Dean's Scholarship to Cornell to accept a place at Stanford University in California. Other offers to prestigious programs in the U.S. have been accepted by Mark Cheng, Jason Lau, Jae Hee Lee, Joseph Leung, Ryan Lo, and Patrick McGrath. Forty-two percent of the class will be attending universities in Ontario, 14% in the Maritimes and 7% in Quebec. There will be lots of red leather jackets on the Dalhousie, Mt. Allison, and McGill campuses. Five students will be studying in Western Canada and two students will travel to the U.K. to continue their studies. Seventy students, out of 138 in the grade 12 and 13 class, graduate with an average over 80%. Thirty-four of these boys have been at S.A.C. since Grade 7. A very impressive record!

This year, out of S.A.C.'s 540 students, there were 56 school teams in 22 different sports, and highlights included: 10 CISAA Championship teams, two national Championship teams, 11 CISAA Finalist teams, exceptional OFSAA champion swimmers, Alpine skiers and S.A.C.'s own Donovan Bailey – J.P. Suddaby. We won't soon forget the intensity and desire for a football win of players David Amadori, Michael Tzimas and Dave Banwell, Andrew Douglas's skill on the bagpipes, Michael Lin's amazing artistic ability, Stuart Manchee's acting, Jarryd Stock's voice, J. P. Suddaby's gazelle-like speed and agility, Scott Simmons' grace in the pool, Soung Hun Lee's intellect, Hugh Dowell's uniqueness, and Stephen Thompson's S.A.C. bus. Neither will we soon forget the Cadet Corps' superb 98th year in existence – stellar performances at the Church Parade, the two Inspections and Cadets in Concert, the award winning Pipes & Drums band and their once-in-a-lifetime CD production Quit Ye Like Men, the award-winning Wind Ensemble, Concert Band, Jazz Band and Middle School Band, the first ever Battlefields Study Trip to the graves of fallen Andreans from the Great Wars, the Grade 10 exchange to France and French immersion trip to St. Donat, the many achievements of our mathematicians and debaters, the Summit Writing Society's first Literary Journal entitled Legacy (with special thanks to Mrs. Tilda Robson, Derek Toms and Michael Lin), Mr. Scoular's magnificent production of Oklahoma, Fraser Cowell and Carrie Hughes-McGuinness' Chekhov Shorts and who can forget FOCUS?

Prize Days at S.A.C. are huge undertakings. Gregory Dominato, Marie Pilieci, Jen Kearney, Gayle Petri, Edna Collins and Kim Peyman have been preparing for this special day for months. Special thanks to Klaus Griese, Paul Hodgson, Rodger Routledge and the rest of the maintenance and grounds crew for preparing our beautiful campus. Also, to Mike, Luigi, Kanny and all the kitchen staff for their hard work all year.

Have a safe and enjoyable summer.

Mr. Struan Robertson

It is not often that St. Andrew's graduates one of its offspring twice. In a manner of speaking, that is what has happened here. Struan Robertson 84' has just taken another bow and is off to a position at Pickering College (just to the north of S.A.C. in Newmarket) to become Assistant Head Master in charge of Advancement.

Pickering has indeed chosen well; for at his second graduation we recognize Struan for his Andrean Spirit, Heart, Mind and (yes) Body.

His work in the Admission Office has been one of great purpose, belief and spirit. A happier and more convivial individual one could not hope to meet. He is indeed the epitome of the good-natured Andrean, willing to take his place on the team.

Half measures are not in Struan's vocabulary. He works and plays with the same energetic zeal. Loyal and true, Struan has not sought attention from others as he focused on the tasks at hand. His generosity with his own time has won him many friends in this community among every constituency. He has worked tirelessly to promote his alma mater with pride. There are many many more who now know about S.A.C. as a result of Struan's efforts than did before he arrived in the Admission Office. A kinder person you will not find!

Struan posseses a keen intellect. He is fluent in our two official languages. He is a master in the process of debating and facilitating communication among people. He enjoys fine writing, music, art, theatre, drink, excellent food (French is best) and the occasional (but it has to be good) cigar. His sense of humour is sharp and quick. He is not a person that one would idly choose to cross verbal swords with.

Well now, the corpus has been left to the last, and shall therefore get the briefest of attention. The tests incumbent in the previous three areas have left things in this department somewhat on the shaky side. True, he is an excellent shot (as those on the Rifle Team can attest). He is a veritable shark in the pool; but ohhhh – that aching back.

It would be quite unethical and misleading for us to graduate one who we claimed to be perfect. We wish our Quaker brethren well, as they perhaps have a shot at continuing the job. From all at S.A.C.-- a huge GANGWHA! Bon Chance Struan!

A.M.Foy

Mrs. Carolyn O'Higgins

Ask anybody who knows her what Carolyn's favourite things might include and you are sure to come up with gardening, the outdoors, and reading. It is also fair to suggest that she is one person whom everyone on campus knows. She will be a much missed person here at S.A.C.

Carolyn began life with us in 'Reception'. She was to be the 'first face' that many would put to S.A.C., and her always welcoming nature and smile were what greeted those coming to our campus for the first time.

After a short stay in Reception, Carolyn joined forces with the Admission Office. The same welcoming nature, her love of people, excellent writing and organizational skills, made it quite apparent that she would be of great value to us in not only greeting new people to our place, but helping them to connect with St. Andrew's College as prospective parents and students.

The approach to this graduating year of 2003 needed some special thought and action. This class was to be substantially larger because the Province of Ontario was eliminating the thirteenth year. Two classes would graduate at once, shifting an enormous load onto our University Guidance Office. The need to have someone who knew the students, who was supremely organized, hard working, and who possessed excellent writing skill made her a 'shoe in' to bring the required additional boost to this area. I know that there are many 2003 grads who owe Ms. O'Higgins thanks for her effective and timely work on their behalf.

As is the case with so many whose interests take them into gardening, Carolyn has a keen eye not just for plants but for people. Her ability to name and discuss plants is also visible in her interest and care for people. She has cultivated many friendships among us. Though she will be missed here, we are certain that we are not forgotten. The beauty of the north has beckoned, and we wish her good health, good reading, and, above all, good gardening.

Mr. Aubrey Foy

Aubrey Foy, gifted musician, master, computer expert, housemaster, advisor, civilian cadet instructor, mentor, confidant, visionary, husband, father, and friend. In short (NOT AN ORDINARY MAN)

After 27 years at St. Andrew's College, Aubrey Foy and his wife Daphne depart for their home in the Gatineau. Aubrey will continue to be an Ambassador for St. Andrew's College, assisting the Admission Office in the Ottawa area and travelling on an occasional basis. Aubrey has made many friends at S.A.C. over the years because of his wonderful, caring, nature and we are all the richer for having known and worked with him. He will be missed but not forgotten.

Aubrey will now have the time he so richly deserves to devote to his first love which is music. . "From music I came, to music I'll return."

Mr. Matthew Ainsworth

It is with deep regret that the History and Social Sciences Department says goodbye to Matthew Ainsworth. It is no exaggeration to say that Matthew was one of the most knowledgeable and intellectual teachers that the Department has ever had. He distinguished himself early in his academic career, receiving numerous awards as an undergraduate at York University. He won the History Department's Grace Heggie and Lex Mackenzie Scholarships in his final year, was thrice listed for exceptional sessional academic excellence, and graduated Magna Cum Laude on the Dean's Honour Roll in 2000. After completing a Bachelor of Education degree in 2001 he began his teaching career with us in '02-'03.

His unusual breadth of knowledge of history immediately struck us as exceptional and his intellectual imagination and remarkable sense of historical and political judgment deeply enriched the experience of the students whom he taught. Matthew was devoted to academic excellence in his students and he spent many hours above and beyond teaching good principles of historical research and analysis. Above all, his infectious, wry, rather right-wing British humour — which was not always understood by students and faculty alike — improved the days of those of us who knew him best.

Beyond the classroom Matthew also enriched the school with his co-curricular interests. Apart from actively participating in the Aurora community by volunteering with youth groups, he coached our Tier II soccer and First Cricket teams. Nor should it be forgotten that Matthew spent hundreds of hours tutoring our senior history students without remuneration for two years before joining the faculty.

Matthew's departure leaves a deep void in the teaching of the humanities and social sciences at our school. He, his wife Karen, and baby daughter Katherine will be deeply missed on the campus. We wish them God-speed and all success in their future endeavours and we sincerely hope that they will return to visit us frequently as a busy life permits.

Ms. Hughes-McGuinness

Let me tell you a little about my friend Carrie,
With her by my side, my first year here wasn't scary.
Five teaching years under her belt, and I with none,
She showed me the ropes, for I had barely begun.
You see friends, and colleagues, this woman was born to teach,
From English to Drama to Chapel she even did preach.
The boys would say she was so much more, than one who gave out marks,
Because she showed she cared so much, she would often ignite the spark.
The spark I speak of, is one that builds confidence and self-esteem,
Through faith and perseverance, she encourages them to dream.
You could find her on the softball diamond, or on the soccer field,
A coach, mentor and friend, the team's confidence and respect they'd yield.
You could find her in the theatre, both on and behind the stage,
As director, producer, or actor she never lost her page.
You could find her on the basketball court, or on the hockey rink,
Competing against the boys, many females would easily shrink.
But you see friends and colleagues, she gave St. Andrew's her all,
And I am sad to say she will not be with us this fall.
For she and hubby Jeff, dog Marlowe, and cat Shakespeare,
Are moving to Calgary to Strathcona-Tweedsmere.
So let's raise our glass to "Ms. H-M", their Teacher of the Year,
Our thoughts and prayers go with you, fond memories we will hold dear.

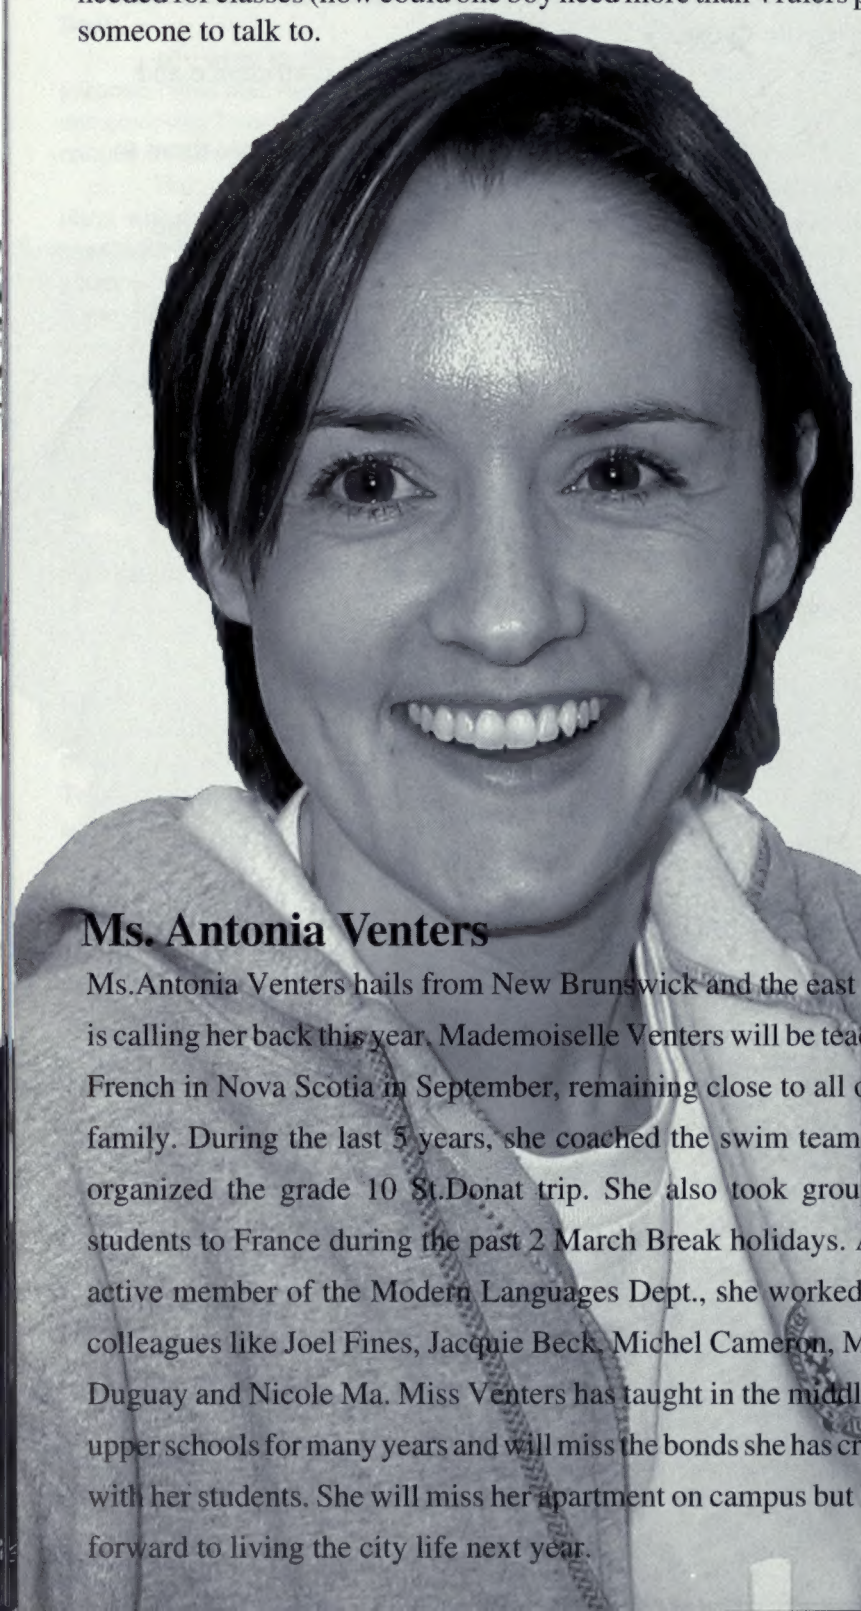
Mrs. Marlene Ash

Marlene Ash retired as the Campus Shop Manager in June 2003. Marlene worked in this position for 16 years and made her way to work every day – through snow, sleet, rain and mud - along the path that connects her backyard with the campus grounds. We hope that she will continue to keep the path worn even after her retirement.

Mrs. Ash may have always been passionate about books and she spent much of her working life in bookstores such as the Tallyman Bookstore in Aurora and University bookstores at York and Waterloo, but she was also great at finding the latest fads in pens, pencils and other campus shop fodder.

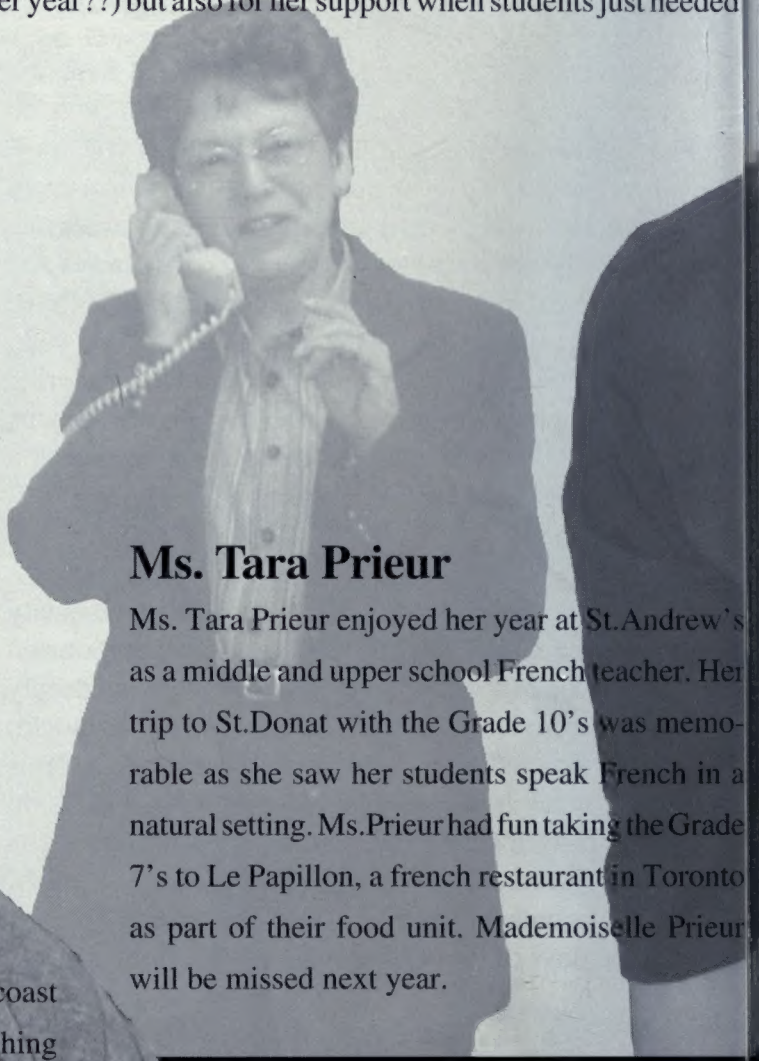
Her husband Fred helped design and re-design the store layout, as well as other office layouts for administrative offices and Mrs. Ash also had him provide "crowd control" when she was selling books at the beginning of the year.

We wish her all the best in her retirement and thank her for helping so many students over the years with not only what they needed for classes (how could one boy need more than 4 rulers per year??) but also for her support when students just needed someone to talk to.



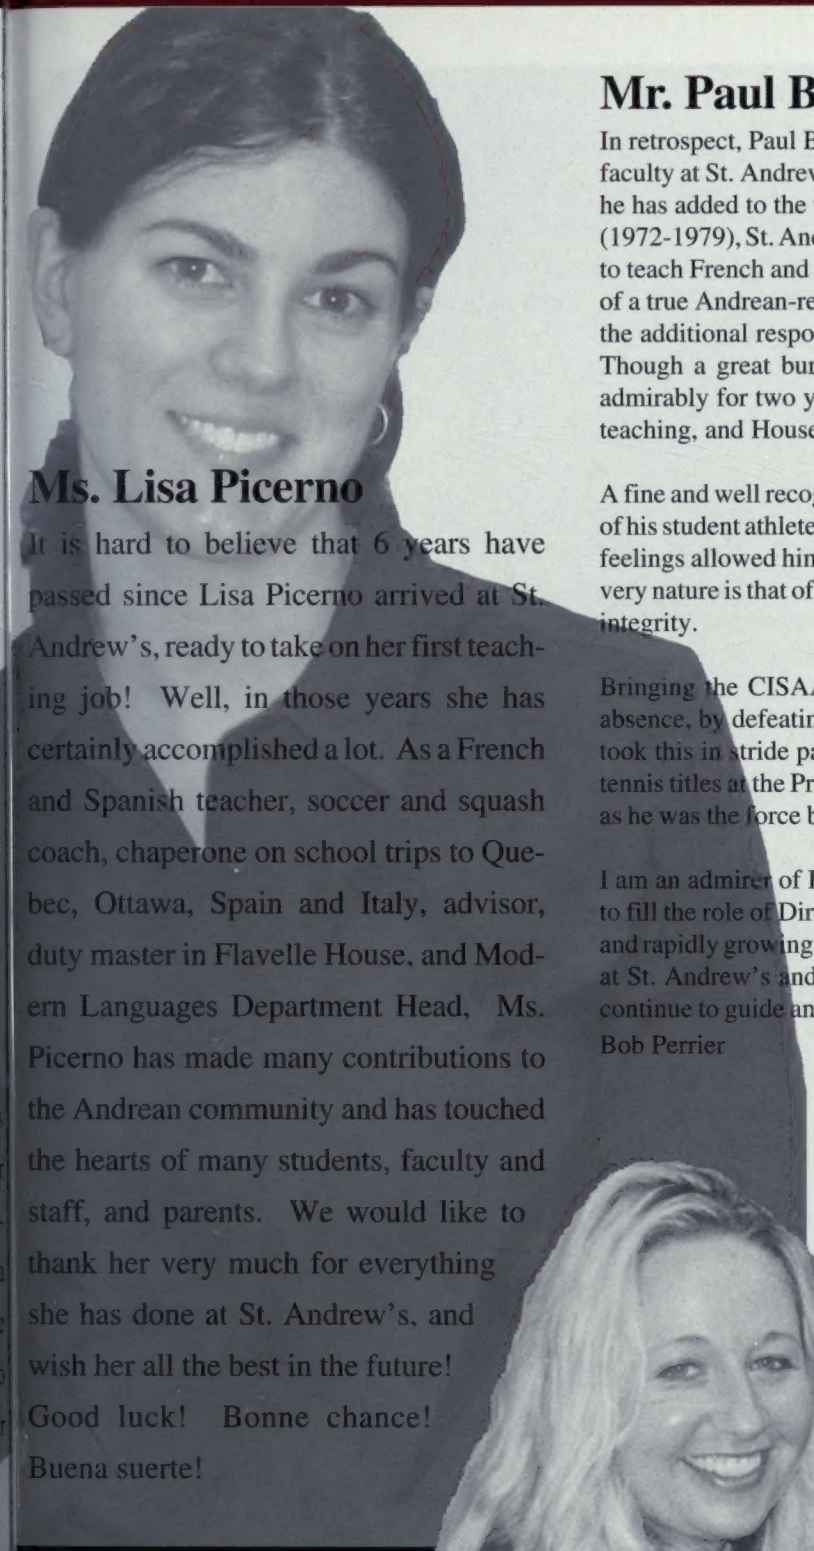
Ms. Antonia Venters

Ms.Antonia Venters hails from New Brunswick and the east coast is calling her back this year. Mademoiselle Venters will be teaching French in Nova Scotia in September, remaining close to all of her family. During the last 5 years, she coached the swim teams and organized the grade 10 St.Donat trip. She also took groups of students to France during the past 2 March Break holidays. As an active member of the Modern Languages Dept., she worked with colleagues like Joel Fines, Jacquie Beck, Michel Cameron, Martin Duguay and Nicole Ma. Miss Venters has taught in the middle and upper schools for many years and will miss the bonds she has created with her students. She will miss her apartment on campus but looks forward to living the city life next year.



Ms. Tara Prieur

Ms. Tara Prieur enjoyed her year at St.Andrew's as a middle and upper school French teacher. Her trip to St.Donat with the Grade 10's was memorable as she saw her students speak French in a natural setting. Ms.Prieur had fun taking the Grade 7's to Le Papillon, a french restaurant in Toronto as part of their food unit. Mademoiselle Prieur will be missed next year.



Ms. Lisa Picerno

It is hard to believe that 6 years have passed since Lisa Picerno arrived at St. Andrew's, ready to take on her first teaching job! Well, in those years she has certainly accomplished a lot. As a French and Spanish teacher, soccer and squash coach, chaperone on school trips to Quebec, Ottawa, Spain and Italy, advisor, duty master in Flavelle House, and Modern Languages Department Head, Ms. Picerno has made many contributions to the Andrean community and has touched the hearts of many students, faculty and staff, and parents. We would like to thank her very much for everything she has done at St. Andrew's, and wish her all the best in the future! Good luck! Bonne chance! Buena suerte!

Mr. Paul Bedard

In retrospect, Paul Bedard has packed a great deal into his seven years as a member of the faculty at St. Andrew's College. Reflecting upon his career one quickly realizes how much he has added to the vitality and well-being of our school community. As a former student (1972-1979), St. Andrew's was certainly not new to Paul when he arrived in September 1996 to teach French and Physical Education. What he brought with him was the characteristics of a true Andrean-respect, loyalty, and the willingness to get involved. In 1997 he took on the additional responsibilities of Housemaster of Sifton House and Director of Athletics. Though a great burden he handled these two roles, as well as coaching and teaching, admirably for two years. From September, 1999 he concentrated his efforts on coaching, teaching, and Housemastering.

A fine and well recognized sportsman he showed a tremendous knack in getting the best out of his student athletes. He could teach the skills but his understanding and sensitivity to their feelings allowed him to connect perfectly with his players. This is not surprising for Paul's very nature is that of a true gentleman, hugely compassionate, supportive, and of the highest integrity.

Bringing the CISAA Hockey Championship to St. Andrew's in 2001, after an 18 year absence, by defeating UCC on their ice was a notable accomplishment. Paul very humbly took this in stride passing off credit to all but himself. The same is true when he has won tennis titles at the Provincial and National levels. He is not adverse to breaking new ground as he was the force behind St. Andrew's venture into competitive baseball this past spring.

I am an admirer of Paul's inner strength and find him a pleasure to be with. He moves on to fill the role of Director of Athletics at St. Thomas of Villanova College, a relatively new and rapidly growing school. We wish him well. He has touched the lives of many young men at St. Andrew's and will not be forgotten. But his work is not over as he will continue to guide and influence young people.
